President Signs Muscle Shoals Bill

SENATE GROUP NOT SATISFIED WITH TAX BILL

REVISION BY STATE LEGISLATURE IS CERTAIN

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—Administration hopes that its chief tax measure of the session might speed through the legislature within the next week without drastic revision suffered a severe set-back today.

Less than two hours after looking over the sales, gross income and manufacturers' tax measure, the senate taxation committee voted to write a substitute bill eliminating everything but the sales levy.

Sub-Committee Named

A sub-committee was appointed by Chairman Henry C. Glasner, to draft the substitute with Senator William Palmer, Democrat, Flint, chairman. Senators J. Neil Lamoreaux, Democrat, Comstock Park, and Adolph F. Heidkamp, Republican, Lake Linden, were named to serve with Palmer.

Palmer's committee began work on the substitute tonight. The chairman said it would be ready for release to the floor by next Wednesday. He said the bill would be modeled after the Illinois law with no exemptions, with the possible exception of gasoline which is required to pay a three-cent tax. He said the objections to the Illinois statute on constitutional grounds would not apply to the proposed substitute and that it would comply with the Michigan constitution.

Whether the taxation committee will incorporate the other features of the administration bill in separate measures was problematical. Senator Glasner said the committee was uncertain over the possibility of releasing bills providing for levies against manufacturers and gross incomes. He said, however, measures would be reported providing for other specific taxes such as cigarettes and amusements.

Governor Comstock and administration leaders were openely disappointed over the action of the senate committee. A number of Democratic leaders expressed the belief that a substitute bill would not produce sufficient revenue to meet the needs of state government.

The governor, preferring to withhold any plan of action until the senate has acted on the proposed substitute, said "It seems that the senate must make all tax bills conform to its own particular theories. The substitute hasn't gone through or even been drafted yet and I prefer not to say anything further pending developments."

Rep. Adrian C. Barr, Isabella county Democrat, criticized the senate committee, declaring the substitute bill would leave the state with another great deficit. The administration has estimated its bill would yield about $35,-000,000 annually but with the manufacturers' and gross income tax features removed, estimates greatly declined. Barr said the legislature would be unable to pass other specific tax measures and a deficit would follow.

Eight bills providing appropriations for 20 state institutions including hospitals and prisons were passed by the senate and returned to the house for concurrence in amendments. The measures increase the house fig-

PRUSSIAN DIET GETS VACATION

Nazi Machine Dissolves Law Body of Most Important State

Berlin, May 18 (AP)—Encouraged by the nation-wide acclaim won by Chancellor Hitler's address to the Reichstag, the efficient Nazi machine rolled on today and eliminated the Prussian diet, parliamentary body of the dominant state in the German Reich. The diet, meeting today for the first time since the appointment of Hermann Goering as premier, dissolved itself until 1937, giving the Prussian Nazi cabinet full powers to govern during the extended parliamentary vacation.

Thus the Prussian parliament was placed on the shelf along with the German Reichstag, which was called into being again yesterday only long enough to rubber-stamp the declaration of foreign policy enunciated by Chancellor Hitler.

Loyal To Hitler

Before agreeing to its own extinction for a period of four years, the diet listened to a long declaration of policy by Premier Goering whose keynote was that his cabinet desired to safeguard the stability of the Nazi government administered upon the Nazi principle that "the common weal comes before private gain."

Premier Goering began his announcement of governmental policy by a passionate declaration of loyalty to Chancellor Hitler, in whose hands he said the conduct of Prussia's future policy would lie.

Goering promised economic and honest administration and the application of the "stern old Prussian virtue," iron discipline. Prussian law will be the foundation of the Reich's jurisprudence.

Nazi principles will guide instruction in the Prussian university and in training in art, the premier declared.

A "ruthless" fight to exterminate Maxist doctrine and activities in the Prussian state, introduced from the outside, will be carried on by the new secret Prussian police, the Prussian dictator told the dying parliament.

Recognizing that the revival of business and the creation of employment constituted the foremost tasks before his government, Goering asserted that to realize these objectives stable government is essential.

"I assure you that the government headed by myself absolutely guarantees stability," he promised.

"Unjustified interference with business will be dealt with in the severest manner."

Gandhi's mental control and conservation of his energy were credited with aiding him. His physicians previously said they did not think he could survive the fast.

Dykstra Bill Gets Senate's Approval

Lansing, Mich., May 18 (AP)—The senate today passed and returned to the house for concurrence in amendments the Dykstra bill designed to permit rebates of special assessments for the widening of South Division avenue in Grand Rapids.

The measure permits the use of highway revenues as rebates on special assessments when payments have been in default. Under an amendment attached in the senate, the measure will not become operative until Jan. 1, 1934, the date on which the Kulp welfare relief measure becomes inoperative. Both bills amend the Horton highway act.

WARNS PUBLIC AGAINST LAND EXPLOITATION

ABUSE OF PROPERTY CHARGES ARE INVESTIGATED

Washington, May 18 (AP)—President Roosevelt today made the Muscle Shoals bill law, radiating pleasure but warning innocent investors against land speculators seeking to exploit the new program for developing the Tennessee river valley.

He signed only a few hours after it became known he had initiated a department of justice investigation into charges that private utilities which have leased the Muscle Shoals waterpower in recent years misused and damaged the great hydroelectric plant, which has lain virtually dormant since its construction by the government in World War days.

Norris Is Pleased

An enthusiastic group from congress, including Senator Norris of Nebraska and senators and representatives from the shoals area, applauded vigorously as the president put his name to the law which for a dozen years they had struggled futilely to enact. Norris said:

"The law marks an epoch in the history of our national life. It is a monument to the victorious ending of a twelve years' struggle, waged on behalf of the common people against the combined forces of monopoly and human greed."

The president issued no formal statement on land speculation but made sure that his warning be distributed by the press. The land development program is his own, a dream of model communities, of industry brought to the country, of land utilized for its best purpose, of new forests growing where ancient ones have been wiped out, of streams protected against destructive floods, used to their full capacity for navigation and generation of inexpensive electricity. After experiment here, Mr. Roosevelt hopes to extend the plan to other parts of the country.

June 10 Deadline For Adjournment Of Congress Set

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt began a windup canvass of the extra session of congress today in a series of conferences with Capitol Hill leaders and proposed an adjournment as early as possible.

A June 10 deadline was fixed by the conferees, and the house chieftains assured the president they could complete his emergency program by the end of next week—May 27.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic pilot, reported a promising outlook for the senate and told the president he was still counting on the June 10 adjournment.

League Commission To Go To Gran Chaco

Geneva, May 18 (AP)—At a private session the League of Nations council tonight voted to send a commission to the Gran Chaco to supervise the cessation of Bolivian-Paraguayan hostilities and the negotiate the bases for arbitration.

The council also voted to request Paraguay to withdraw its declaration of war and to ask both countries to cease hostilities. The war declaration was the first issued anywhere in the world since the league was formed.

Child Assaulter Is Convicted; Must Die

Dedham, Mass., May 18 (AP)—Ahmed Osman was convicted today of murder in the first degree of 9-year-old Nellis Keras. The verdict carries a mandatory sentence of death in the electric chair. The jury considered the case three hours and 42 minutes.

The child was criminally assaulted and murdered last Christmas Day. Her body was found concealed in a woodpile in the basement of a Norwood tenement building in which her family and Ahmed Osman had apartments.

Success For Arms and Economic Conferences This Summer Expected

BY F. G. VOSBURGH

Washington, May 18 (AP)—A new spirit of optimism for success at the arms and economic conferences at Geneva and London was noted privately by American officials tonight as they analyzed reactions to the momentous declarations of President Roosevelt and Chancellor Hitler of Germany and laid plans for their next moves.

While the developments of the last two days were regarded as having cleared the air, saving the arms conference from collapse and the economic conclave from probable failure, there was no disposition in official circles to count the battle won.

20 Answers Received

From eight more nations, including Germany and Italy, the president received direct replies to his stirring appeal for real disarmament and peace. They brought to 20 tonight the number of presidents and sovereigns who have replied to the cablegram addressed to the chiefs of 54 countries.

President Paul Von Hindenburg's message was noted particularly because of the key position occupied by his country, with France, in the Geneva arms discussion.

"This declaration, in which you show the world the way to eliminate the international crisis, has met with hearty approval throughout Germany," Hindenburg's acknowledgement said. "The statements which the German reich chancellor (Hitler) made yesterday, with the unanimous agreement of the Germany reichstag prove that Germany is decided to cooperate unselfishly in overcoming the political and economic difficulties of the present moment."

Italy's official response was made both in a message to the president from King Emanuel and in a note given to Undersecretary Phillips at the state department by the Italian ambassador, Augusto Rosso. Both expressed heartiest approval, which officials here had expected because of Italy's consistent support in the past of efforts for

Carpenter Declares Bill Has Attracted Many Lobbyists

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—The small loan issue was buffeted about on a rough sea of debate in the senate today but an amended bill finally advanced to a position of a final vote for next week.

After charges that the issue had brought the greatest lobby to Lansing of any measures during the present session, members defeated motions to kill the bill and to advance it for an immediate vote on its passage. The membership made the bill a special order of business for next Wednesday afternoon.

Derham Has Amendment

The fight over the measure was along non-partisan lines with Senators Edward B. McKenna, Democrat, Detroit, urging immediate passage and vainly attempting to insert amendments for lower interest rates. Senators James A. Murphy and Leo G. Karwick, Democrats of Detroit, opposed McKenna's move and attempted to have the measure shunted to the banking committee. McKenna declared the Democratic party in its last state convention had gone on record in favor of reducing interest charges.

"This bill have brought more lobbyists to Lansing than any other measure," Senator Ben Carpenter, Republican, of Harrison, declared. "More money has been spent on it than any other bill this session."

Senator Herbert P. Orr, Republican, Caro, warned Murphy and Karwick they could not escape a record vote by attempting to send the bill to committee. "The only reason for the motion is that someone does not want to go on record," he charged. "You can't avoid going on record because I'm going to put you on the spot when the committee reports."

The bill now provides for interest charges of 2½ per cent a month on the first $100 loan and one per cent between $100 and $300. Senator Ray Derham, Republican, Iron Mountain, added an amendment providing that all loans made to a person within a six-month period be considered one loan.

Claim Pair Passed Spurious Currency

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—Declaring Dorothy Walker and Lorraine Coggins, of Chicago, have been identified by southwestern Michigan merchants as the pair who passed counterfeit $10 bills for purchases, federal secret service agents Thursday prepared to take the two to Grand Rapids where they will be arraigned in the United States district court on charges of counterfeiting.

ACT TO INSURE BANK DEPOSITS

Emergency Plan Offered in Senate by Vandenberg, Michigan

Washington, May 18. (AP)—An emergency plan for insuring all bank deposits up to $2,500 for one year with a fund backed by the treasury was advanced in the senate today as an amendment to the Glass bank bill with strong support from both parties.

The amendment was drafted by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), original senate proponent of insuring deposits, after a long series of conferences with other senators who felt the insurance clause of the bank bill should be liberalized.

With this substitute plan ready, senate leaders prepared to begin debate on the bank bill tomorrow instead of waiting until next week.

Vandenberg's proposal is intended to fill the gap between enactment of the bill and the proposed effective date of the Glass insurance plan, July 1, 1934.

Deposits in all banks up to $2,-500 would be insured during that period from a fund made up of an assessment of one half of one per

Many Oceanic Flights Planned This Summer

New York, May 18 (AP)—Two of the nation's leading fliers—Wiley Post and James Mattern—announced plans today for solo flights around the world.

Mattern, San Angelo flier, who failed in his attempt last year with Bennett Griffin, of Oklahoma City, said he would start the first week in June and Post, who with Harold Gatty hold the world girdling speed record, said at Oklahoma City he would take off about July 1.

Meanwhile, the Flying Mollisons, James and Amy Johnston, were having a huge plane built in England for a New York-Bagdad flight, Francesco de Pinedo, noted Italian flier, is preparing for a solo flight to Persia, and Captain Stephen Darius and Lieutenant Stanley Girenas, Chicago transport fliers, were at Floyd Bennett field awaiting conditioning of their plane for a flight to their native Lithuania.

Still another trans-Atlantic flying venture became known late today when Assen Jordanoff and Captain Cesare Sabelli landed at Roosevelt field in a red monoplane from the factory at Wilmington, Del.

Jordanoff, a Bulgarian nobleman who says he was the first man in his country to fly, has conducted a flying school here for years and gave Thomas A. Edison ground lessons in October, 1930.

Jordanoff said he expected to get away on an ocean hop about the middle of June. He did not disclose his destination, but fellow aviators at the field believed it would be Rome.

Mattern said the plane Century of Progress in which he and Griffin cracked up in Russia last year has been remodeled for solo flight.

MILK SUPPLY IN MENOMINEE CUT, RESTORED

MEETING AT ROCK FIZZLES, LEADER NOT PRESENT

BULLETIN.

Madison, Wis., May 19 (AP)—The Wisconsin milk strike was declared ended today and cessation of picketing will be accomplished tomorrow as soon as the arbitration committee of the Wisconsin Co-operative Milk Pool ratifies an agreement reached at 12 o'clock tonight. This probably will be at 9 a. m. Leaders of the pool reached an agreement with Governor Schmedeman after three and one-half hours of conference in the executive offices here.

Menominee, Mich., May 18 (AP)—Milk supplies to Menominee were cut off temporarily today for the first time since the beginning of the milk strike in this vicinity last Saturday, but a conference today between authorities and strike leaders resulted in restoration of the flow of milk to the city.

Picketing operations caused the closing of all milk condenseries, cheese factories and creameries in Menominee county, but the officials informed strike leaders that the city expects to receive its normal supply of 4,000 quarts of milk daily.

A score of state police and sheriff's deputies went on duty on the county roads, to see that the deliveries were permitted. The picketers unloaded a truck of eggs on a highway, but the officials forced them to reload it, and allowed the driver to proceed.

Strike leaders today asked $1.99 a hundredweight for milk testing 3.5 butterfat, which milk dealers said they could not pay.

MEETING FIZZLES

Rock, May 18 (Special)—The meeting of farmers called for tonight at the Riento hall here for the purpose of organizing an effective embargo on milk shipments into Escanaba and Gladstone fizzled when Theodore Wallenslager, of Wallace, failed to appear. There were between 30 and 40 farmers present. Wallenslager, a worker of the group headed by Walter Singler of Shiocton, Wisconsin milk strike leader, is president of the Upper Peninsula Milk Producers association.

SUPPLY RESTORED

Ishii Says Japan Backs Move To Get Business Restored

San Francisco, May 18, (AP)—Viscount Kikujiro Ishii of Japan emphasized the mutual aspirations of his country and the United States in efforts to revive the world trade in an address today before the Commonwealth club and other civic bodies.

The Japanese privy councillor and former ambassador from Tokio at Washington repeated his remarks made on arrival here yesterday saying that as special envoy to discuss economic problems with President Roosevelt he was "not at liberty" to speak of these problems until he had first talked with the president.

Officer Kills Boy Who Shot At Him

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—Wounded by a 17-year-old youth who was shot to death when he refused to halt for questioning, Patrolman Barney Fox, 26, is in a hospital here. The youth, Nicholas Jettazek, was shot and killed after he opened fire on the patrolman.

Couzens Helps Put Bank On Its Feet

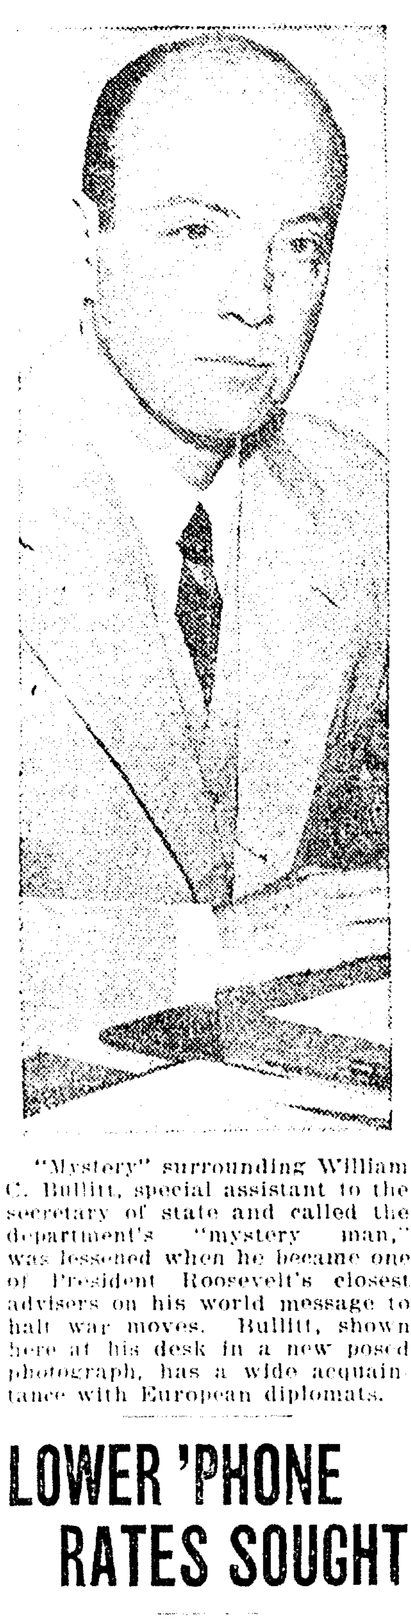
HAND SEEN IN NEW PLEA TO BAN WAR



"Mystery" surrounding William C. Bullitt, special assistant to the secretary of state and called the department's "mystery man," was lessened when he became one of President Roosevelt's closest advisers on his world message to halt war moves. Bullitt, shown here at his desk in a new posed photograph, has a wide acquaintance with European diplomats.

LOWER 'PHONE RATES SOUGHT

Resolution Provides for Legislative Demand for Reduction

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—A legislative demand for reduced telephone rates was proposed in a resolution introduced in the house today by Representative James G. Frey, Republican, Battle Creek. It provided for an immediate investigation of rates by the state public utilities commission and action "toward reductions."

Frey declared in some communities telephone subscribers have fallen off 30 per cent, but rates remain unchanged.

The Battle Creek member said he may follow the resolution with an emergency bill proposing that the governor be given dictatorial powers over the telephone companies.

Betting Bill Again

The house disposed of one of its controversial measures by passing the Coumans-McDonald bill regulating motor vehicle and rail carriers. The measure was laden with amendments when it was sent to the senate, representing a compromise which appeared to satisfy bus and truck as well as railroad operators. It requires motor carriers to file rate schedules, places fees on a partial mileage basis and gives the public utilities commission greater regulatory powers over the motor carriers. The measure passed the house by a vote of 66 to 29.

Another race track betting bill was started on its way. The house judiciary committee reported the Donnelly bill providing for mutuel betting on horse racing only. Previously the house passed a bill legalizing betting on both dog and horse races, but it is deadlocked in the senate.

A bill which would declare a moratorium on many classes of

Comstock Reduces Prisoner's Term

Lansing, May 18, (AP)—Governor Comstock today signed a commutation of sentence cutting the term of Curtis Turner, sentenced to life imprisonment in the Grand Rapids court, to seven years to life. The executive's action permits the immediate parole of Turner. He was convicted of complicity in a bank robbery. According to the recommendations filed with the governor he drove a car used by the robbers and later aided the state in the prosecution.

LIQUOR MONEY AFTER REPEAL MAY BE USED

NEW TAXES NEEDED UNTIL THEN, SAYS BUDGET CHIEF

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Repeal of prohibition, congress was told today by the administration, will finance unaided the stupendous $3,300,000,000 bond issue needed to execute the building program of the big public works-industrial control bill.

This declaration was made by Lewis W. Douglas, director of the budget, testifying as the measure started on its way with hearings by the house ways and means committee. But, until the states ratify repeal, Douglas told the committee, new taxes must be imposed to raise an annual $220,-000,000. He offered four tax schedules between which he refused to choose:

A sales tax of 1 1-8 or 1 1-5 percent, with no exemptions, or 1¾ percent with food and medicines exempted; or three different plans for increased income taxes plus a miscellany of rates in different combinations.

Non-Self-Liquidating

Upon repeal, he said, it will be safe to count upon $250,000,000 annual revenues from liquor taxes. The president in the message presenting the bill to congress yesterday, asked authority to cancel the special taxes when repeal takes place.

Douglas was delegated by Secretary Woodin to speak for the treasury at the opening hearing on the bill, which quickly concentrated on the tax question. He explained it was absolutely necessary to raise the $220,000,000 because the bulk of the public works proposed would not be self-liquidating and there had to be a guarantee on the interest charges and amortization requirements for the bonds.

Donald R. Richberg, attorney, who helped Douglas, Senator Wagner, (D-N. Y.), and others who drafted the measure, estimated one million men would be put to work directly by the expenditure of each billion of the three billion dollars. He also said that with this stimulus to industry, and indirect employment, millions of men would be reemployed through the measure.

Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.), announced after an executive session of the ways and means committee, that hearings would be concluded Saturday noon and the bill reported for house action not later than Tuesday.

Doughton said he did "not think it will be necessary for the president to recommend a tax program." He declined to say whether the sales tax suggested by Douglas would be adopted.

Explains Control Clause

Douglas, former member of the house from Arizona, spent an hour and a half explaining the industrial control section of the bill which is designed to stop cut-throat competition and to assure wages at or above defined minimum levels, and the immense program of public works to be undertaken by the federal government directly or through loans or grants to states, counties and municipalities.

But when he reached the taxation section left blank by President Roosevelt and the treasury all leaned forward intently, and soon began questioning him.

In regard to prohibition repeal he said federal revenues from liquor were $247,500,000 in 1916; in 1917 $284,000,000; in 1918, $443,800,000; and in 1919,

"The law marks an epoch in the history of our national life. It is a monument to the victorious ending of a twelve years' struggle, waged on behalf of the common people against the combined forces of monopoly and human greed."

The president issued no formal statement on land speculation but made sure that his warning be distributed by the press. The land development program is his own, a dream of model communities, of industry brought to the country, of land utilized for its best purpose, of new forests growing where ancient ones have been wiped out, of streams protected against destructive floods, used to their full capacity for navigation and generation of inexpensive electricity. After experiment here, Mr. Roosevelt hopes to extend the plan to other parts of the country.

June 10 Deadline For Adjournment Of Congress Set

Washington, May 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt began a windup canvass of the extra session of congress today in a series of conferences with Capitol Hill leaders and proposed an adjournment as early as possible.

A June 10 deadline was fixed by the conferees, and the house chieftains assured the president they could complete his emergency program by the end of next week—May 27.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic pilot, reported a promising outlook for the senate and told the president he was still counting on the June 10 adjournment.

League Commission To Go To Gran Chaco

Geneva, May 18 (AP)—At a private session the League of Nations council tonight voted to send a commission to the Gran Chaco to supervise the cessation of Bolivian-Paraguayan hostilities and the negotiate the bases for arbitration.

The council also voted to request Paraguay to withdraw its declaration of war and to ask both countries to cease hostilities. The war declaration was the first issued anywhere in the world since the league was formed.

Child Assaulter Is Convicted; Must Die

Dedham, Mass., May 18 (AP)—Ahmed Osman was convicted today of murder in the first degree of 9-year-old Nellie Keras. The verdict carries a mandatory sentence of death in the electric chair. The jury considered the case three hours and 42 minutes.

The child was criminally assaulted and murdered last Christmas Day. Her body was found concealed in a woodpile in the basement of a Norwood tenement buliding in which her family and Ahmed Osman had apartments.

Success For Arms and Economic Conferences This Summer Expected

BY F. G. VOSBURGH

Washington, May 18 (AP)—A new spirit of optimism for success at the arms and economic conferences at Geneva and London was noted privately by American officials tonight as they analyzed reactions to the momentous declarations of President Roosevelt and Chancellor Hitler of Germany and laid plans for their next moves.

While the developments of the last two days were regarded as having cleared the air, saving the arms conference from collapse and the economic conclave from probable failure, there was no disposition in official circles to count the battle won.

20 Answers Received

From eight more nations, including Germany and Italy, the president received direct replies to his stirring appeal for real disarmament and peace. They brought to 20 tonight the number of presidents and sovereigns who have replied to the cablegram addressed to the chiefs of 54 countries.

President Paul Von Hindenburg's message was noted particularly because of the key position occupied by his country, with France, in the Geneva arms discussion.

"This declaration, in which you show the world the way to eliminate the international crisis, has met with hearty approval throughout Germany," Hindenburg's acknowledgement said. "The statements which the German reich chancellor (Hitler) made yesterday, with the unanimous agreement of the Germany reichstag prove that Germany is decided to cooperate unselfishly in overcoming the political and economic difficulties of the present moment."

Italy's official response was made both in a message to the president from King Emanuel and in a note given to Undersecretary Phillips at the state department by the Italian ambassador, Augusto Rosso. Both expressed heartiest approval, which officials here had expected because of Italy's consistent support in the past of efforts for

Carpenter Declares Bill Has Attracted Many Lobbyists

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—The small loan issue was buffeted about on a rough sea of debate in the senate today but an amended bill finally advanced to a position of a final vote for next week.

After charges that the issue had brought the greatest lobby to Lansing of any measures during the present session, members defeated motions to kill the bill and to advance it for an immediate vote on its passage. The membership made the bill a special order of business for next Wednesday afternoon.

Derham Has Amendment

The fight over the measure was along non-partisan lines with Senators Edward B. McKenna, Democrat, Detroit, urging immediate passage and vainly attempting to insert amendments for lower interest rates. Senators James A. Murphy and Leo G. Karwick, Democrats of Detroit, opposed McKenna's move and attempted to have the measure shunted to the banking committee. McKenna declared the Democratic party in its last state convention had gone on record in favor of reducing interest charges.

"This bill have brought more lobbyists to Lansing than any other measure," Senator Ben Carpenter, Republican, of Harrison, declared. "More money has been spent on it than any other bill this session."

Senator Herbert P. Orr, Republican, Caro, warned Murphy and Karwick they could not escape a record vote by attempting to send the bill to committee. "The only reason for the motion is that someone does not want to go on record," he charged. "You can't avoid going on record because I'm going to put you on the spot when the committee reports."

The bill now provides for interest charges of 2½ per cent a month on the first $100 loan and one per cent between $100 and $300. Senator Ray Derham, Republican, Iron Mountain, added an amendment providing that all loans made to a person within a six-month period be considered one loan.

Claim Pair Passed Spurious Currency

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—Declaring Dorothy Walker and Lorraine Coggins, of Chicago, have been identified by southwestern Michigan merchants as the pair who passed counterfeit $10 bills for purchases, federal secret service agents Thursday prepared to take the two to Grand Rapids where they will be arraigned in the United States district court on charges of counterfeiting.

ACT TO INSURE BANK DEPOSITS

Emergency Plan Offered in Senate by Vandenberg, Michigan

Washington, May 18. (AP)—An emergency plan for insuring all bank deposits up to $2,500 for one year with a fund backed by the treasury was advanced in the senate today as an amendment to the Glass bank bill with strong support from both parties.

The amendment was drafted by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), original senate proponent of insuring deposits, after a long series of conferences with other senators who felt the insurance clause of the bank bill should be liberalized.

With this substitute plan ready, senate leaders prepared to begin debate on the bank bill tomorrow instead of waiting until next week.

Vandenberg's proposal is intended to fill the gap between enactment of the bill and the proposed effective date of the Glass insurance plan, July 1, 1934.

Deposits in all banks up to $2,500 would be insured during that period from a fund made up of an assessment of one half of one per

Many Oceanic Flights Planned This Summer

New York, May 18 (AP)—Two of the nation's leading fliers—Wiley Post and James Mattern—announced plans today for solo flights around the world.

Mattern, San Angelo flier, who failed in his attempt last year with Bennett Griffin, of Oklahoma City, said he would start the first week in June and Post, who with Harold Gatty hold the world girdling speed record, said at Oklahoma City he would take off about July 1.

Meanwhile, the Flying Mollisons, James and Amy Johnston, were having a huge plane built in England for a New York-Bagdad flight, Francesco de Pinedo, noted Italian flier, is preparing for a solo flight to Persia, and Captain Stephen Darius and Lieutenant Stanley Girenas, Chicago transport fliers, were at Floyd Bennett field awaiting conditioning of their plane for a flight to their native Lithuania.

Still another trans-Atlantic flying venture became known late today when Assen Jordanoff and Captain Cesare Sabelli landed at Roosevelt field in a red monoplane from the factory at Wilmington, Del.

Jordanoff, a Bulgarian nobleman who says he was the first man in his country to fly, has conducted a flying school here for years and gave Thomas A. Edison ground lessons in October, 1930.

Jordanoff said he expected to get away on an ocean hop about the middle of June. He did not disclose his destination, but fellow aviators at the field believed it would be Rome.

Mattern said the plane Century of Progress in which he and Griffin cracked up in Russia last year has been remodeled for solo flight.

BULLETIN.

Madison, Wis., May 19 (AP)—The Wisconsin milk strike was declared ended today and cessation of picketing will be accomplished tomorrow as soon as the arbitration committee of the Wisconsin Co-operative Milk Pool ratifies an agreement reached at 12 o'clock tonight. This probably will be at 9 a. m. Leaders of the pool reached an agreement with Governor Schmedeman after three and one-half hours of conference in the executive offices here.

Menominee, Mich., May 18 (AP)—Milk supplies to Menominee were cut off temporarily today for the first time since the beginning of the milk strike in this vicinity last Saturday, but a conference today between authorities and strike leaders resulted in restoration of the flow of milk to the city.

Picketing operations caused the closing of all milk condenseries, cheese factories and creameries in Menominee county, but the officials informed strike leaders that the city expects to receive its normal supply of 4,000 quarts of milk daily.

A score of state police and sheriff's deputies went on duty on the county roads, to see that the deliveries were permitted. The picketers unloaded a truck of eggs on a highway, but the officials forced them to reload it, and allowed the driver to proceed.

Strike leaders today asked $1.99 a hundredweight for milk testing 3.5 butterfat, which milk dealers said they could not pay.

MEETING FIZZLES

Rock, May 18 (Special)—The meeting of farmers called for tonight at the Riento hall here for the purpose of organizing an effective embargo on milk shipments into Escanaba and Gladstone fizzled when Theodore Wallenslager, of Wallace, failed to appear. There were between 30 and 40 farmers present. Wallenslager, a worker of the group headed by Walter Singler of Shiocton, Wisconsin milk strike leader, is president of the Upper Peninsula Milk Producers association.

Ishii Says Japan Backs Move To Get Business Restored

San Francisco, May 18. (AP)—Viscount Kikujiro Ishii of Japan emphasized the mutual aspirations of his country and the United States in efforts to revive the world trade in an address today before the Commonwealth club and other civic bodies.

The Japanese privy councillor and former ambassador from Tokio at Washington repeated his remarks made on arrival here yesterday saying that as special envoy to discuss economic problems with President Roosevelt he was "not at liberty" to speak of these problems until he had first talked with the president.

Officer Kills Boy Who Shot At Him

Detroit, May 18 (AP)—Wounded by a 17-year-old youth who was shot to death when he refused to halt for questioning, Patrolman Barney Fox, 26, is in a hospital here. The youth, Nicholas Jeftazek, was shot and killed after he opened fire on the patrolman.

Couzens Helps Put Bank On Its Feet

Birmingham, May 18 (AP)—With most of the $100,000 capital stock owned by Senator James Couzens, the New Wabeek State Bank of Birmingham will open here Monday, the first bank to give unrestricted facilities to the city since the Michigan bank holiday February 14.

HAND SEEN IN NEW PLEA TO BAN WAR

"Mystery" surrounding William C. Bullitt, special assistant to the secretary of state and called the department's "mystery man," was lessened when he became one of President Roosevelt's closest advisers on his world message to halt war moves. Bullitt, shown here at his desk in a new posed photograph, has a wide acquaintance with European diplomats.

LOWER 'PHONE RATES SOUGHT

Resolution Provides for Legislative Demand for Reduction

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—A legislative demand for reduced telephone rates was proposed in a resolution introduced in the house today by Representative James G. Frey, Republican, Battle Creek. It provided for an immediate investigation of rates by the state public utilities commission and action "toward reductions."

Frey declared in some communities telephone subscribers have fallen off 30 per cent, but rates remain unchanged.

The Battle Creek member said he may follow the resolution with an emergency bill proposing that the governor be given dictatorial powers over the telephone companies.

Betting Bill Again

The house disposed of one of its controversial measures by passing the Coumans-McDonald bill regulating motor vehicle and rail carriers. The measure was laden with amendments when it was sent to the senate, representing a compromise which appeared to satisfy bus and truck as well as railroad operators. It requires motor carriers to file rate schedules, places fees on a partial mileage basis and gives the public utilities commission greater regulatory powers over the motor carriers. The measure passed the house by a vote of 66 to 29.

Another race track betting bill was started on its way. The house judiciary committee reported the Donnelly bill providing for mutuel betting on horse racing only. Previously the house passed a bill legalizing betting on both dog and horse races, but it is deadlocked in the senate.

Comstock Reduces Prisoner's Term

Lansing, May 18, (AP)—Governor Comstock today signed a commutation of sentence cutting the term of Curtis Turner, sentenced to life imprisonment in the Grand Rapids court, to seven years to life. The executive's action permits the immediate parole of Turner. He was convicted of complicity in a bank robbery. According to the recommendations filed with the governor he drove a car used by the robbers and later aided the state in the prosecution.

LIQUOR MONEY AFTER REPEAL MAY BE USED

NEW TAXES NEEDED UNTIL THEN, SAYS BUDGET CHIEF

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Repeal of prohibition, congress was told today by the administration, will finance unaided the stupendous $3,300,000,000 bond issue needed to execute the building program of the big public works-industrial control bill.

This declaration was made by Lewis W. Douglas, director of the budget, testifying as the measure started on its way with hearings by the house ways and means committee. But, until the states ratify repeal, Douglas told the committee, new taxes must be imposed to raise an annual $220,000,000. He offered four tax schedules between which he refused to choose:

A sales tax of 1 1-8 or 1 1-5 percent, with no exemptions, or 1¾ percent with food and medicines exempted; or three different plans for increased income taxes plus a miscellany of rates in different combinations.

Non-Self-Liquidating

Upon repeal, he said, it will be safe to count upon $250,000,000 annual revenues from liquor taxes. The president in the message presenting the bill to congress yesterday, asked authority to cancel the special taxes when repeal takes place.

Douglas was delegated by Secretary Woodin to speak for the treasury at the opening hearing on the bill, which quickly concentrated on the tax question. He explained it was absolutely necessary to raise the $220,000,000 because the bulk of the public works proposed would not be self-liquidating and there had to be a guarantee on the interest charges and amortization requirements for the bonds.

Donald R. Richberg, attorney, who helped Douglas, Senator Wagner, (D-N. Y.), and others who drafted the measure, estimated one million men would be put to work directly by the expenditure of each billion of the three billion dollars. He also said that with this stimulus to industry, and indirect employment, millions of men would be reemployed through the measure.

Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.), announced after an executive session of the ways and means committee, that hearings would be concluded Saturday noon and the bill reported for house action not later than Tuesday.

Doughton said he did "not think it will be necessary for the president to recommend a tax program." He declined to say whether the sales tax suggested by Douglas would be adopted.

Explains Control Clause

Douglas, former member of the house from Arizona, spent an hour and a half explaining the industrial control section of the bill which is designed to stop cutthroat competition and to assure wages at or above defined minimum levels, and the immense program of public works to be undertaken by the federal government directly or through loans or grants to states, counties and municipalities.

But when he reached the taxation section left blank by President Roosevelt and the treasury all leaned forward intently, and soon began questioning him.

In regard to prohibition repeal he said federal revenues from liquor were $247,500,000 in 1916; in 1917 $284,000,000; in 1918, $443,800,000; and in 1919,

President Roosevelt signed Tennessee valley development Muscle Shoals bill.

Budget Director Douglas presented four possible plans for revenues to fund public works program as house ways and means committee took up bill.

Brazilian representatives to economic conferences with President Roosevelt arrived as Mexico's spokesman and the executive in joint statement announced progress toward silver stabilization in conversations just concluded.

Wheat and cotton spokesmen urged upon administration officials prompt application of various farm bill relief provisions.

House prosecutors rested presentation of evidence in impeachment trial of Federal Judge Harold Louderback of California, who ordered fight for "complete exoneration."

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) offered amendment to Glass bank reform bill for insuring bank deposits up to $2,500 for a year with treasury backed fund.

MITCHELL BANK DEALS SHOWN

Defense Has Officer of National City Bank Display Records

New York, May 18 (AP)—Edward F. Barrett, a vice president of the National City Bank, the second largest bank in the world, sat in a witness chair in federal court today with a ledger open on his knees and read figures showing that from 1922 until the crash in 1929, Charles E. Mitchell helped his wife to make nearly $300,000 by stock transactions.

Barrett, who began his bank-career in 1918 as Mitchell's secretary and, as he rose from one position to another, continued to handle Mrs. Mitchell's business affairs, read entries corroborating evidence contained in letter exchanged between the Mitchells.

Pool Transactions

Max D. Steuer, Mitchell's chief counsel, read the letters to the jury, which will decide whether the former National City Bank chairman is guilty, as charged, of having evaded payment of income taxes to the government.

There were between 15 and 20 pool transactions beginning in 1922 and extending through 1928 in which, the letter revealed, Mitchell accepted participation in behalf of his wife. Testimony was that Mrs. Mitchell did not put up money in these transactions.

Steuer submitted the evidence to show that, whatever the government may charge to the effect that Mitchell's sale of 18,300 shares of National City Bank stock to his wife after the crash in 1929, was not a bona fide sale, Mitchell and his wife had carried on similar transactions over a long period of years. Steuer also sought to show Mitchell had helped her to build her $250,000 inheritance from her parents, up to something over $950,000 which his attorney said she was worth at the time of the crash.

Escanaba Scouts Preparing For Active Summer

District Commissioner Jack Floyd, of the Boy Scouts, stated at a board meeting held on Wednesday evening that there is room in the Scouts for every boy in Escanaba, and that every boy who does not join the movement is missing a large part of the thrills of youth. It was pointed out that the organization has been swelled by the addition of 191 new Scouts since November, 1932.

The sea scout troop is seeking a meeting place in order that active organization work may be carried forward. Mayor Carl J. Sawyer, who called the board meeting announced the appointment of Bill Lang, chairman, Oscar Brown and H. George Nelson as a committee to collect Scout equipment belonging to this district, in preparation for the summer's activities.

It was announced that the new camp site will be ready for use this summer and that the new swimming pool will be completed and ready for use in the near future.

Men Called Back To Highway Jobs

Notice of the release to Delta county of the sum of $16,840 of R. F. C. funds, covering a period from May 1 to 19, has been received from the state welfare department by J. P. Cameron, county unemployment relief director. The balance of the sum of $27,931, asked for, will be released later.

The crew of men working on R. F. C. work-relief projects on Delta county highways was scheduled to return yesterday, but the rainstorm intervened. It is expected, however, that the peak figure of about one thousand men would be at work by Monday.

Expectant Mother Slain By Husband

Columbia, Mo., May 18. (AP) Mrs. Pauline Brown, 19-year-old expectant mother, died in a hospital here today from injuries allegedly inflicted by her husband, Noble Brown, 20, Linn county farmer.

Brown, who told officers he choked his wife on a lonely country road near Bucklin, hit her on the head with an automobile crank, and then threw her out of his speeding automobile early last Sunday morning near Sturgeon, Mo., is in jail at Linneus.

Officers said Brown told them he had planned to kill his wife when he learned she was an expectant mother before their marriage last February. In the confession, he stated he had been intimate with her since last fall.

Former Senator Is Claimed By Death

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Former Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota, died tonight after suffering a stroke while at his desk last Tuesday.

McCumber, who served in the senate from 1899 to 1923, and was joint author of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law enacted in 1922, had been in a coma since he was taken to the hospital after he was stricken. Members of the family who had been called to his bedside, while informed of the critical nature of his condition, had expected him to live through tonight. He was 75.

In the note, understood to convey the views of Premier Mussolini, the Italian government said it was ready to join the United States and other countries in bringing about realization of the president's plan "in the most expeditious and efficient way," it added:

Cables Kept Busy

"Never as much as in this moment has the need been felt for the willing cooperation of all those who have the peace and welfare of the world at heart. Never has a fair and serene evaluation of the situation and of the rights of all the nations without distinction appeared more indispensable."

Cables were kept busy with communications to diplomatic representatives in Europe headed by Norman H. Davis, President Roosevelt's special ambassador and chief of the American delegation to the arms conference.

The president's message was described by Undersecretary William Phillips of the state department today as designed to check "a new spirit of pessimism abroad, a spirit of defeatism," characterized by doubts whether "human ingenuity could solve the intricate and difficult problems" involved in the Geneva and London conferences.

Phillips spoke under the auspices of the World Federation of Education associations in an observance of May 18 as "Goodwill Day" throughout the world.

CONVENE AT GENEVA

Geneva, May 18. (AP) Delegates of the leading nations hastened to return to Geneva tonight for the hopeful resumption tomorrow of efforts to break the disarmament deadlock in the light of pronouncements by President Roosevelt and Chancellor Hitler of Germany.

The bold initiative of the American president in appealing directly to heads of states for immediate action to secure political peace and open the way for economic recovery is welcomed here as opening the door to possible agreement for a genuine reduction of fighting weapons.

The conciliatory pronouncement by the Nazi chancellor coming immediately after the message from Washington, increased feeling of optimism that the arms conference now is facing another great opportunity to reach its long awaited objective.

Count Rudolf Nadolny, the German delegate, having come direct from conference with his Berlin chief, was expected to be in a position to give the conference new light upon the German position.

Norman H. Davis, fresh from conversations with the heads of states at London and at Paris, was looked to by other chief delegates for an elucidation upon the new policy of the Washington government with regard to participating in an international guarantee of security against an aggressor.

Hero Of Ohio Pen Fire Suspected In Shooting Of Friend

Chicago, May 18 (AP) James "Big Jim" Morton, hero of the Ohio penitentiary fire which took the lives of 322 fellow-convicts, was sought by police tonight to explain the shooting of his erstwhile friend, Charley Conroy, in Morton's suburban bungalow.

A physician, called to the armament-loaded house in Cicero, long the playground of gangsters, found Conroy doubled up with a bullet in his abdomen.

Police found in the bungalow quantities of guns, shells and stolen dynamite. Authorities said it appeared to have been headquarters for a gang of bombers and bank robbers.

Police said Morton was paroled from the Columbus, O., penitentiary for saving the lives of several other convicts on that Easter Monday night three years ago when fire set by other inmates attacked it.

7 American Women Presented To Queen

London, May 18 (AP) Seven American women, most of them attired by hinted royal request in British-made gowns, were presented to Britain's queen at Buckingham palace tonight.

It was not yet dark when the string band of the Coldstream guards played the national anthem while Queen Mary on the arm of her bachelor son, the Prince of Wales, walked across the state rooms to the single golden throne.

Nearly 900 guests began to pass by the throne.

For each one who passed her majesty had a nod, and for some there was the special favor of a smile from the prince.

King George was absent, having begged off because of rheumatism in one arm which made it painful to stand in uniform and bow to hundreds of persons.

Workman Injured In Fall At Paper Company Pulp Mill

Warren Lofquist, 26, of Bark River, Route 1, an employee at the Escanaba Pulp and Paper company's pulp mill at Groos was seriously injured yesterday when in some manner he fell a distance of 75 feet from a pile of pulp wood to the conveyor which carries the wood to the barkers at the plant. He was taken to St. Francis hospital where examination revealed that he was suffering from a concussion of the brain. The young man was still unconscious last night and the full extent of his injuries will not be known until his condition permits a more complete examination.

Fellow workmen at the plant said that Mr. Lofquist evidently slipped and fell when a pile of the pulp wood fell to the conveyor. Some of the falling wood covered the man and it was necessary to dig him out of the pile.

cent of all deposits, supplemented by another assessment of the same size if necessary. The government would put up any additional funds needed, but authors of the plan are confident such a situation would not arise.

Vandenberg said he and those favoring his plan offered it to cover what they consider as "flaws" in the pending insurance plan. He described them as follows:

"First that it doesn't become effective until July 1, 1934, though the need is greater in the next year than for the next 100 years.

"Second that it depends entirely on bank assessments for solvency, and although these should carry the load, many of us insist that finally we have got to throw the credit of the government back of it."

Changes in the habitual criminal act which would elimiante the mandatory life term for four felons were proposed in bills introduced by Rep. George C. Watson, Republican, Capac. Sentencing judges would be given discretion to impose the maximum term for a first felony, plus 20 years for habitual crime, upon fourth major offendors. The present law, save for liquor violators and other exempted felonies, makes life sentences compulsory for fourth offendors. The bills were endorsed by the state crime commission.

tary Ickes of the interior. After complaints, he sent an investigator to the shoals, and the latter's report was understood to contend that the Alamaba Power company and the Tennessee Electric Power company had improperly and destructively used the Muscle Shoals substation to interchange power.

At Birmingham Thomas W. Martin, president of the Alabama company, denied anything irregular had taken place. In Washington Major General Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers who had control of the plant, said the same.

A government corporation of three directors will supervise the whole Tennessee valley improvement program. Mr. Roosevelt expects to make early choices of these men.

Arthur E. Morgan, president of Antioch college in Ohio, has been mentioned in congressional quarters as being seriously considered for the commission.

The government corporation will operate the Muscle Shoals plant for the production and sale of power, and is authorized to build, lease or purchase transmission lines to carry the energy to nearby communities for sale at low rates.

Thorwald Thorsen Again Refuses To Vacate His Office

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—Thorwald E. Thorsen, of Ironwood, today reiterated his refusal to vacate his office as director of welfare for the upper peninsula in a telegram to Governor Comstock. He again demanded a hearing under the veterans' preference act.

Attorney General Patrick H. O'Brien at the governor's request prepared a memorandum advising the executive to send state police to Ironwood and confiscate the state records and property of the welfare office. Governor Comstock abolished the office a few weeks ago but Thorsen refused to resign on the contention that his dismissal was illegal under the veterans' preference act.

Cleveland, O., May 18, (AP) A rise of two and one half per cent to 39 per cent capacity in operations of the steel industry was reported today by the Daily Metal Trade, highest rate in two years. The publication also reported the price of pig iron went up $1 a ton in the east.

$483,100,000. For the last two years the figures included beer.

"Assuming that the yield from the present beer tax is $150,000,000," he said, "then we could expect a return of at least $250,000,000 from taxes on spirits."

Detailing the general financial situation and the need for more revenue, Douglas explained:

"We are confronted with the problem of financing this bond issue. The government will have to borrow a substantial sum, about $3,300,000,000 to finance this program, and sell other bonds somewhere between $1,500,000,000 and $1,800,000,000 soon.

"The budget probably will be brought into balance approximately at the end of the next fiscal year."

He said he was speaking of "ordinary recurrent" government expenditures and not of outlays for relief and similar purposes. The treasury, he said, must count on floating bonds up to $3,400,000,000 on non-self-liquidating projects.

Reads Tax Suggestions

Douglas read his four tax programs, stressing all the while they were suggestions, and that he was before the committee merely to give information.

The first called for an increase from four to 6 percent in the normal tax rate on incomes of $4,000 and an increase from 8 to 10 on all above, to net $46,000,000 in revenue; to make corporate dividends, now exempted, subject to the normal income tax rates, $83,000,000; and to increase the federal one cent gasoline tax to one and three-fourths cents a gallon. This would total $221,000,000.

Program two, besides the income and dividend taxes in number one, called for excise levies of ten cents a pound on tea to produce $8,000,000; five cents a pound on coffee, $70,000,000; and 5 cents a pound on cocoa, to net $17,000,000; a total of $224,000,000.

Douglas said there was serious question whether the taxes on tea, coffee and cocoa, would not violate the tariff truce connected with the London economic conference.

The third plan called for an increase from four to eight and from eight to 12 percent in the normal income tax rates to net $87,000,000; extension of this tax to dividends from corporate stocks, $103,000,000; a tax of five cents each on long distance telephone calls costing from 25 to 50 cents, to net $6,000,000, and lowering of admission taxes from 44 to 20 cents to bring in $25,000,000 for a total of $221,000,000.

Douglas paused after presenting these three. Chairman Doughton asked him if he had any other, and the budget director replied, "Yes."

A general manufacturers sales levy of one and one-eighth percent with no exemptions Douglas said would return $214,000,000, while a levy of one and one-fifth would bring in $228,000,000.

Questioned by Representative Ragon (D-Ark.), as to what effect exemption of food and medicine would have on the one and one eighth percent levy, Douglas said, it would reduce the total by $60,000,000 annually. To make up the difference, he said, the rate would have to be increased to 1¾ percent.

Washington, May 18. (AP) To administer the almost unlimited powers over industry conferred upon the government by the pending industrial regulation bill President Roosevelt has chosen Hugh S. Johnson, soldier, lawyer and manufacturer.

He was offered the post today over the telephone by the chief executive and immediately set about whipping together a tentative organization although the bill had been laid before congress only 24 hours before. He has not given his answer to President Roosevelt yet, however.

In view of the fact that he was one of those foremost in drafting the bill, the administration expected him to accept the appointment when the post is formally created by passage of the sweeping public regulation-industrial control bill.

A close associate of Bernard Baruch, Democratic leader and New York financier, Johnson was a member of the old war industries board. He was also head of the first draft board during the world war and since then has had extensive experience in manufacturing.

BEER TAX PILES UP

Washington, May 18. (AP) Legalized beer added $9,139,687 to the governments revenue in April when nearly every other important form of taxation showed decreases from the previous month.

Collections from the $5 a barrel tax on beer brought the government $8,269,052 while the license fees of retail and wholesale dealers in the 3.2 beverage added $869,811 and the tax on 3.2 wine beverage amounted to $824.

While the tax on beer was only for 23 days after it became legal, if the sales continue at the same rate the collection in a year would amount to only about $135,000,000 and under some estimates of how much revenue the government would receive from this source.

While the beer tax added more than $9,000,000 to the taxes collected for the month the grand total was approximately $153,000,000 less than in March when $176,000,000 was collected in income taxes. The total, however, was $34,000,00 more than collected in April of last year before the new levies in the billion dollar tax bill were enacted by congress.

Michigan's contribution to the national treasury of revenue from sale of beer during April was only $1,552.89, as a result of delay in enacting the state's beer law. Of Michigan's contribution, $831.98 was from retail dealers at the rate of $20 per year and $720.91 from wholesale dealers at $50 per year.

sure most Wisconsin cities a normal supply of milk.

The first fatality of the strike for higher prices occurred near Port Washington when William Dickmann, 53 year old farmer tumbled off a truck bringing milk to Milwaukee. The driver, Albert Bradley, drove over his body. Bradley reported that Dickmann and a companion threatened to dump his load, and completed his delivery here.

On a 200-mile front along the west shore of Lake Michigan, strikers made stiff resistance to delivery of milk and energetic efforts to push their fight into other sections of the state.

Authorities hoped that the encounter in Appleton, where 300 officers chased a large force of pickets out of town in disorder, has been the "show-down."

In the engagement at Appleton uniformed guardsmen carried pistols, clubs and gas bombs but did not find it necessary to resort to bayonets as they did near Milwaukee yesterday.

State forces held more than 350 farmers as prisoners in the milk wars.

At Shawano machine gunners guarded the approaches of the county highway department machine shop, a rambling structure converted into a prison in which 300 strike sympathizers were being fed bread and milk.

At Appleton 48 prisoners were seized. In other communities of eastern Wisconsin were more prisoners. Adjutant General Ralph M. Immell insists on wholesale prosecutions.

Gypsies Forced To Return Stolen Fund

Centreville, May 18 (AP)—A group of 16 gypsies traveling in two automobiles and a trailer and carrying more than $13,000 in a feather bed, were held in jail here until one of the women members returned $40 stolen from a Rockford man and paid costs of pursuit by Kent county officials.

Fire Breaks Out In Missouri Prison

Jefferson City, Mo., May 18 (AP) Fire of undetermined origin broke out in the twine plant at the Missouri state penitentiary late today. The Jefferson city fire department was called to aid in fighting the blaze.

The fire was quickly extinguished. Damage was small.

Three-Days Notice To Marry Required

Columbus, O., May 18, (AP)—Couples will have to give their minister three days notice before they can be wed in the Presbyterian church under a new chapter to be read into the church's statutes at its general assembly here next week.

The law, adopted by a vote of the Presbyteries since it was presented at last year's general assembly at Denver, "recommends" in part:

"The intention of the contracting parties (to a marriage) shall be made known to the minister at least three days before the service of solemnization."

Immediate Sale Of Fishing Licenses At 50c Okehed

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—The legislature today authorized immediate sale of fishing licenses under the general rod license law enacted a short time ago.

The measure failed to receive the required two-thirds majority in the house to give it immediate effect, and would not become operative until three months after the legislature adjourns.

Conservation officials asked that a resolution be adopted authorizing them to sell licenses at once at the new prices, claiming it would encourage tourists to come to Michigan. The new schedule calls for a 50 cent license for residents and a $2 instead of a $1 fee for nonresidents. Until the new act legally becomes effective next fall, only trout fishermen will have to buy the 50 cent license, as there now is no effective statute requiring a general rod fee.

A pair of rats will produce 68 offspring in a year.

11-Year-Old Boy Is Questioned In Huge Auburn Fire

Auburn, Me., May 18 (AP)—Police tonight ordered Renaud Cote, 11-year-old Auburn boy, into court tomorrow as a result of their investigation into suspected incendiarism in Monday's fire which destroyed more than $1,000,000 in property and made 1,500 persons homeless here.

The authorities withheld details of their questioning of young Cote, but Fred M. Kirlin of New York, special investigator for the national board of underwriters, said the boy had confessed he set the initial blaze which grew into the disastrous

The fire, which razed 239 buildings in a congested tenement district, came eight days after an alleged incendiary started a $2,000,000 fire in Ellsworth. Norman Moore, 25-year-old farm hand, is awaiting grand jury action in that city on an arson charge.

Cloquet, Minn., May 18. (AP)—The Northwest Paper company's northern lumber mill resumed operations today after being idle since November. Employment was given to 125 men.

MITCHELL BANK DEALS SHOWN

Defense Has Officer of National City Bank Display Records

New York, May 18 (AP)—Edward F. Barrett, a vice president of the National City Bank, the second largest bank in the world, sat in a witness chair in federal court today with a ledger open on his knees and read figures showing that from 1922 until the crash in 1929, Charles E. Mitchell helped his wife to make nearly $300,000 by stock transactions.

Barrett, who began his bank-career in 1918 as Mitchell's secretary and, as he rose from one position to another, continued to handle Mrs. Mitchell's business affairs, read entries corroborating evidence contained in letter exchanged between the Mitchells.

Pool Transactions

Max D. Steuer, Mitchell's chief counsel, read the letters to the jury, which will decide whether the former National City Bank chairman is guilty, as charged, of having evaded payment of income taxes to the government.

There were between 15 and 20 pool transactions beginning in 1922 and extending through 1928 in which, the letter revealed, Mitchell accepted participation in behalf of his wife. Testimony was that Mrs. Mitchell did not put up money in these transactions.

Steuer submitted the evidence to show that, whatever the government may charge to the effect that Mitchell's sale of 18,300 shares of National City Bank stock to his wife after the crash in 1929, was not a bona fide sale, Mitchell and his wife had carried on similar transactions over a long period of years. Steuer also sought to show Mitchell had helped her to build her $250,000 inheritance from her parents, up to something over $950,000 which his attorney said she was worth at the time of the crash.

Escanaba Scouts Preparing For Active Summer

District Commissioner Jack Floyd, of the Boy Scouts, stated at a board meeting held on Wednesday evening that there is room in the Scouts for every boy in Escanaba, and that every boy who does not join the movement is missing a large part of the thrills of youth. It was pointed out that the organization has been swelled by the addition of 191 new Scouts since November, 1932.

The sea scout troop is seeking a meeting place in order that active organization work may be carried forward. Mayor Carl J. Sawyer, who called the board meeting announced the appointment of Bill Lang, chairman, Oscar Brown and H. George Nelson as a committee to collect Scout equipment belonging to this district, in preparation for the summer's activities.

It was announced that the new camp site will be ready for use this summer and that the new swimming pool will be completed and ready for use in the near future.

Men Called Back To Highway Jobs

Notice of the release to Delta county of the sum of $16,840 of R. F. C. funds, covering a period from May 1 to 19, has been received from the state welfare department by J. P. Cameron, county unemployment relief director. The balance of the sum of $27,931, asked for, will be released later.

The crew of men working on R. F. C. work-relief projects on Delta county highways was scheduled to return yesterday, but the rainstorm intervened. It is expected, however, that the peak figure of about one thousand men would be at work by Monday.

Expectant Mother Slain By Husband

Columbia, Mo., May 18 (AP)—Mrs. Pauline Brown, 19-year-old expectant mother, died in a hospital here today from injuries allegedly inflicted by her husband, Noble Brown, 20, Linn county farmer.

Brown, who told officers he choked his wife on a lonely country road near Bucklin, hit her on the head with an automobile crank, and then threw her out of his speeding automobile early last Sunday morning near Sturgeon, Mo., is in jail at Linneus.

Officers said Brown told them he had planned to kill his wife when he learned she was an expectant mother before their marriage last February. In the confession, he stated he had been intimate with her since last fall.

Former Senator Is Claimed By Death

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Former Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota, died tonight after suffering a stroke while at his desk last Tuesday.

McCumber, who served in the senate from 1899 to 1923, and was joint author of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law enacted in 1922, had been in a coma since he was taken to the hospital after he was stricken. Members of the family who had been called to his bedside, while informed of the critical nature of his condition, had expected him to live through tonight. He was 75.

In the note, understood to convey the views of Premier Mussolini, the Italian government said it was ready to join the United States and other countries in bringing about realization of the president's plan "in the most expeditious and efficient way," it added:

Cables Kept Busy

"Never as much as in this moment has the need been felt for the willing cooperation of all those who have the peace and welfare of the world at heart. Never has a fair and serene evaluation of the situation and of the rights of all the nations without distinction appeared more indispensable."

Cables were kept busy with communications to diplomatic representatives in Europe headed by Norman H. Davis, President Roosevelt's special ambassador and chief of the American delegation to the arms conference.

The president's message was described by Undersecretary William Phillips of the state department today as designed to check "a new spirit of pessimism abroad, a spirit of defeatism," characterized by doubts whether "human ingenuity could solve the intricate and difficult problems" involved in the Geneva and London conferences.

Phillips spoke under the auspices of the World Federation of Education associations in an observance of May 18 as "Goodwill Day" throughout the world.

CONVENE AT GENEVA

Geneva, May 18 (AP)—Delegates of the leading nations hastened to return to Geneva tonight for the hopeful resumption tomorrow of efforts to break the disarmament deadlock in the light of pronouncements by President Roosevelt and Chancellor Hitler of Germany.

The bold initiative of the American president in appealing directly to heads of states for immediate action to secure political peace and open the way for economic recovery is welcomed here as opening the door to possible agreement for a genuine reduction of fighting weapons.

The conciliatory pronouncement by the Nazi chancellor coming immediately after the message from Washington, increased feeling of optimism that the arms conference now is facing another great opportunity to reach its long awaited objective.

Count Rudolf Nadolny, the German delegate, having come direct from conference with his Berlin chief, was expected to be in a position to give the conference new light upon the German position.

Norman H. Davis, fresh from conversations with the heads of states at London and at Paris, was looked to by other chief delegates for an elucidation upon the new policy of the Washington government with regard to participating in an international guarantee of security against an aggressor.

Hero Of Ohio Pen Fire Suspected In Shooting Of Friend

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—James "Big Jim" Morton, hero of the Ohio penitentiary fire which took the lives of 322 fellow-convicts, was sought by police tonight to explain the shooting of his erstwhile friend, Charley Conroy, in Morton's suburban bungalow.

A physician, called to the armament-loaded house in Cicero, long the playground of gangsters, found Conroy doubled up with a bullet in his abdomen.

Police found in the bungalow quantities of guns, shells and stolen dynamite. Authorities said it appeared to have been headquarters for a gang of bombers and bank robbers.

Police said Morton was paroled from the Columbus, O., penitentiary for saving the lives of several other convicts on that Easter Monday night three years ago when fire set by other inmates attacked it.

7 American Women Presented To Queen

London, May 18 (AP)—Seven American women, most of them attired by hinted royal request in British-made gowns, were presented to Britain's queen at Buckingham palace tonight.

It was not yet dark when the string band of the Coldstream guards played the national anthem while Queen Mary on the arm of her bachelor son, the Prince of Wales, walked across the state rooms to the single golden throne.

Nearly 900 guests began to pass by the throne.

For each one who passed her majesty had a nod, and for some there was the special favor of a smile from the prince.

King George was absent, having begged off because of rheumatism in one arm which made it painful to stand in uniform and bow to hundreds of persons.

Workman Injured In Fall At Paper Company Pulp Mill

Warren Lofquist, 26, of Bark River, Route 1, an employee at the Escanaba Pulp and Paper company's pulp mill at Groos was seriously injured yesterday when in some manner he fell a distance of 75 feet from a pile of pulp wood to the conveyor which carries the wood to the barkers at the plant. He was taken to St. Francis hospital where examination revealed that he was suffering from a concussion of the brain. The young man was still unconscious last night and the full extent of his injuries will not be known until his condition permits a more complete examination.

Fellow workmen at the plant said that Mr. Lofquist evidently slipped and fell when a pile of the pulp wood fell to the conveyor. Some of the falling wood covered the man and it was necessary to dig him out of the pile.

cent of all deposits, supplemented by another assessment of the same size if necessary. The government would put up any additional funds needed, but authors of the plan are confident such a situation would not arise.

Vandenberg said he and those favoring his plan offered it to cover what they consider as "flaws" in the pending insurance plan. He described them as follows:

"First that it doesn't become effective until July 1, 1934, though the need is greater in the next year than for the next 100 years.

"Second that it depends entirely on bank assessments for solvency, and although these should carry the load, many of us insist that finally we have got to throw the credit of the government back of it."

Changes in the habitual criminal act which would elimiante the mandatory life term for four felons were proposed in bills introduced by Rep. George C. Watson, Republican, Capac. Sentencing judges would be given discretion to impose the maximum term for a first felony, plus 20 years for habitual crime, upon fourth major offendors. The present law, save for liquor violators and other exempted felonies, makes life sentences compulsory for fourth offendors. The bills were endorsed by the state crime commission.

tary Ickes of the interior. After complaints, he sent an investigator to the shoals, and the latter's report was understood to contend that the Alamaba Power company and the Tennessee Electric Power company had improperly and destructively used the Muscle Shoals substation to interchange power.

At Birmingham Thomas W. Martin, president of the Alabama company, denied anything irregular had taken place. In Washington Major General Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers who had control of the plant, said the same.

A government corporation of three directors will supervise the whole Tennessee valley improvement program. Mr. Roosevelt expects to make early choices of these men.

Arthur E. Morgan, president of Antioch college in Ohio, has been mentioned in congressional quarters as being seriously considered for the commission.

The government corporation will operate the Muscle Shoals plant for the production and sale of power, and is authorized to build, lease or purchase transmission lines to carry the energy to nearby communities for sale at low rates.

Thorwald Thorsen Again Refuses To Vacate His Office

Lansing, May 18 (AP)—Thorwald E. Thorsen, of Ironwood, today reiterated his refusal to vacate his office as director of welfare for the upper peninsula in a telegram to Governor Comstock. He again demanded a hearing under the veterans' preference act.

Attorney General Patrick H. O'Brien at the governor's request prepared a memorandum advising the executive to send state police to Ironwood and confiscate the state records and property of the welfare office. Governor Comstock abolished the office a few weeks ago but Thorsen refused to resign on the contention that his dismissal was illegal under the veterans' preference act.

Cleveland, O., May 18 (AP)—A rise of two and one half per cent to 39 per cent capacity in operations of the steel industry was reported today by the Daily Metal Trade, highest rate in two years. The publication also reported the price of pig iron went up $1 a ton in the east.

LIQUOR MONEY AFTER REPEAL MAY BE USED

$483,100,000. For the last two years the figures included beer.

"Assuming that the yield from the present beer tax is $150,000,000," he said, "then we could expect a return of at least $250,000,000 from taxes on spirits."

Detailing the general financial situation and the need for more revenue, Douglas explained:

"We are confronted with the problem of financing this bond issue. The government will have to borrow a substantial sum, about $3,300,000,000 to finance this program, and sell other bonds somewhere between $1,500,000,000 and $1,800,000,000 soon.

"The budget probably will be brought into balance approximately at the end of the next fiscal year."

He said he was speaking of "ordinary recurrent" government expenditures and not of outlays for relief and similar purposes. The treasury, he said, must count on floating bonds up to $3,400,000,000 on non-self-liquidating projects.

Reads Tax Suggestions

Douglas read his four tax programs, stressing all the while they were suggestions, and that he was before the committee merely to give information.

The first called for an increase from four to 6 percent in the normal tax rate on incomes of $4,000 and an increase from 8 to 10 on all above, to net $46,000,000 in revenue; to make corporate dividends, now exempted, subject to the normal income tax rates, $83,000,000; and to increase the federal one cent gasoline tax to one and three-fourths cents a gallon. This would total $221,000,000.

Program two, besides the income and dividend taxes in number one, called for excise levies of ten cents a pound on tea to produce $8,000,000; five cents a pound on coffee, $70,000,000; and 5 cents a pound on cocoa, to net $17,000,000, a total of $224,000,000.

Douglas said there was serious question whether the taxes on tea, coffee and cocoa, would not violate the tariff truce connected with the London economic conference.

The third plan called for an increase from four to eight and from eight to 12 percent in the normal income tax rates to net $87,000,000; extension of this tax to dividends from corporate stocks, $103,000,000; a tax of five cents each on long distance telephone calls costing from 25 to 50 cents, to net $6,000,000, and lowering of admission taxes from 44 to 20 cents to bring in $25,000,000 for a total of $221,000,000.

Douglas paused after presenting these three. Chairman Doughton asked him if he had any other, and the budget director replied. "Yes."

A general manufacturers sales levy of one and one-eighth percent with no exemptions Douglas said would return $214,000,000, while a levy of one and one-fifth would bring in $228,000,000.

Questioned by Representative Ragon (D-Ark.), as to what effect exemption of food and medicine would have on the one and one eighth percent levy, Douglas said it would reduce the total by $60,000,000 annually. To make up the difference, he said, the rate would have to be increased to 1¾ percent.

JOINTS DOOMED, CLOSING DOORS

Speakeasies in Delta Crowded Out By Trade in Legal Beer

Taking their signal from the warning issued yesterday by state, county and city officials, Escanaba speakeasies and other unlicensed liquor "joints" were closing up shop yesterday, the police department reported.

Police officers made several calls to emphasize the warning and to reiterate that the ultimatum was not a mere gesture. They said that all such places in the business area were closed with the exception of some planning to secure licenses for retailing beer, and that business in these few places was suspended awaiting licenses.

Similar steps were taken by officers of the sheriff's department, and their round of inspection also revealed that questionable establishments were closing their doors to give way to the traffic in legalized beer.

Wisconsin Plans Celebration Of Its Tercentenary

The Wisconsin state legislature has requested the Postmaster General to issue a series of special stamps which will stress the historical significance of the 300th anniversary of the white man's discovery of Wisconsin.

The state authorities are now planning suitable arrangements for the holding of appropriate exercises at many points in connection with the tercentenary celebration. The first white man to visit the territory which is now Wisconsin was Jean Nicollet, a French voyageur. Coming from Quebec in a canoe via the Ottawa river and Georgian bay, he was commissioned by Governor Champlain of New France to find an overland route to China. He landed first at what is now Sault Ste. Marie, in the upper peninsula of Michigan, and at Mackinac Island and the mainland where the city of St. Ignace now stands. Proceeding westward, he coasted along the shore of Gren Bay to a point south of the present location of Menominee and Marinette.

Pictures are extant of Nicollet dressed in flowing robes such as the mandarins of China were supposed to wear in the 17th century. Etienne Brule, another Frenchman, is believed to have penetrated to the Lake Superior country as early as 1620, but authentic records of his journey are lacking.

Escanaba Welfare Gardens To Cover Nearly 200 Acres

Offers of garden plots to those on Escanaba's welfare list are finding plenty of applicants, and many of the plots are now in the process of planting.

It is estimated that there will be a total of about 200 acres of these garden plots by the time all applications have been filled. City property is providing space for many of the gardens and many others are on plots of private individuals, donated for the purpose.

London planned a "Joy Week," but postponed it until 1934. Probably found they had everything they needed for it but the joy.

MUNISING BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mellin were visitors at Negaunee yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Nybeck of Ridge were guests of honor at a party given by relatives and friends last Saturday evening in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Dancing made up the evening's entertainment and a pot-luck lunch was served and a mock wedding ceremony was also performed. Mr. and Mrs. Nybeck were the recipients of a handsome gift.

Miss Isobel Ormerod is expected here today from New York City where she went three weeks ago to be ordained as deaconess of the Episcopal church. Miss Ormerod has been acting as church worker for St. John's Episcopal church in this city for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Brown leave tomorrow for Madison, Wis., where they will meet their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth S. Kempe, who will accompany them back to Munising, and who will visit here with her parents and friends for a few weeks.

The regular meeting of the members of St. John's Women's Auxiliary will be held next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Walters, Jr.

Mrs. H. H. Coolidge was hostess to members of the Tau Beta club last Wednesday at a one o'clock luncheon. Contract bridge was played. High score was won by Mrs. W. A. Tidd and Mrs. W. H. Munsson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McDougall will leave Dallas, Texas, next Monday for Munising, according to a letter received this week by Mrs. O. E. Brown.

The ladies of St. John's Episcopal church will hold a bake sale at Mrs. Benagh's place of business on Superior street tomorrow.

J. A. Vizena is a business caller at Iron Mountain and vicinity this week.

Miss Florida Nedeau, postal clerk, is ill at her home with a severe attack of bronchitis.

Members of the Nokomis club met at the home of Mrs. Benj. Hankin last Wednesday evening. Bridge was played, Mrs. J. A. Vizena winning high and Mrs. R. B. Hill, high guest prize.

CORNELL NEWS

Cornell, Mich. — About sixteen Cornell farmers are planting a sugar beet crop this spring with the hope of a good yield. The seeds are furnished by a Minnesota company. The farmers who have ordered seed and the number of acres which each will plant are as follows: Charles Backlund, one acre; Frank Barron, 23; Jule Charles, one; Harvey Dahns, one; David Delxeaux, one; S. N. Harrod, five; John Listle, one; Ed Morin, five; Henry Morin, two; Frank Rickle, two; Frank Tyles, five; Charles Vandrese, two; Sebastian Charles, one; Albert Deiter, one; Napoleon Guindon, three; Nels Carignan, one, making a total of 63 acres in all to be seeded.

Mrs. Frank Rickle and children Lila and John were visitors at the John Listle home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Marrenger was a caller at the Joseph Jolly home Monday evening.

Mrs. Louis Flemal and son Norbert visited at the Albert Ford home Wednesday evening.

One-Hour Limited Parking Enforced; Cooperation Good

Automobiles parked on Ludington street longer than the one-hour limit prescribed by ordinance are likely to be decorated with a tag these days.

Escanaba police are using the tag summons as a reminder of the regulation, and report good cooperation from motorists. Several tags were attached yesterday afternoon, and a check-up showed that all but one of those reporting after the summons were from outside the city and not completely familiar with the parking limit regulation.

The parking limit applies only to Ludington street from Sixth to Fourteenth.

"Fast Workers" and "The Mind Reader" are the titles of the double feature program to be shown at the Delft today and tomorrow.

The hilarious adventures of a couple of riveters who liked to climb high in the world so that their range of vision for the ladies would be increased provide a basis for "Fast Workers," which brings John Gilbert to the screen in a role that has all the punch and romantic bravado of his unforgettable part in "The Big Parade."

Robert Armstrong is seen as Gilbert's companion throughout a series of thrills on top of skyscrapers and amorous encounters on the ground that lead to a smashing climax.

Warren William, dynamic star of "The Dark Horse," "Match King" and "Employee's Entrance" comes to the Delft theatre today in a role said to be his greatest of all. In "Mind Reader," William portrays a crystal-gazing fakir.

The story throws an amusing ray of light on the hokum behind the medicine and caravan shows with their fortune tellers, crystal gazers, barkers and shills. The theme is unique and treats of a most unusual characterization in the buoyant and bombastic Chandra the Great, fortune teller par excellence, faker through and through, but withall a lovable rascal with dominating personality, particularly with women who are strongly attracted by his roguish charm.

City of Escanaba Gets Over $2,000 From Beer Stores

Beer licenses approved up to yesterday by the city council will net the city of Escanaba about $2,600, a check of the city clerk's records shows.

The total paid in for state licenses up to yesterday was something over $2,800, of which 95 percent is returned to the city under the provisions of the state beer bill.

The city shares only in license fees paid by retailers, the license on wholesalers going wholly to the state. Hotels have the heaviest fees under the head of the retail division.

Speakeasies in Delta Crowded Out By Trade in Legal Beer

Taking their signal from the warning issued yesterday by state, county and city officials, Escanaba speakeasies and other unlicensed liquor "joints" were closing up shop yesterday, the police department reported.

Police officers made several calls to emphasize the warning and to reiterate that the ultimatum was not a mere gesture. They said that all such places in the business area were closed with the exception of some planning to secure licenses for retailing beer, and that business in these few places was suspended awaiting licenses.

Similar steps were taken by officers of the sheriff's department, and their round of inspection also revealed that questionable establishments were closing their doors to give way to the traffic in legalized beer.

INTEREST REVIVED

THAT there is a revival of interest in the problem of conserving our fish, game and other natural resources in the upper peninsula is revealed in the organization of the Wolverine Conservation association.

Back a decade ago, there was much thought being given to conservation in this region and a favorable public attitude had been created, which proved to be of inestimable value in achieving certain important objectives. Of late, however, public interest in this matter seemed to have waned, and most of the work was left to the state conservation department.

Depression and unemployment, of course, contributed in some degree to this regrettable situation. The unemployed hunter and fisherman could hardly be blamed in these times if he attempted to rely upon nature to furnish fish and game as food for his hungry family. But along with this, however, has grown a tendency on the part of many city residents, all in comfortable financial circumstances, to also violate the laws. The conservation department's greatly reduced force of wardens is unable to cope with such a condition.

Only an enlightened public opinion can bring about observance of our game and fish laws. There must be a sympathetic regard for the intents of such laws. The public must learn to realize that the forests, streams, fish, birds, deer and other wild life are the property of everyone, and that he who destroys unlawfully trespasses upon the rights of his fellow citizens.

There is much good that an organization like the Wolverine Conservation association can do, and probably the most important task that lies before it is the educating of the public regarding the need for conserving and appreciating what nature has provided in such a generous measure to this northern peninsula of Michigan.

DON'T FORGET HIM!

ENCOURAGING news is coming from all sections of the county. Even right here in Escanaba, which was the last to feel the effects of the depression and probably will be the last to experience the thrill of returning prosperity, business seems to be picking up. At least, there is a more favorable public attitude. Many persons are more optimistic.

Ore shipments are to start soon from the Escanaba docks. The lumber business is noticing an improvement, and is giving employment to a few additional men. The Andrews mill, which has been closed for several months, is now buying logs and will resume operations about June 1, giving work to about forty-five more unemployed.

We have every reason to believe that times are getting better. And now, here's something to think about. Remember, your groceryman has given you food for yourself and family during your months of employment. Times have been tough for him, too. Undoubtedly, he has been forced to dig down into his savings, if he had any, to pay his bills, so that he could get the foodstuffs that he has passed on to you.

And so, when you go back to work, and we hope it will be soon, don't forget about setting aside a few dollars as soon as you can for your groceryman. He's been a good fellow, you know, and he probably is darn hard up, too.

WEAR HIS FLOWER

HIS fixed bayonet was pointed toward the enemy. His steel helmet was tilted down over determined eyes. An unseen machine gun sprayed his path with death, but he went forward for America.

In a poppy-studded wheat field he fell. They buried him after the wave of battle had swept by, and poppies sprang up around his grave. His victorious comrades, returning to America, brought memories and the poppy.

On Saturday, May 27, the men of the American Legion will ask us to wear a poppy. The women of the American Legion Auxiliary will offer us poppies on the streets and will give us an opportunity to aid the war disabled, the widows, and the fatherless children. Can there be a person in Escanaba in whom the pulse of patriotism beats so low that he will refuse? He who can so soon forget the patriotic sacrifices of the past is a person from whom friends, community and country can expect little of unselfish service today or in the future.

ADOPTS MANAGER PLAN

VOTERS of Albemarle County, Va., adopted the county executive form of government by a vote of more than two to one on May 2. Virginia counties have the option of voting on the county manager plan or the county executive plan upon petition. The county executive form is similar to the county manager plan except that the subordinate administrative officials of the county are appointed by the board of supervisors upon the recommendation of the county executive instead of by the executive himself as in the case of the manager plan. Both forms, however, are based upon the same principle the need of centralizing control in a trained manager.

This makes Albemarle County, Vr., the third county in the United States to adopt the manager plan by vote of the people. The others are Arlington County, Va., and San Mateo County, Calif. A number of other counties have experimented with various modifications of the plan and in each case, according to investigators, increased efficiency in operation has followed greater centralization of responsibility.

Commenting on the adoption of the manager plan in Albemarle County, Richard S. Childs, popularly referred to as the "father" of the city manager plan, declared that in his opinion as much would be heard of the county manager plan in the next two decades as has been heard of the city manager plan in the past twenty years.

"It is becoming more and more apparent that the only chance county government has of survival lies in efficient management. At present, the county is unquestionably the least efficient unit of government. Those states which have townships within counties are, of course, even worse off. The county suffers from almost everything that could be wrong with a government: it is wasteful and inefficient; it is political and bungling, it is unresponsive to public opinion and therefore undemocratic. By and large, decisions of policy are more likely to be determined on the basis of benefit to particular interests than they are on the basis of what would best serve the public interest.

"I'm not blaming individual officeholders. I'm hitting at an archaic system it isn't people who are at fault it's the machinery they are asked to run. We're attempting to operate a 1933 government with machinery that hasn't been improved for a hundred years. Your local officeholder won't agree, of course, because he's been brought up under the system and knows no other. But examine it yourself would you run your farm or your business the way your county government is run? If not, there's something wrong with your county government because it is merely a community business enterprise and should be run that way. The county manager plan is the way to do just that.

"Let me again emphasize this is a matter of life or death for local self government if it can be made efficient and only then, it will survive. Those of us who are sold on the county manager plan are interested in making democracy 'democ.' We want to keep our institutions of local government. We want to make them work. It is possible. The manager plan will do it."

DARLING FOOL

(By NEA Service) BY MABEL McELLIOTT

CHAPTER XXV

Sandra's voice, in spite of her desperate efforts to keep it cool, had a note of hysteria. "Where are you taking me now?"

"You keep your mouth shut!" The woman in the heavy veil, the one who had joined her captor a moment before, spoke hoarsely. Sandra had a fleeting impression she had heard that voice before and that its owner was attempting to disguise it. She shrank from the glare of eyes behind the heavy drapery of gauze. There was something wildly intimidating about that stare.

They conferred for a few minutes outside the closed door while the girl on the couch, her feet still bound, allowed her eyes to rove frantically about the room, seeking some means of escape. There seemed to be none. The window was locked and barred she could see that. Even if her shackles were loosed it would take some superb tactics to get out of this fetid room. Fool fool she had been to come alone! They had got her into this trap with maddening ease.

Sandra's thoughts roved to home and her father. He would be reading that soiled note presently. If she knew him, he had already telephoned the police. Then what? Would his life also be in danger? Pretending to shrug off this notion as pure melodrama, Sandra raised her head proudly. The man re-entered and, stooping, loosened the ropes which bound her slender ankles together.

"Come along, you!" he said, not unkindly. "We're steppin' out of here."

Sandra brushed against the woman in the passage as she followed. Again she had a sense of imminent menace, of an almost tangible hatred.

The man indicated she was to sit beside him in the rickety sedan. Before stepping into it Sandra glanced about quickly to fix the scene in her mind. In the darkness she could see only a rotting fence and dooryard. The whole place was like half a hundred discouraged farms tended by renters in the countryside. There was nothing to distinguish it.

"Never mind your lookin'," the man cackled. "We're not comin' this way again."

The veiled woman clambered into the back seat and Sandra felt those boring eyes upon her.

They rode, bumping and swaying, for what seemed to the girl hours although when she glanced at the dial of her watch she saw it was only 11 o'clock. Curious they didn't trouble to blindfold her! She knew this road it was the Embury Turnpike. Wouldn't it be the simplest thing, she thought, to scream—to attract the attention of some passing motorist? For all she knew alarms might have been broadcast already regarding her disappearance.

As if reading her thoughts, a rasping voice from the rear said harshly, "No funny business now. I've got a gun!"

They turned left into a lane lined with poplars. The moon was rising and the landscape lay cool and sharply etched before them, like a back drop in a theater. Black against the sky rose a clumsy house, sprouting half a dozen chimneys. Dark. Sinister.

"Wait here," the man commanded his henchwoman. He jumped out and went about to the back of the house, returning presently in disgruntled mood.

"Key's not here," he cried to the woman in the back seat. Sandra had an almost insane impulse to laugh. It was so absurd, this criminal protesting innocently that he couldn't get into a house because he hadn't a key.

The woman wrenched the car door open, evidencing her intention of searching for the missing key. But instead she paused, stifling a scream. Lights were blurring the roadbed of the lane. A car was coming toward them at top speed.

"It's the cops!" yelled the man. "Let's go." He flung himself into the driver's seat. The starter whirred died. Again and again he tried it, desperation in every move. But the car bore down on them.

"Run for it!" said a hoarse voice. Sandra saw the veiled woman trip over a log. Then the lights of the car shone full into her eyes.

"You big !"

Sandra looked up, half laughing, half crying. But instead of the friendly blue-coated figure she had expected to see, she found herself staring into the eyes of James, the chauffeur.

"You all right?" His voice sounded relieved. The woman, having picked herself up, now began to run. In a trice, the long-legged James had overtaken her, was shaking her soundly.

"Little sap!" Sandra heard him saying. "Didn't I tell you?"

She could hear angry sobs, a protesting murmur. Hetty! It was Hetty who had been her captor, whose burning glance of hate had eaten into her very flesh.

Recovering her composure completely, Sandra swung herself over the side of the car.

"Would anybody," she inquired coolly, "tell me what this is all about?"

James turned. The habit of respect was strong but even Sandra could catch the note of dislike.

Grudgingly he muttered, "You threw us out without jobs. You wouldn't give us even a recommend. It wasn't our fault."

Sandra flushed. "She was impudent. She didn't deserve it."

James put a restraining hand on Hetty, whose lunge forward boded no good to Sandra. The man, her original captor, had by this time disappeared, drifted into the darkness somewhere.

"You better not talk that way," James said defensively to Sandra. "You better be glad I come along in time to save you. When she" (he indicated the struggling Hetty) "gets a mad on she's a sure enough wildcat. She was bound to get even."

"I'm not goin' to let her off like this, so easy," panted Hetty. "She was sweet on you. She tried to get her hooks into you and when she couldn't, she gave us both the air."

James intervened. "You know as well as I do, Miss Lawrence, we can't get jobs without we have a recommend."

"They didn't want that—they wanted money," Sandra informed him icily. "They've sent a note to my father demanding $50,000."

James groaned. "Honest, Hetty, did you do that?"

The girl nodded, defiant.

"You little nit-wit!" He whirled on her. "Do you know what a mess you can get us into? You and that no-count cousin of yours."

"I don't care," Hetty said sullenly. "I said I'd get her and I did. She's not as smart as she think she is. Anyhow we got to go through with it now. She knows who we are and she'll get the police after us if we let her go. Don't be such a chicken heart, Jim. She doesn't care what happens to us. Why should we care about her? She'd let us starve to death."

There was danger in the atmosphere. Brooding hatred. The smoke of revenge. Two pairs of eyes stared at the girl in the Paris frock.

"What good is she anyway?" Hetty raved. "Never does a hand's turn. Makes mischief wherever she goes. What right's she got to live?"

Sandra saw something flash in

LYRICS OF LIFE

By Douglas Malloch

PROGRESS

We must live,
Yet life is but a title
If we but live,
Concerned with nothing vital,
Kin of the ox,
Yes, brother to the cattle,
Kin of the ox
While life calls men to battle.

We must grow
In wisdom, strength and beauty,
Yes, we must grow,
Each day a larger duty,
Or we shall die,
No fruit, no blossom, giving,
Yes, we shall die,
Although we call it living.

We must be
A part of life's procession,
Must more than be,
Or life is retrogression.
We must move on,
Our life all life improving,
We must move on,
And keep the whole world moving!

But examine it yourself—would you run your farm or your business the way your county government is run? If not, there's there's something wrong with your county government because it is merely a community business enterprise and should be run that way. The county manager plan is the way to do just that.

"Let me again emphasize—this is a matter of life or death for local self government—if it can be made efficient and only then, it will survive. Those of us who are sold on the county manager plan are interested in making democracy 'democ.' We want to keep our institutions of local government. We want to make them work. It is possible. The manager plan will do it."

DARLING FOOL

(By NEA Service) BY MABEL McELLIOTT

CHAPTER XXV

Sandra's voice, in spite of her desperate efforts to keep it cool, had a note of hysteria. "Where are you taking me now?"

"You keep your mouth shut!" The woman in the heavy veil, the one who had joined her captor a moment before, spoke hoarsely. Sandra had a fleeting impression she had heard that voice before and that its owner was attempting to disguise it. She shrank from the glare of eyes behind the heavy drapery of gauze. There was something wildly intimidating about that stare.

They conferred for a few minutes outside the closed door while the girl on the couch, her feet still bound, allowed her eyes to rove frantically about the room, seeking some means of escape. There seemed to be none. The window was locked and barred—she could see that. Even if her shackles were loosed it would take some superb tactics to get out of this fetid room. Fool—fool she had been to come alone! They had got her into this trap with maddening ease.

Sandra's thoughts roved to home and her father. He would be reading that soiled note presently. If she knew him, he had already telephoned the police. Then what? Would his life also be in danger? Pretending to shrug off this notion as pure melodrama, Sandra raised her head proudly. The man re-entered and, stooping, loosened the ropes which bound her slender ankles together.

"Come along, you!" he said, not unkindly. "We're steppin' out of here."

Sandra brushed against the woman in the passage as she followed. Again she had a sense of imminent menace, of an almost tangible hatred.

The man indicated she was to sit beside him in the rickety sedan. Before stepping into it Sandra glanced about quickly to fix the scene in her mind. In the darkness she could see only a rotting fence and dooryard. The whole place was like half a hundred discouraged farms tended by renters in the countryside. There was nothing to distinguish it.

"Never mind your lookin'," the man cackled. "We're not comin' this way again."

The veiled woman clambered into the back seat and Sandra felt those boring eyes upon her.

They rode, bumping and swaying, for what seemed to the girl hours although when she glanced at the dial of her watch she saw it was only 11 o'clock. Curious they didn't trouble to blindfold her! She knew this road—it was the Embury Turnpike. Wouldn't it be the simplest thing, she thought, to scream—to attract the attention of some passing motorist? For all she knew alarms might have been broadcast already regarding her disappearance.

As if reading her thoughts, a rasping voice from the rear said harshly, "No funny business now. I've got a gun!"

They turned left into a lane lined with poplars. The moon was rising and the landscape lay cool and sharply etched before them, like a back drop in a theater. Black against the sky rose a clumsy house, sprouting half a dozen chimneys. Dark. Sinister.

"Wait here," the man commanded his benchwoman. He jumped out and went about to the back of the house, returning presently in disgruntled mood.

"Key's not here," he cried to the woman in the back seat. Sandra had an almost insane impulse to laugh. It was so absurd, this criminal protesting innocently that he couldn't get into a house because he hadn't a key.

The woman wrenched the car door open, evidencing her intention of searching for the missing key. But instead she paused, stifling a scream. Lights were blurring the roadbed of the lane. A car was coming toward them at top speed.

"It's the cops!" yelled the man. "Let's go." He flung himself into the driver's seat. The starter whirred—died. Again and again he tried it, desperation in every move. But the car bore down on them.

"Run for it!" said a hoarse voice. Sandra saw the veiled woman trip over a log. Then the lights of the car shone full into her eyes.

"You big—!"

Sandra looked up, half laughing, half crying. But instead of the friendly blue-coated figure she had expected to see, she found herself staring into the eyes of James, the chauffeur.

"You all right?" His voice sounded relieved. The woman, having picked herself up, now began to run. In a trice, the long-legged James had overtaken her, was shaking her soundly.

"Little sap!" Sandra heard him saying. "Didn't I tell you?"

She could hear angry sobs, a protesting murmur. Hetty! It was Hetty who had been her captor, whose burning glance of hate had eaten into her very flesh.

Recovering her composure completely, Sandra swung herself over the side of the car.

"Would anybody," she inquired coolly, "tell me what this is all about?"

James turned. The habit of respect was strong but even Sandra could catch the note of dislike.

Grudgingly he muttered, "You threw us out without jobs. You wouldn't give us even a recommend. It wasn't our fault."

Sandra flushed. "She was impudent. She didn't deserve it."

James put a restraining hand on Hetty, whose lunge forward boded no good to Sandra. The man, her original captor, had by this time disappeared, drifted into the darkness somewhere.

"You better not talk that way," James said defensively to Sandra. "You better be glad I come along in time to save you. When she" (he indicated the struggling Hetty) "gets a mad on she's a sure enough wildcat. She was bound to get even."

"I'm not goin' to let her off like this, so easy," panted Hetty. "She was sweet on you. She tried to get her hooks into you and when she couldn't, she gave us both the air."

James intervened. "You know as well as I do, Miss Lawrence, we can't get jobs without we have a recommend."

"They didn't want that—they wanted money," Sandra informed him icily. "They've sent a note to my father demanding $50,000."

James groaned. "Honest, Hetty, did you do that?"

The girl nodded, defiant.

"You little nit-wit!" He whirled on her. "Do you know what a mess you can get us into? You and that no-count cousin of yours."

"I don't care," Hetty said sullenly. "I said I'd get her and I did. She's not as smart as she think she is. Anyhow we got to go through with it now. She knows who we are and she'll get the police after us if we let her go. Don't be such a chicken heart, Jim. She doesn't care what happens to us. Why should we care about her? She'd let us starve to death."

There was danger in the atmosphere. Brooding hatred. The smoke of revenge. Two pairs of eyes stared at the girl in the Paris frock.

"What good is she anyway?" Hetty raved. "Never does a hand's turn. Makes mischief wherever she goes. What right's she got to live?"

Sandra saw something flash in

PROGRESS

We must live,
Yet life is but a title
If we but live,
Concerned with nothing vital,
Kin of the ox,
Yes, brother to the cattle,
Kin of the ox
While life calls men to battle.

We must grow
In wisdom, strength and beauty,
Yes, we must grow,
Each day a larger duty,
Or we shall die,
No fruit, no blossom, giving,
Yes, we shall die,
Although we call it living.

We must be
A part of life's procession,
Must more than be,
Or life is retrogression,
We must move on,
Our life all life improving,
We must move on,
And keep the whole world moving!

FEDERAL BEER TAX NOW DUE

Dealers Must Pay Before End of May or Incur 25 Per Cent Fine

In addition to their regular state beer licenses, all wholesale and retail dealers in malt liquors are required to pay a federal tax direct to the bureau of internal revenue at Grand Rapids. Little information regarding the payment of the special federal tax was available until this week at Escanaba, but a supply of the special tax return blanks have now been received at the county clerk's office for convenience, and payments are now due for the months of May and June.

The special tax liability is reckoned from the first of July of each year or the first day of the month during which business is commenced to the thirtieth day of June following. Escanaba and Delta county retailers and wholesalers who started in the beer business this month will be required to pay from May 1 to June 30, two months. The special federal tax for the wholesaler is $100 a year or $8.33 1-3 a month and for the retail malt liquor dealer is $20 a year or $1.66 2-3 a month. Thus local dealers are now owing the government $3.34 on their retail licenses and $16.67 on their wholesaler licenses to take them up to the end of the fiscal year June 30. At that time payment will be due for the coming fiscal year of July 1, 1933 to June 30, 1934.

If application on the special tax return is not filed with the collector of internal revenue this month, which is the month the liability was incurred, a 25 per cent penalty is levied.

The only place the blanks may be obtained at present is at the county clerk's office. Remittances for the tax fees are made direct to the collector of internal revenue at Grand Rapids by cash, certified check, or postoffice money order.

Michigan Will Have Graduation Program June 3

Frederick M. Foster, Menominee, formerly of Nahma, and Griffith Nelson Thresher of Hermansville will be graduated from the Michigan College of Mining and Technology on June 3.

One hundred, twenty-five seniors at the Michigan College of Mining and Technology will receive degrees at the annual graduation exercises. The mining engineering degree will be awarded the largest group, 24 completing that course this year. Mechanical engineering ranks second with 23. Metallurgy third with 18, and Electrical and Civil engineering with 17 each. Thirteen Master of Science degrees will be awarded, the largest group being from the Metallurgy department. Six men will receive the professional rating.

Miss Margaret R. Holley of Lake Linden, Mich., will be the first coed ever to receive a degree from Michigan Tech. She will be awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in General Science.

Group Examined For Conservation Corps

A group of 13 young men in the ages from 18 to 25 were examined on Wednesday for induction into the Citizens Conservation Corps, Private L. Dodge of the 2nd Infantry, stationed at the Soo conducted the examinations. These boys were pretty much hand picked as most of those volunteering for the work could not qualify for various reasons. The examinations were held in the office of W. J. Truran, county welfare worker.

Needy Get Suckers From Fisherman

Conservation Officer Richard Beach distributed 800 pounds of suckers to Luce county needy on Wednesday. Fisherman LaBlanc of the Two Heart had reported to the officer that he caught many fine suckers in his whitefish nets and had to throw them away because there is no market for them. Mr. Beach took a conservation truck and drove out early on Wednesday returning with a fine lot but not enough to go around to all of those who needed them. A second trip was fruitless as a change in the wind brought empty nets. Families getting the fish were very pleased with them.

MISS GORMELY HEADS CLUB

Kathleen Gormely was elected president of the Business and Professional Woman's club at the general election held on Wednesday evening in the community building. Other officers are Edna Hempkis, vice president; Margaret Barber, treasurer. J. Lynn McClung, elected as secretary, found it impossible to accept and that position will be filled later. Florence Young, Newberry postmistress, is the retiring president, under whose leadership the club has had a prosperous and successful year. Among the other business transacted the club voted to purchase glasses for a school girl who is needing them badly.

SOUMI MISSION MEETS

Officers of the Soumi Synod Mission held their quarterly meeting in Newberry on Tuesday and Wednesday at the residence of Rev. Lauri Ahlman, with a public session on Tuesday evening in the Finnish Lutheran church. Rev. A. Haapanen of Hancock, president of the Synod, presided, those present being Rev. Matti Luttinen of South Range, Rev. Matti Pesonen of Hancock, Rev. Antti Kuusisto of Milwaukee, and Rev. Korhonen from Wakefield. On Tuesday night all of the ministers spoke on various aspects of the church work. The program was completed with music and coffee was served in the parlors of the church at the close of the service. On Wednesday morning all but Rev. Pesonen went on to the Soo for a meeting and on Thursday a meeting will be held in Rudyard, Rev. Ahlman going with them.

COUNTRY CLUB LUNCHEON

The first luncheon of the season will be given by the ladies of the Country club on Monday, May 22, at the club house. Following the luncheon a business meeting will be conducted and then bridge will be played. At the meeting plans for the summer activities will be discussed. The committee in charge is Mrs. Toms, Mrs. Spinks, Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. West.

DISCONTINUE DISTRIBUTION

No more Red Cross garments will be distributed during the summer months, it is announced by Mrs. D. N. McLeod, chairman of the local chapter. This decision was reached at a meeting held on Wednesday in the community building. Later in the summer the work will be taken up in time to get children ready for school.

Word has been received from the national headquarters that Luce county has received the last of the flour. The last shipment was a double order and this must be conserved to make it last as long as possible. The local officials are sorry to do this as the need for flour among the needy is really greater now than ever before, many families having reached the end of their resources and are now asking for help for the first time. Mrs. Emma Harris, secretary, and Attorney A. L. Sayles are making an effort to find another source of supply if possible. Letters are being written to Congressman Prentis Brown and to State Welfare Commissioner Carpenter, stating the local conditions.

NEWBERRY BRIEFS

A son was born on May 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shelson.

Oakley Rivers, his mother, and Mr. Rogers drove to Garden on Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Rivers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McPhee of Marquette were in Newberry on Wednesday, stopping here on their way home from Bay City where they had attended the funeral of Mrs. Sherdy, mother of Mrs. McPhee. Mrs. Malcolm McPhee of this city drove back to Marquette with them and will visit for a time.

The F. E. Price party from Detroit arrived in Newberry on Wednesday and will remain at the Deer Park lodge until May 21st. The party was comprised of Mr. Price, Dr. J. R. Bolansy, John Morrison, George Spalding and R. Reader. Five more are expected to join them today.

County Plans Cuts

Marquette—Elimination of one standing committee of the county board of supervisors and reduction in membership of most of the others, which he said would save the county about $2,500 a year, were announced at the May meeting of the board yesterday by H. E. Perkins, its new chairman.

Mr. Perkins eliminated the committee on supplies and expenditures and advocated replacement of the Morgan Heights sanatorium committee of seven members by a board of trustees of three members, as provided in the state law, after considerable discussion the Morgan Heights matter was laid on the table for one month.

GROCERY "BIDS" ARE ELIMINATED

Welfare Clients to Pick Their Own Store Under New RFC Rules

Under new regulations of the city of Escanaba emergency relief commission, the monthly bidding for city grocery business on a contract basis with one store has been eliminated, and effective next week city welfare list clients will be given the privilege of taking their grocery want list to the store of their choice. Prices will be fixed by the price adjustment committee.

This change in the grocery arrangement will go into operation at Escanaba next Tuesday. It was made necessary by new requirements of the R. F. C. administration in apportioning funds for emergency relief.

One requisite attached to the granting of orders for groceries, however, is a mandatory order that the recipient of groceries or other R. F. C. relief fund benefits must report for work projects when such work is made available to him, and failure to report will mean that he will be cancelled from the relief commission list as a grocery client.

Grocery orders under the new system are made out in duplicate, the merchant returning a statement of the list of items ordered, and certified by the recipient.

Filled With Sand, Sewage Main Gives Repair Crew Work

A crushed sewage main on west Ludington street which became filled with sand is proving a complicated repair problem for the Escanaba engineering department.

The main lies under the concrete of the main highway, and for that reason the restoration of the sewage service is working under restrictions. The sewage is being by passed over the top of the pavement by being pumped through corrugated pipe to a point farther down the line where the main is not completely filled with sand.

The pipe apparently was crushed by the pressure of a chunk of heavy filling material pulled into the trench when the road was leveled, and the pipe was so completely filled with sand when discovered by the city crews that the usual sewer excavator for cleaning could not be used. Repair work will proceed more steadily as soon as the sand is removed enough so that the bucket system and cables may be used for carrying out the accumulation of sand.

Even though the sewage "detour" on the pavement is lighted with torches at night, someone ran into it with an automobile Wednesday night. Evidence of considerable damage to the car was seen in the shattered glass on the pavement, and the whole pipe line was knocked down. The driver apparently got away as fast as he could, however, and made no complaint to the city.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

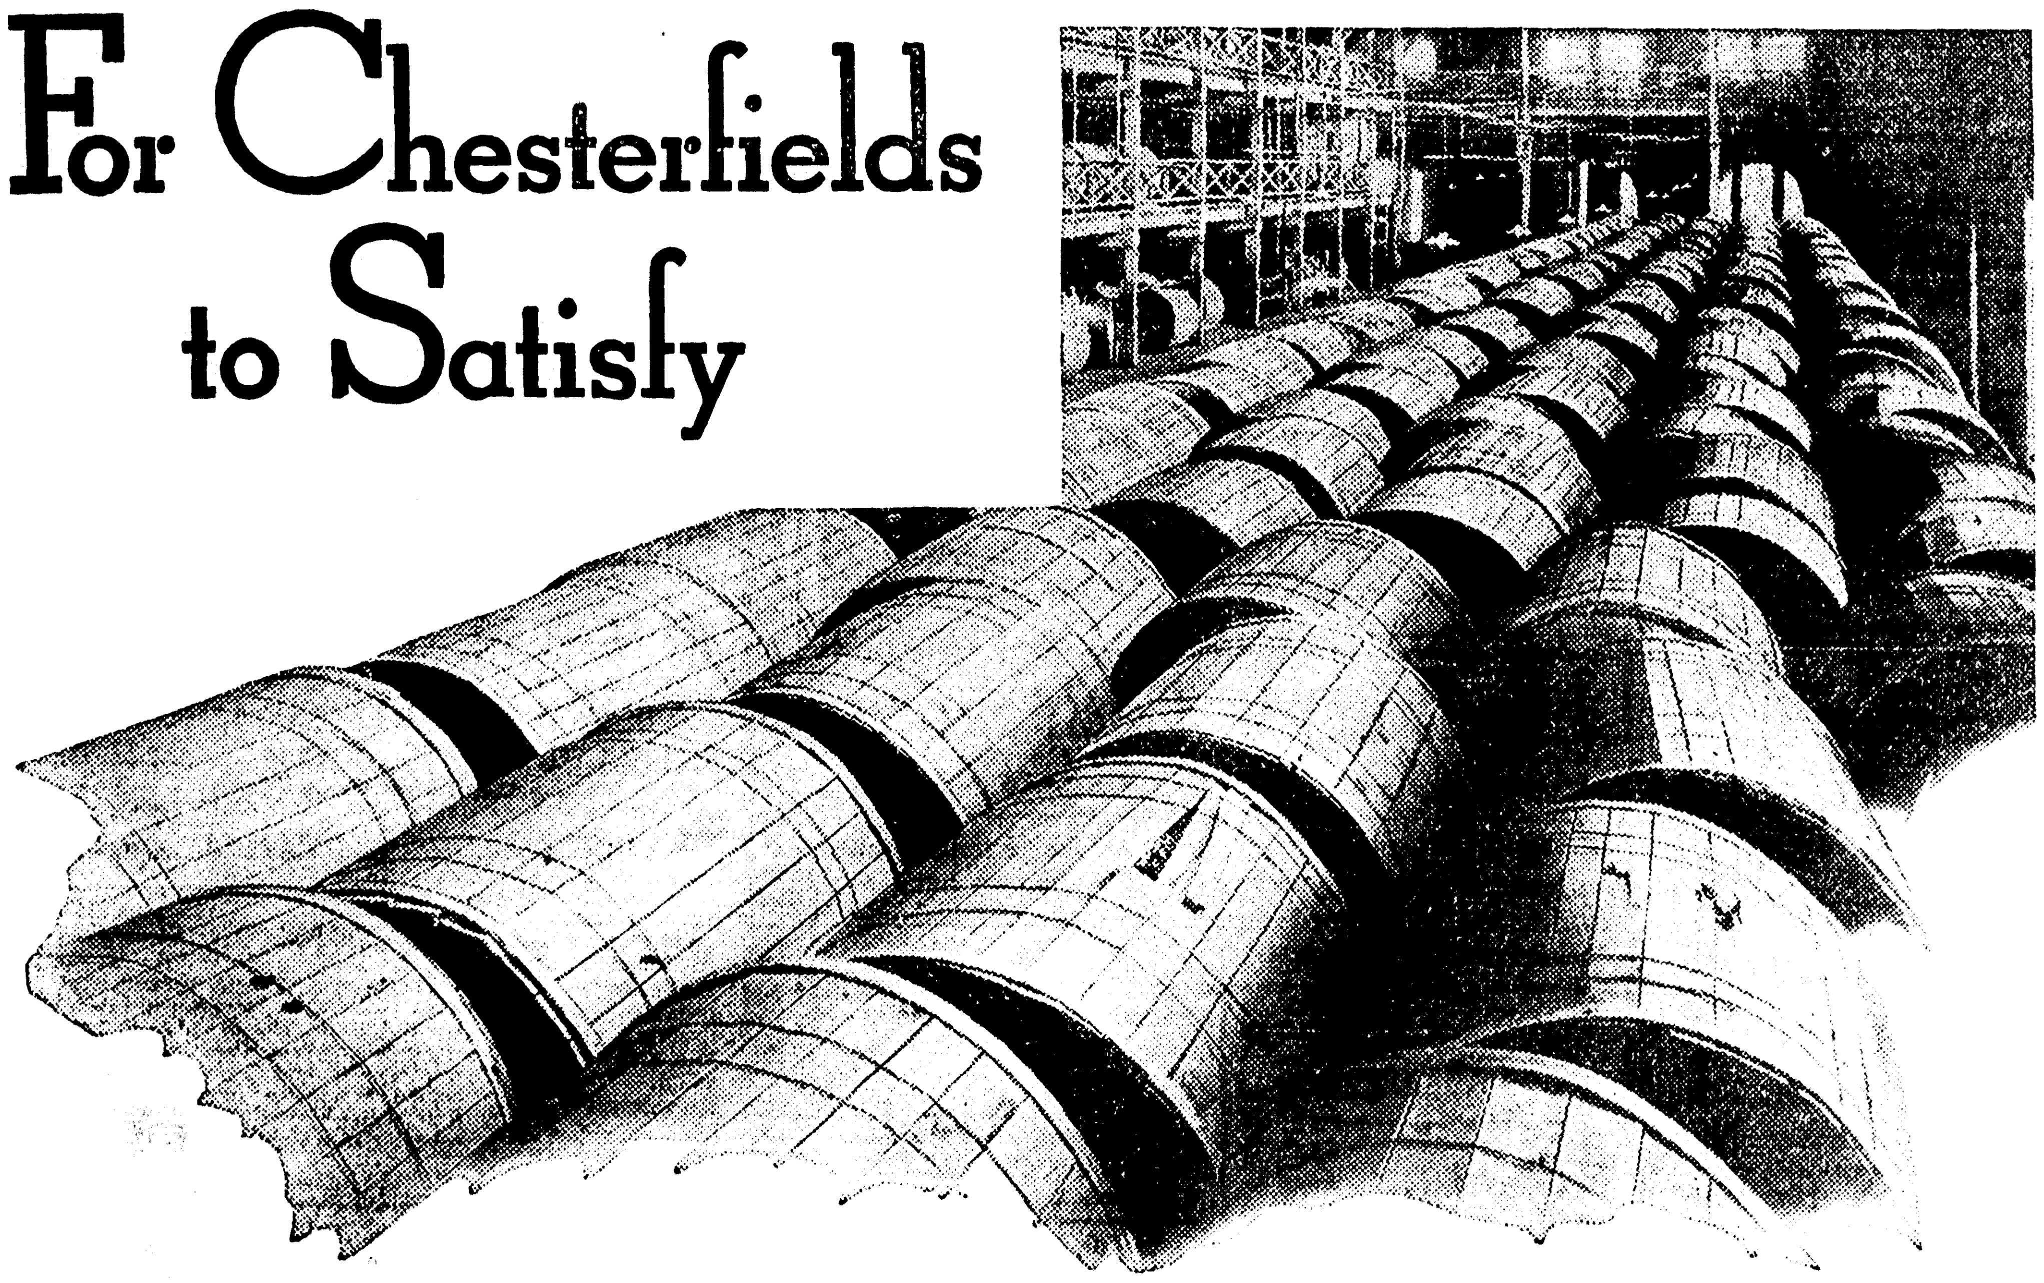
For Chesterfields to Satisfy



It takes barrels of money ——

—— put away for 30 months

Four miles of warehouses are used to store our tobaccos. The crops now in storage are worth about $70,000,000 . . . most of it for Chesterfield Cigarettes.

The Domestic kinds are packed away in wooden hogsheads that weigh 1,000 pounds and stand as high as a man's head.

Like fine wine, tobacco improves with age. So after our buyers select. from the various markets, the right kind of tobacco for Chesterfield, we put it away for 30 months or more to become mellow and sweet.

This ageing process is expensive, but there is no short-cut to make tobaccos milder—to make them taste better. It just takes money and time to make Chesterfields.

FEDERAL BEER TAX NOW DUE

Dealers Must Pay Before End of May or Incur 25 Per Cent Fine

In addition to their regular state beer licenses, all wholesale and retail dealers in malt liquors are required to pay a federal tax direct to the bureau of internal revenue at Grand Rapids. Little information regarding the payment of the special federal tax was available until this week at Escanaba, but a supply of the special tax return blanks have now been received at the county clerk's office for convenience, and payments are now due for the months of May and June.

Group Examined For Conservation Corps

A group of 13 young men in the ages from 18 to 25 were examined on Wednesday for induction into the Citizens Conservation Corps, Private L. Dodge of the 2nd Infantry, stationed at the Soo conducted the examinations. These boys were pretty much hand picked as most of those volunteering for the work could not qualify for various reasons. The examinations were held in the office of W. J. Truran, county welfare worker.

Needy Get Suckers From Fisherman

Conservation Officer Richard Beach distributed 800 pounds of suckers to Luce county needy on Wednesday. Fisherman LaBlanc of the Two Heart had reported to the officer that he caught many fine suckers in his whitefish nets and had to throw them away because there is no market for them. Mr. Beach took a conservation truck and drove out early on Wednesday returning with a fine lot but not enough to go around to all of those who needed them. A second trip was fruitless as a change in the wind brought empty nets. Families getting the fish were very pleased with them.

MISS GORMELY HEADS CLUB

Kathleen Gormely was elected president of the Business and Professional Woman's club at the general election held on Wednesday evening in the community building. Other officers are Edna Hempkis, vice president; Margaret Barber, treasurer. J. Lynn McClung, elected as secretary, found it impossible to accept and that position will be filled later. Florence Young, Newberry postmistress, is the retiring president, under whose leadership the club has had a prosperous and successful year. Among the other business transacted the club voted to purchase glasses for a school girl who is needing them badly.

SOUMI MISSION MEETS

Officers of the Soumi Synod Mission held their quarterly meeting in Newberry on Tuesday and Wednesday at the residence of Rev. Lauri Ahlman, with a public session on Tuesday evening in the Finnish Lutheran church, Rev. A. Haapanen of Hancock, president of the Synod, presided, those present being Rev. Matti Luttinen of South Range, Rev. Matti Pesonen of Hancock, Rev. Antti Kuusisto of Milwaukee, and Rev. Korhenen from Wakefield. On Tuesday night all of the ministers spoke on various aspects of the church work. The program was completed with music and coffee was served in the parlors of the church at the close of the service. On Wednesday morning all but Rev. Pesonen went on to the Soo for a meeting and on Thursday a meeting will be held in Rudyard, Rev. Ahlman going with them.

COUNTRY CLUB LUNCHEON

The first luncheon of the season will be given by the ladies of the Country club on Monday, May 22, at the club house. Following the luncheon a business meeting will be conducted and then bridge will be played. At the meeting plans for the summer activities will be discussed. The committee in charge is Mrs. Toms, Mrs. Spinks, Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. West.

DISCONTINUE DISTRIBUTION

No more Red Cross garments will be distributed during the summer months, it is announced by Mrs. D. N. McLeod, chairman of the local chapter. This decision was reached at a meeting held on Wednesday in the community building. Later in the summer the work will be taken up in time to get children ready for school.

Word has been received from the national headquarters that Luce county has received the last of the flour. The last shipment was a double order and this must be conserved to make it last as long as possible. The local officials are sorry to do this as the need for flour among the needy is really greater now than ever before, many families having reached the end of their resources and are now asking for help for the first time. Mrs. Emma Harris, secretary, and Attorney A. L. Sayles are making an effort to find another source of supply if possible. Letters are being written to Congressman Prentis Brown and to State Welfare Commissioner Carpenter, stating the local conditions.

NEWBERRY BRIEFS

A son was born on May 17 to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shelson.

Oakley Rivers, his mother, and Mr. Rogers drove to Garden on Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Rivers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McPhee of Marquette were in Newberry on Wednesday, stopping here on their way home from Bay City where they had attended the funeral of Mrs. Sherdy, mother of Mrs. McPhee. Mrs. Malcolm McPhee of this city drove back to Marquette with them and will visit for a time.

The F. E. Price party from Detroit arrived in Newberry on Wednesday and will remain at the Deer Park lodge until May 21st. The party was comprised of Mr. Price, Dr. J. R. Bolansy, John Morrison, George Spalding and R. Reader. Five more are expected to join them today.

County Plans Cuts

Marquette—Elimination of one standing committee of the county board of supervisors and reduction in membership of most of the others, which he said would save the county about $2,500 a year, were announced at the May meeting of the board yesterday by H. E. Perkins, its new chairman.

Mr. Perkins eliminated the committee on supplies and expenditures and advocated replacement of the Morgan Heights sanatorium committee of seven members by a board of trustees of three members, as provided in the state law, after considerable discussion the Morgan Heights matter was laid on the table for one month.

GROCERY "BIDS" ARE ELIMINATED

Welfare Clients to Pick Their Own Store Under New RFC Rules

Under new regulations of the city of Escanaba emergency relief commission, the monthly bidding for city grocery business on a contract basis with one store has been eliminated, and effective next week city welfare list clients will be given the privilege of taking their grocery want list to the store of their choice. Prices will be fixed by the price adjustment committee.

This change in the grocery arrangement will go into operation at Escanaba next Tuesday. It was made necessary by new requirements of the R. F. C. administration in apportioning funds for emergency relief.

One requisite attached to the granting of orders for groceries, however, is a mandatory order that the recipient of groceries or other R. F. C. relief fund benefits must report for work projects when such work is made available to him, and failure to report will mean that he will be cancelled from the relief commission list as a grocery client.

Grocery orders under the new system are made out in duplicate, the merchant returning a statement of the list of items ordered, and certified by the recipient.

Filled With Sand, Sewage Main Gives Repair Crew Work

A crushed sewage main on west Ludington street which became filled with sand is proving a complicated repair problem for the Escanaba engineering department.

The main lies under the concrete of the main highway, and for that reason the restoration of the sewage service is working under restrictions. The sewage is being by-passed over the top of the pavement by being pumped through corrugated pipe to a point farther down the line where the main is not completely filled with sand.

The pipe apparently was crushed by the pressure of a chunk of heavy filling material pulled into the trench when the road was leveled, and the pipe was so completely filled with sand when discovered by the city crews that the usual sewer excavator for cleaning could not be used. Repair work will proceed more steadily as soon as the sand is removed enough so that the bucket system and cables may be used for carrying out the accumulation of sand.

Even though the sewage "detour" on the pavement is lighted with torches at night, someone ran into it with an automobile Wednesday night. Evidence of considerable damage to the car was seen in the shattered glass on the pavement, and the whole pipe line was knocked down. The driver apparently got away as fast as he could, however, and made no complaint to the city.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

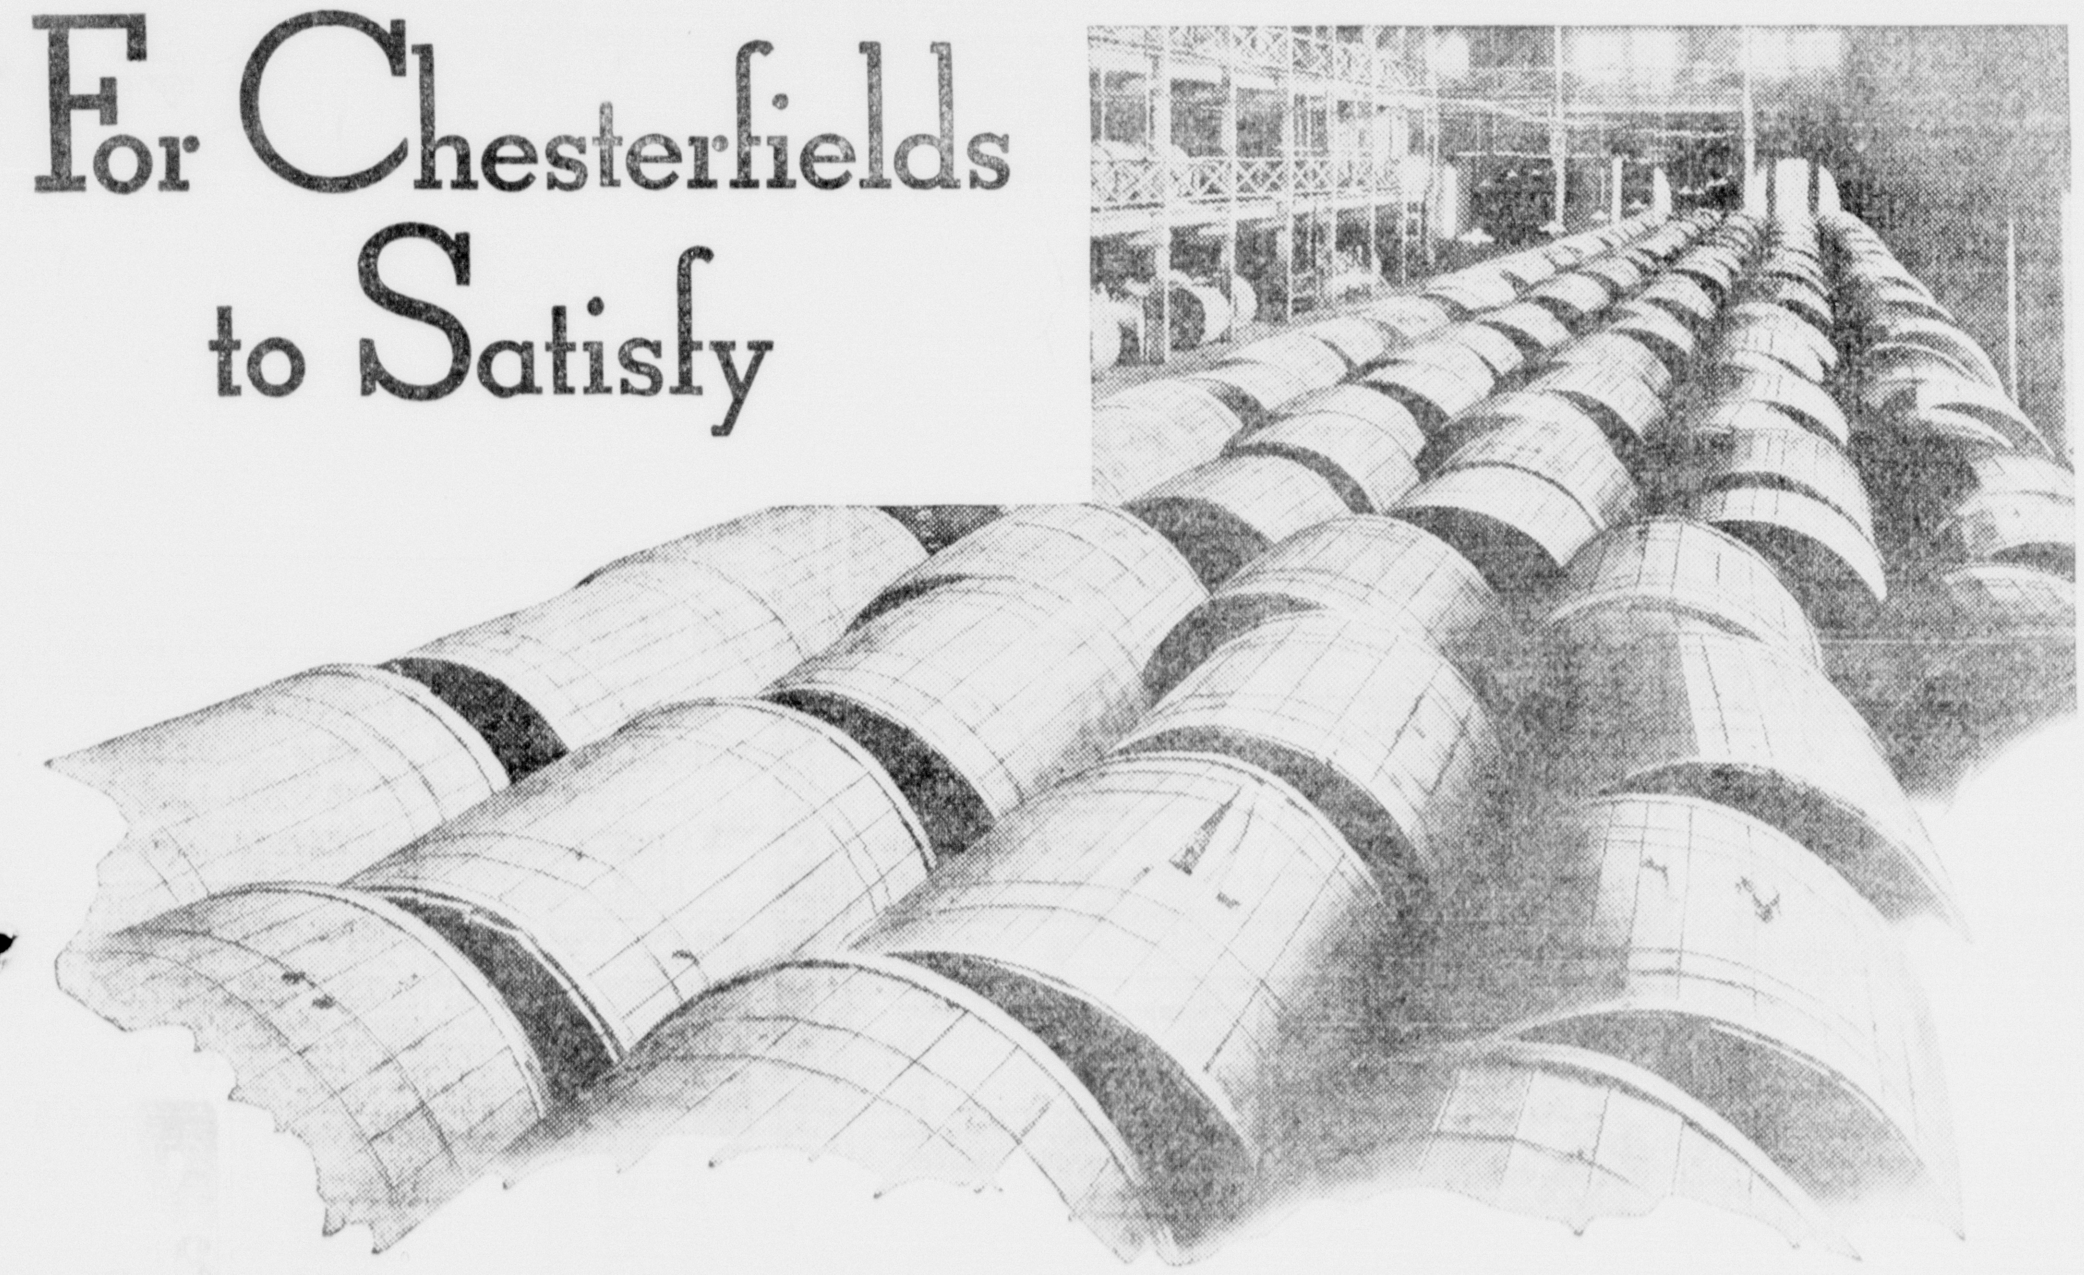
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

For Chesterfields to Satisfy



It takes barrels of money —

— put away for 30 months

Four miles of warehouses are used to store our tobaccos. The crops now in storage are worth about $70,000,000 . . . most of it for Chesterfield Cigarettes.

The Domestic kinds are packed away in wooden hogsheads that weigh 1,000 pounds and stand as high as a man's head.

Like fine wine, tobacco improves with age. So after our buyers select, from the various markets, the right kind of tobacco for Chesterfield, we put it away for 30 months or more to become mellow and sweet.

This ageing process is expensive, but there is no short-cut to make tobaccos milder—to make them taste better. It just takes money and time to make Chesterfields.

"WILL YOU MAKE CAKES FOR THE CHURCH SUPPER? YOURS ARE ALWAYS THE BEST—I WONDER WHY"
"I'LL TELL YOU WHY IT IS. MY BAKING POWDER'S THE BEST!"

. . . AND ANOTHER WOMAN CHANGES TO CALUMET!

AND so the good news gets 'round—that Calumet does better baking! Women find that it gives finer quality to cakes, biscuits, waffles . . .

This modern baking powder acts twice. First in the mixing bowl . . . and later in the oven, when its remarkable second action begins. This gradual, even rising during the baking gives you more velvety texture . . . better shape . . . smooth, evenly browned crust.

Calumet's efficient Double-Action saves money because you use less. Only one level teaspoon to one cup of sifted flour in most recipes—that's Calumet's thrifty proportion. Reasonably-priced, too. Get a can of Calumet today.

Eggs and Mushrooms, Escalloped

(Serving three)

3 hard cooked eggs, sliced
4 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour
2½ cups milk
1-3 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon paprika
¼ teaspoon celery salt
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon chopped pimiento
½ cup browned mushrooms
½ cup crumbs
2 tablespoons butter, melted

Cream 4 tablespoons butter and add flour. Add milk and cook until creamy sauce forms. Add seasonings, eggs and mushrooms. Pour into buttered, shallow baking dish. Cover with crumbs which have been mixed with melted butter. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven. Serve in dish in which baked.

Water-cress Salad

1 cup water-cress
1-8 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons French dressing

Carefully wash cress. Place in bag and store in ice box until ready to serve. Arrange cress on salad plates. Sprinkle with salt and add dressing.

Queen Pudding

(A glorified bread pudding)

1 cup bread crumbs
1-3 cup sugar
2 egg yolks
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups milk
½ cup peaches
½ cup dates
¼ teaspoon lemon extract
2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 egg whites, beaten
3 tablespoons confectioner's sugar
2 tablespoons jam

Mix bread, sugar, yolks, vanilla, milk, peaches, dates, lemon extract and butter. Pour into buttered baking dish. Set in pan of hot water and bake 50 minutes in slow oven. Remove from oven. Spread top with jam and egg whites which have been beaten and mixed with confectioner's sugar. Bake 12 minutes in slow oven. Cool and chill.

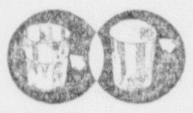
"WILL YOU MAKE CAKES FOR THE CHURCH SUPPER? YOURS ARE ALWAYS THE BEST—I WONDER WHY"
"I'LL TELL YOU WHY IT IS. MY BAKING POWDER'S THE BEST!"

. . . AND ANOTHER WOMAN CHANGES TO CALUMET!

AND so the good news gets 'round—that Calumet does better baking! Women find that it gives finer quality to cakes, biscuits, waffles . . .

This modern baking powder acts twice. First in the mixing bowl . . . and later in the oven, when its remarkable second action begins. This gradual, even rising during the baking gives you more velvety texture . . . better shape . . . smooth, evenly browned crust.

Calumet's efficient Double-Action saves money because you use less. Only one level teaspoon to one cup of sifted flour in most recipes—that's Calumet's thrifty proportion. Reasonably-priced, too. Get a can of Calumet today.



1st ACTION 2nd ACTION

GET PROOF! See Calumet act twice! These pictures illustrate the famous Calumet Double-Action Test. You'll find full directions for making this easy test inside every Calumet can. Try it! See for yourself how Calumet acts twice to make your baking better.

CITY BUDGET IS APPROVED

Several Applications for Beer Licenses Also Okehed

First reading of the 1933 budget of the city of Escanaba was approved by the Escanaba city council last night, without making any alteration of the figures prepared by City Manager T. F. Kessler. The budget will have to be given a second reading before it is finally adopted, and this will be done at the next regular meeting of the council.

The budget calls for a total expenditure of $199,501.10, of which $77,254.00 is provided by revenue from the public utilities, license fees and other sources, leaving the sum of $122,247.10 to be raised by a city property tax. Last year's budget called for a levy of $106,492.90. The city tax rate will not be determined until the city's valuation is determined, which will be after the sessions of the board of review early in June.

Library Request Granted

The budget request of the board of trustees of the Carnegie library for $9,000 was approved by the council, and a motion was adopted asking that the library board keep down as low as possible its expenditures for new books. The suggestion that some effort be made to obtain contribution of books from public spirited citizens was included in the motion.

Increases in the street and sewer fund, welfare, interest and bond retiral funds were the principal reasons for the proposed larger tax levy. Negotiations are now being made with the state highway department for the resurfacing of M-35 on South Tenth and Ludington streets. Work on this R. F. C. work relief project will start as soon as authorization is received from the state department.

Dock Project Tabled

Estimates of the cost of constructing a dock for pleasure craft at the Stephenson dock site were presented by City Manager T. F. Kessler. It was estimated the project would cost about $950. The council, however, took no action on the matter, because of existing financial conditions.

The city manager was also asked to prepare estimates of the cost of improving Seventh Avenue south for one block from Bay street to Tenth street. Property owners on that street have been asking that it be paved.

The city council decided last night that "this is no time" for establishing a municipal recreation department, after reading a communication from the Women's Athletic association, which requested that Miss Zania Rivers be oppointed by the city council as the official supervisor of the playgrounds and beach of the city.

The following beer license applications were approved last night: Owen Gallagher, 1408 Ludington street; Elks Club, Escanaba Fruit Store, George Coplan, 300 South Tenth street; and Frank Hess, restaurant, 1004 Ludington street.

Councilmen reported at the meeting last night that they have been receiving several complaints of automobile speeders on Escanaba streets. A police campaign against speeding, made effective by the arrest of traffic law violators, was suggested by the council.

Zoning Ordinance

Upon its final reading, the council adopted zoning ordinance No. 81 calling for the destignation as a Class C zoning district the territory, described as follows:

Commencing at the intersection of South Nineteenth Street, with the alley running between Ludington Street and First Avenue South, thence Easterly through said alley to the West line of South Thirteenth Street, thence South along said West line to the North line of the alley, running East and West between First Avenue South and Second Avenue South, thence westerly along the North line of said alley to a point where said alley intersects with the East line of South Fifteenth Street, thence North fifty (50) feet, thence westerly at right angles to the East line of Nineteenth Street, thence north along said East line of South Nineteenth Street to the place of beginning.

Washington News Column

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington.—The morale of government employes probably is lower than it ever was before.

These hundreds of thousands of workers, widely regarded as a privileged class and often called "parasites" by the cheap demagogues of Congress, are no longer to be envied. They haven't yet shared proportionately the misery of the mass of wage earners employed by private business, but they have been going through a miserable period in which every thing is uncertain except for the certainty that things are going to get worse.

At a time when President Roosevelt himself has urged wage increases on private industry, a large proportion of them face the likelihood of a 40 per cent reduction of income if they are lucky enough not to lose their jobs. And Washington isn't such a relatively happy place to live in as it used to be. Nervousness, which sometimes approaches hysteria, is in the air.

Four Worries

These are the chief causes of worry:

1. The Roosevelt economy program, if carried through, means that a lot of people are going to lose their jobs—nobody can guess who or that, as made possible under a bill just passed the House, much larger numbers will be furloughed for 90 days without pay.

2. No one has any idea what will happen—or to whom—under the much press-agented government reorganization program, which is tied up with the economy drive. The administration has delayed announcement of its plans because it has found reorganization much more difficult than had been expected.

3. The patronage bosses of the Democratic party would like to give out as many jobs to their clamoring hordes as they can. There's a definite attempt to break down at least a part of the civil service system by which federal employes have considered themselves protected. About 130,000 small jobs are not under civil service in addition to the higher posts most of which would go to Democrats in any event. Those jobs have always been considered "safe," but their occupants are worrying now. And there are several thousand more highly-paid employes brought under civil service during the Hoover administration. Many Democrats favor taking those jobs for their own folks, although such procedure if repeated from administration to administration definitely would stop the progress of civil service.

4. Any employe of more than 30 years' service may, under the independent offices bill passed by the House, be retired at the discretion of his department or bureau head on an annuity running from $900 to $1200 a year. Some of the government's most valuable employes are now worrying over the possibility that they may suddenly lose their jobs and be reduced to a bare level of subsistence.

Cut Already Taken

Federal employes have already taken a 15 per cent pay cut a reduction which may be lessened whenever the president finds that the cost of living has come within 15 per cents of its 1928 average. (He is required by Congress to investigate and act on that point every six months, which does give the federal employe a protection against inflation.)

The employes took the 15 per cent cut without protest, but the 90-day furlough proposal has them up in the air. That would mean 40 per cent less income. The department and bureau heads would be authorized by Congress, if the Senate now approves, to impose the furlough when they think it best.

Yet the administration feels itself bound to make a 25 per cent cut in federal expenses and has the power to do so. Only half that reduction has been achieved by slash of veteran compensation and federal salaries. Nearly all the rest must come from federal employes.

Ash and Garbage Pickups Starting; Must Cover Cans

Because of the fact that there has always been more or less misunderstanding as to garbage collections in Escanaba, the city engineer's office is again calling attention to the regulations as to what constitutes garbage and what will be handled by the city garbage trucks.

In the first place, garbage must be placed in containers, and all containers must have tight covers. These containers must not be larger than can be handled by one man for loading on a truck, and should be placed near the alley in a convenient place near the alley line which will be readily visible and accessible to the garbage collector. All garbage should be wrapped in paper to reduce the nuisance from odor and lessen the tendency for attracting flies. Only garbage in cans will be picked up, and by garbage is meant only waste from the kitchen. Lawn cuttings, tree prunnings, yard cleanings and old plaster will not be handled by the garbage trucks.

Due to the fact that the city is carrying on the ash-pile cleanup without hiring additional equipment, the ash collections this spring are necessarily slowed up somewhat, but are proceeding satisfactorily, with the alleys in the Ludington street area getting first attention.

the darkness. She heard a muffled report. She watched fascinated, the struggling figures.

James turned his head sharply. "Get out of here," he barked. "Run for your life. And if you tell about this night—if you get Hetty into trouble—you'll be sorry for it, that's all."

Sandra ran, stumbling in the ruts, almost sobbing. Briers tore her thin stockings and once she fell into a pool of ooze, sinking to her ankles.

At last she reached the main road, a bedraggled figure. Which way to turn? She did not know, so took the right, hoping it led toward home. Her thin shoes were hopelessly inadequate. Her body felt as if it had been beaten.

Several cars passed, their lights almost blinding her. Her breath was torn from her now in gusty sobs, every one burning her parched throat. On and on she stumbled along this road that seemingly had no turning.

At last she heard the purr of a motor going in the same direction. She was frightened rather than relieved, hearing men's shouts. What new horrors did this nightmare hold for her?

"Sandra!"

She heard her father's joyous shout just before she lost consciousness.

Beware of False Economy

The most damaging substitute for economy is that form of penny pinching which allows valuable property to be destroyed by lack of maintenance.

Such economy is not economy at all but the most expensive luxury. A shingle which costs only a few cents to replace can cause damage in hundreds of dollars. A dry gravel road which can be saved at low cost will grind up and blow away unless steps are taken to hold expensive surface material.

The least expensive and most satisfactory method of protecting our highway investment of millions is to hold road surfaces with Dowflake Calcium Chloride.

To do without this modern maintenance material is to permit waste of one of our greatest and most useful public investments, our valuable highways. Waste of surface material necessitates replacement at high cost. Support your highway officials in their attempt to preserve your investment by authorizing ample supplies of Dowflake Calcium Chloride, which prevents dust and holds road surfaces.

The city manager was also asked to prepare estimates of the cost of improving Seventh Avenue south for one block from Bay street to Tenth street. Property owners on that street have been asking that it be paved.

The city council decided last night that "this is no time" for establishing a municipal recreation department, after reading a communication from the Women's Athletic association, which requested that Miss Zania Rivers be oppointed by the city council as the official supervisor of the playgrounds and beach of the city.

The following beer license applications were approved last night: Owen Gallagher, 1408 Ludington street; Elks Club, Escanaba Fruit Store, George Coplan, 300 South Tenth street; and Frank Hess, restaurant, 1004 Ludington street.

Councilmen reported at the meeting last night that they have been receiving several complaints of automobile speeders on Escanaba streets. A police campaign against speeding, made effective by the arrest of traffic law violators, was suggested by the council.

Zoning Ordinance

Upon its final reading, the council adopted zoning ordinance No. 81 calling for the destignation as a Class C zoning district the territory, described as follows:

Commencing at the intersection of South Nineteenth Street, with the alley running between Ludington Street and First Avenue South, thence Easterly through said alley to the West line of South Thirteenth Street, thence South along said West line to the North line of the alley, running East and West between First Avenue South and Second Avenue South, thence westerly along the North line of said alley to a point where said alley intersects with the East line of South Fifteenth Street, thence North fifty (50)feet, thence westerly at right angles to the East line of Nineteenth Street, thence north along said East line of South Nineteenth Street to the place of beginning.

Washington News Column

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington.—The morale of government employes probably is lower than it ever was before.

These hundreds of thousands of workers, widely regarded as a privileged class and often called "parasites" by the cheap demagogues of Congress, are no longer to be envied. They haven't yet shared proportionately the misery of the mass of wage earners employed by private business, but they have been going through a miserable period in which everything is uncertain except for the certainty that things are going to get worse.

At a time when President Roosevelt himself has urged wage increases on private industry, a large proportion of them face the likelihood of a 40 per cent reduction of income if they are lucky enough not to lose their jobs. And Washington isn't such a relatively happy place to live in as it used to be. Nervousness, which sometimes approaches hysteria, is in the air.

Four Worries

These are the chief causes of worry:

1. The Roosevelt economy program, if carried through, means that a lot of people are going to lose their jobs—nobody can guess who—or that, as made possible under a bill just passed the House, much larger numbers will be furloughed for 90 days without pay.

2. No one has any idea what will happen—or to whom—under the much press-agented government reorganization program, which is tied up with the economy drive. The administration has delayed announcement of its plans because it has found reorganization much more difficult than had been expected.

3. The patronage bosses of the Democratic party would like to give out as many jobs to their clamoring hordes as they can. There's a definite attempt to break down at least a part of the civil service system by which federal employes have considered themselves protected. About 130,000 small jobs are not under civil service in addition to the higher posts—most of which would go to Democrats in any event. Those jobs have always been considered "safe," but their occupants are worrying now. And there are several thousand more highly-paid employes brought under civil service during the Hoover administration. Many Democrats favor taking those jobs for their own folks, although such procedure if repeated from administration to administration definitely would stop the progress of civil service.

4. Any employe of more than 30 years' service may, under the independent offices bill passed by the House, be retired at the discretion of his department or bureau head on an annuity running from $900 to $1200 a year. Some of the government's most valuable employes are now worrying over the possibility that they may suddenly lose their jobs and be reduced to a bare level of subsistence.

Cut Already Taken

Federal employes have already taken a 15 per cent pay cut—a reduction which may be lessened whenever the president finds that the cost of living has come within 15 per cents of its 1928 average. (He is required by Congress to investigate and act on that point every six months, which does give the federal employe a protection against inflation.)

The employes took the 15 per cent cut without protest, but the 90-day furlough proposal has them up in the air. That would mean 40 per cent less income. The department and bureau heads would be authorized by Congress, if the Senate now approves, to impose the furlough when they think it best.

Yet the administration feels itself bound to make a 25 per cent cut in federal expenses and has the power to do so. Only half that reduction has been achieved by slash of veteran compensation and federal salaries. Nearly all the rest must come from federal employes.

Ash and Garbage Pickups Starting; Must Cover Cans

Because of the fact that there has always been more or less misunderstanding as to garbage collections in Escanaba, the city engineer's office is again calling attention to the regulations as to what constitutes garbage and what will be handled by the city garbage trucks.

In the first place, garbage must be placed in containers, and all containers must have tight covers. These containers must not be larger than can be handled by one man for loading on a truck, and should be placed near the alley in a convenient place near the alley line which will be readily visible and accessible to the garbage collector. All garbage should be wrapped in paper to reduce the nuisance from odor and lessen the tendency for attracting flies. Only garbage in cans will be picked up, and by garbage is meant only waste from the kitchen. Lawn cuttings, tree prunings, yard cleanings and old plaster will not be handled by the garbage trucks.

Due to the fact that the city is carrying on the ash-pile cleanup without hiring additional equipment, the ash collections this spring are necessarily slowed up somewhat, but are proceeding satisfactorily, with the alleys in the Ludington street area getting first attention.

the darkness. She heard a muffled report. She watched fascinated, the struggling figures.

James turned his head sharply. "Get out of here," he barked. "Run for your life. And if you tell about this night—if you get Hetty into trouble—you'll be sorry for it, that's all."

Sandra ran, stumbling in the ruts, almost sobbing. Briers tore her thin stockings and once she fell into a pool of ooze, sinking to her ankles.

At last she reached the main road, a bedraggled figure. Which way to turn? She did not know, so took the right, hoping it led toward home. Her thin shoes were hopelessly inadequate. Her body felt as if it had been beaten.

Several cars passed, their lights almost blinding her. Her breath was torn from her now in gusty sobs, every one burning her parched throat. On and on she stumbled along this road that seemingly had no turning.

At last she heard the purr of a motor going in the same direction. She was frightened rather than relieved, hearing men's shouts. What new horrors did this nightmare hold for her?

"Sandra!"

She heard her father's joyous shout just before she lost consciousness.

Beware of False Economy

The most damaging substitute for economy is that form of penny pinching which allows valuable property to be destroyed by lack of maintenance.

Such economy is not economy at all but the most expensive luxury. A shingle which costs only a few cents to replace can cause damage in hundreds of dollars. A dry gravel road which can be saved at low cost will grind up and blow away unless steps are taken to hold expensive surface material.

The least expensive and most satisfactory method of protecting our highway investment of millions is to hold road surfaces with Dowflake Calcium Chloride.

To do without this modern maintenance material is to permit waste of one of our greatest and most useful public investments, our valuable highways. Waste of surface material necessitates replacement at high cost. Support your highway officials in their attempt to preserve your investment by authorizing ample supplies of Dowflake Calcium Chloride, which prevents dust and holds road surfaces.

Today's Recipe

Raisin Sauce

One-half cup seedless raisins, ¼ cup blanched and shredded almonds, 2 tablespoons grated horseradish, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1½ cups water, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon brown sugar.

Melt butter and when bubbling stir in flour and continue to cook and stir until bubbly. Add salt, pepper and brown sugar and slowly add water, stirring constantly. Add raisins and bring to the boiling point. Add lemon juice, horseradish and almonds and bring to the boiling point but do not let boil.

District Meeting Is Postponed

Announcement was received Thursday by Mrs. Frank Priem of this city that the upper peninsula district convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society which was to have been held in Norway June 1 and 2, has been postponed because of economic conditions in the peninsula district. Church Events

Christian Science Churches

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 21.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (II Cor. 5:16): "Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 359): "The evidence of the existence of Spirit, Soul, is palpable only to spiritual sense, and is not apparent to the material senses, which cognize only that which is the opposite of Spirit."

St. Anne's Unit Meeting Closes Successful Year

St. Anne's Parent-Teacher association closed a successful year, with an enjoyable meeting, attended by a large crowd, Wednesday evening at the parish hall.

Mrs. Tom Tousignant, president of the unit, opened the meeting, and then turned it over the program chairman, Mrs. Joseph Osier.

The entertainment of the evening included numbers, well played, by St. Anne's senior orchestra, and a pleasing entertainment by the seventh graders of the school. The entertainment was arranged under the supervision of the seventh grade teacher, Sister Mary Therese, who is the oldest teacher in point of service in the Parent-Teacher work, one of the charter members of the unit, and who is St. Anne's association honorary president.

A gift was presented the Sisters of the St. Anne school, in appreciation of their splendid cooperation in Parent-Teacher work, Marcella Tousignant making the presentation.

Rev. Msgr. R. G. Jacques, V. G., replying for the school and its faculty, praised the wonderful spirit of cooperation which has made possible the success of the Parent-Teacher unit, and which has been instrumental in the association securing its high rating.

Msgr. Jacques, presenting the sixth and seventh graders, eligible, with reading certificates, also spoke on the need of close supervision of reading of children and of the value of good books.

At the business meeting Mrs. Tousignant reported on the letter received advising the unit of its superior rating, and spoke in appreciation of the work of individual members, expressing the hope that the coming year will be as successful as the year just closed.

Plans were announced for the meeting of all units of the city to be held in June, at which the Mother Singers, now being organized under the direction of Mrs. N. A. Wilson, will appear, and those who wish to take part in the singing program were asked to notify the unit president. Announcement was also made of plans for a banquet honoring the eighth graders, members of St. Anne's graduating class, which will be served by the Parent-Teacher association in June. Complete arrangements for this will be made known later.

The attendance award was presented the seventh grade.

Miss Margaret Pease, Miss Fern Fontanna, Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, Mrs. Walter H. Dickson and Mrs. R. W. Haddock are returning today or Saturday from Detroit where they motored to attend the state convention of the P. E. O. Sisterhood. All five are members of Chapter Z of this city.

Miss Stella Beidelman of Norway motored here Thursday and is the guest of Mrs. Margaret Lemmer, 309 South Seventh street, and other friends.

Neville L. Hart, who completed his accountant's course at Ferris institute in March, is in Big Rapids, Mich., where Thursday evening he received his diploma at commencement at Ferris.

Today's Recipe

Raisin Sauce

One-half cup seedless raisins, ¼ cup blanched and shredded almonds, 2 tablespoons grated horseradish, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1½ cups water, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon brown sugar.

Melt butter and when bubbling stir in flour and continue to cook and stir until bubbly. Add salt, pepper and brown sugar and slowly add water, stirring constantly. Add raisins and bring to the boiling point. Add lemon juice, horseradish and almonds and bring to the boiling point but do not let boil.

District Meeting Is Postponed

Announcement was received Thursday by Mrs. Frank Priem of this city that the upper peninsula district convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society which was to have been held in Norway June 1 and 2, has been postponed because of economic conditions in the peninsula district. Mrs. Priem is corresponding secretary of the Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city.

Church Events

Christian Science Churches

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 21.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (II Cor. 5:16): "Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 359): "The evidence of the existence of Spirit, Soul, is palpable only to spiritual sense, and is not apparent to the material senses, which cognize only that which is the opposite of Spirit."

St. Anne's Unit Meeting Closes Successful Year

St. Anne's Parent-Teacher association closed a successful year, with an enjoyable meeting, attended by a large crowd, Wednesday evening at the parish hall.

Mrs. Tom Tousignant, president of the unit, opened the meeting, and then turned it over the program chairman, Mrs. Joseph Osier.

The entertainment of the evening included numbers, well played, by St. Anne's senior orchestra, and a pleasing entertainment by the seventh graders of the school. The entertainment was arranged under the supervision of the seventh grade teacher, Sister Mary Therese, who is the oldest teacher in point of service in the Parent-Teacher work, one of the charter members of the unit, and who is St. Anne's association honorary president.

A gift was presented the Sisters of the St. Anne school, in appreciation of their splendid cooperation in Parent-Teacher work, Marcella Tousignant making the presentation.

Rev. Msgr. R. G. Jacques, V. G., replying for the school and its faculty, praised the wonderful spirit of cooperation which has made possible the success of the Parent-Teacher unit, and which has been instrumental in the association securing its high rating.

Msgr. Jacques, presenting the sixth and seventh graders, eligible, with reading certificates, also spoke on the need of close supervision of reading of children and of the value of good books.

At the business meeting Mrs. Tousignant reported on the letter received advising the unit of its superior rating, and spoke in appreciation of the work of individual members, expressing the hope that the coming year will be as successful as the year just closed.

Plans were announced for the meeting of all units of the city to be held in June, at which the Mother Singers, now being organized under the direction of Mrs. N. A. Wilson, will appear, and those who wish to take part in the singing program were asked to notify the unit president. Announcement was also made of plans for a banquet honoring the eighth graders, members of St. Anne's graduating class, which will be served by the Parent-Teacher association in June. Complete arrangements for this will be made known later.

The attendance award was presented the seventh grade.

TITLE BIRLING EVENT PLANNED

Girard Willing to Compete for Championship at World Fair

Probability that world championship log rolling contests will be conducted during the Century of Progress at Chicago this summer, is revealed in a communication received here by William F. "Billy" Girard from J. Lyman Bingham, secretary of the committee on sports.

Girard has dominated the fancy log birling field for years and still holds the national title in this branch of the sport. He is also a former holder of the straight birling title.

The committee in charge is desirous of including birling in the program of sports, but desire to conduct the event on competitive lines and make it a contest for the official championship of the world.

The majority of the offers received thus far by the committee in charge are from men wishing to put on exhibitions at stated salary for the duration of the World Fair.

Girard has signified his willingness to enter a competitive event should it be staged, and will defend his present title as well as attempt to regain the straight birling championship.

59 ADDED TO ALUMNI RANKS

Graduation of School's Largest Class Closes Commencement

Fifty-nine students were added to the ever-growing ranks of alumni at graduation exercises held last night in the Gladstone high school auditorium. The exercise was the finale of the 41st annual commencement and marked the completion of high school life for the largest class ever to be graduated from the local institution.

Twenty-five of the number successfully completed college preparatory courses, 15 finished commercial courses, while the remaining 19 had pursued general work. The candidates were presented for graduation by Prin. C. C. Strickland and were awarded their diplomas by Mrs. John Murdock president of the local board of education.

Dr. Glen A. Blackburn of the department of history, Northern State Teachers college, Marquette, was the commencement speaker. He used as his subject, "The Golden Fleece" and his address proved highly educational and inspiring.

The academic procession of capped and gowned graduates, which opened the exercise, was impressive, and when the students were seated the invocation was delivered by Rev. N. Werner Nelson, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Christiansen's "Beautiful Savior," sung by the high school mixed chorus added much to the occasion as did the Carrie Jacobs-Bond's beautiful "Perfect Day," played by the school string trio following the commencement address.

Following awarding of diplomas, benediction was pronounced by Rev. N. Nelson.

The Graduates

Following are the names of the graduates according to the course of study which they completed:

Sepic, Robert Slining, Nicholas Stemac, Joseph Vargo, Jake Warner, Mary Watson, and William Welch.

Rifle Club Seeks City Approval In Setting Up Range

Permission to conduct a rifle and pistol range on the bluff within the city limits has been requested by the Gladstone Rifle and Pistol club from the city commission.

The application received at the city office asks official approval of the establishing of a shooting range on the NW¼ of the SE¼ of Section 17, T40, R22W, of the city of Gladstone.

The application was referred to Mayor Peter Peterson for consideration and action in accordance with provisions of a city ordinance which authorizes the mayor to issue such permits.

Miss Loretta Morin returned to her home in Perkins yesterday morning following a brief visit here at the George LaRoche, Jr., home as the guest of Miss Leurina LaRoche.

Mother Of Local Pastor Is Claimed

Word has been received here of the death at West Bend, Wis., of the mother of Rev. Theophil Hoffmann, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Mrs. Hoffmann had been seriously ill during the past week but had rallied and was believed to have been on the way to recovery. No details were contained in the message received here. Rev. Hoffmann, accompanied by his family, will leave this morning for West Bend to attend the funeral.

Late W. T. S. Cornell Praised By Wiggins

Appreciation of the fine service of the late William Tecumseh Sherman Cornell, respected local educator was received here by Mrs. W. T. S. Cornell in a letter from Professor C. C. Wiggins, of Northern State Teachers college. Fine tribute was also paid to Mr. Cornell recently by Webster H. Pearce, state superintendent of public instruction. Professor Wiggin's letter is as follows:

Deep is the feeling of the personal loss when a good and valiant soul passes to the Great Beyond. Those left behind are said to mourn but mourning is a futile enterprise. Mourners are uncompanionable. The mind of the mourner is disintegrated. His mental health is nil. There is much evidence in the world that Mother Nature repudiates the morose and melancholy. We grieve for ourselves. "Ye that mourn, let gladness mingle with your tears."

Fecund nature begets and squanders human life with a prodigal hand. May we rejoice that not all human units are worthless. Here and there one appears who gives to life more than he takes from it. Such a man was W. T. S. Cornell. His contribution was immeasurable, intangible — the kind that can not be counted. President Burton of the University of Michigan said, "The things that count in life cannot be counted."

Influence can be measured only by the yard-stick of infinity. And the hundreds of young people not in Schoolcraft county alone, where Mr. Cornell was commissioner for 27 years and taught for 16 years, but throughout the entire state of Michigan will testify to his rare ability as a teacher. Some spend their life teaching. Teaching was His Life.

Wherever he met men and women, boys and girls he was instructing them. Upon the day preceding his demise he was demonstrating to rural schools the Babcock Milk Tester. He died in the harness.

The writer well remembers two of the many memory gems with which his active mind was stored.

"I'd like to think when death is near, that in my children I shall live,
No monument of stone could give me greater glory, year by year,
Than sons and daughters treading on in truth and honor when I'm gone.
Who leaves a stalwart son, a noble daughter sweet and pure
Hath monuments that long endure;
He needs no staff to prove his worth.
The luster of his children's deeds
Is all the monument he needs."

And another:
"I would be true for there are those who trust me.
I would be pure for there are those who care.
I would be strong for there is much to suffer.
I would be brave for there is much to dare.
I would be friend to all, the foe,
the friendless.
I would be giving and forget the gift.
I would be humble for I know my weakness.
I would look up and laugh and love and lift."

These he recited to me along with many others as we drove to the various schools to visit.

Truly, Mr. Cornell was of the aristocracy of "fine minds."

If the principal ingredient in a successful school man is sympathy Mr. Cornell was thrice blessed in this respect. He was counselor and friend to all. The constructive work he did as county agent can not be measured by mortal man any more than his exceptional influence among his teachers and pupils.

The public has lost a servant whose example is something over which to rejoice. If all those who hold office, and are entrusted with public funds, would be as conscientious and careful as W. T. S. Cornell, the taxpayer could pay his taxes; the banks would be safe and sound and business would advertise itself by its own integrity.

William Tecumseh Sherman Cornell, somewhere, sometime in some way the Office Holder will catch the inspiration of your public service! Your life was an inspiration and your memory is a benediction.

Sincerely,
C. C. Wiggins
Northern State Teachers college
Marquette Michigan.

County Clerk Has Marriage License Issued To Himself

G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk, and Miss Lydia Kroeger are stealing a march on their many friends, unless appearances greatly belie themselves.

Mr Bouschor left the city on Tuesday apparently on a business trip to the lower peninsula and it was only yesterday noon that it was discovered that he had issued a marriage license to himself. That added to the fact that Miss Kroeger is also out of the city, establishes circumstantial evidence to the current rumors that the popular young couple will enter the bonds of matrimony before their return here.

Mr Bouschor has held the county clerkship for the past six years and at the time of his election had the honor of being the youngest county clerk in the state of Michigan. Miss Kroeger for a number of years has been employed in the office of the Inland Lime and Stone Co.

Both young people have a wide acquaintanceship and their many friends are eagerly awaiting their return to the city.

Lloyd E. Auld Dies In Milwaukee, Wis.

Word was received here of the death of Lloyd E. Auld, first mate on the government lighthouse tender, Sumac who passed away at five o'clock Tuesday morning in Milwaukee, Wis., after having been in ill health during the past winter. Mr. Auld was united in marriage to Miss Sylvia Krause, of this city, several years ago. He is also a brother-in-law of Mrs. Irma Brown and Herbert Krause, both of this city.

Mrs. Brown left for Milwaukee Wednesday evening to attend funeral services which are expected to be held there today.

Packed Gym Sees Exhibition Wedn'day

One of the best gymnasium exhibitions ever staged here was witnessed by a record crowd Wednesday evening when high school physical education students gave a splendid exhibition of calisthenics, marches, dances, and apparatus work. Approximately 258 students took part in the annual event demonstrating the type of work being given to students in physical education.

The exhibition was under the direction of Mrs. W. B. Orr and Oscar E. Wassberg, gymnastic instructors.

A delegation from the local order of the Lady Maccabees attended the convention held yesterday in Escanaba.

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. Irma Brown left Wednesday evening for Milwaukee where she was called by the death of her brother-in-law, Lloyd E. Auld. Mrs. Brown will be gone several days.

Miss Adelle Cooper, who has been nursing at Galion, Ohio, for the past five years, is spending an indefinite time in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooper, Garden avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Backwell, of Chicago, who have been visiting in the city with Mr. Backwell's mother, Mrs. Christina Backwell, and with Mr. and Mrs. John Falk, left Wednesday for their home.

Mrs. Anton Weber, Mrs. Ray Besner, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. Alex Richards, Mrs. Frank Paquette, Miss Rose Mercier, Mrs. Agnes Crilly, Mrs. V. Cournaya and Mrs. A. Houghton were among the members from the local court to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Catholic Order of the Foresters at Escanaba Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hughson, of Minneapolis, arrived in the city yesterday morning to spend several days with Mr. Hughson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hughson, 112 South Second street.

Celebrates Birthday

In celebration of her eighth birthday anniversary, Siri Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olson, entertained eight of her friends at her home Tuesday afternoon.

The children played games during the afternoon and a delightful birthday luncheon concluded the party. A pink and white color scheme was prettily carried out in the table decorations and a large lighted birthday cake, following the same color scheme, formed the center piece.

Begin Tearing Down Old Charcoal Iron Company Dwellings

Work on tearing down seven dilapidated duplex houses on North Maple avenue, formerly the property of the Charcoal Iron company, is now in progress under the direction of Walter Moon, secretary of the Schoolcraft county poor commission. The houses are one of the worst "eye sores" in the city. All of the good material will be salvaged and the premises cleaned and put into good condition.

Steps on the project were taken by Mr. Moon who received permission from P. S. Hamilton, manager of the Newberry Lumber & Chemical company. The land will be deeded to the city. City and county taxes on the property have been canceled and state taxes amounting to approximately $60 will be largely paid for through the salvage obtained.

Fine Beautification Project Underway Next To City Hall

A fine example of what can be done toward the beautification of vacant lots is springing into evidence in the form of a miniature park on the plot of ground between the city hall and Cookson & Leroy Hardware store along River street. Plans call for the seeding of a fine lawn in the forepart facing the street with flower beds in the rear and a cedar hedge along the rear boundary. A neat semi-circular flagstone walk will run through the center of the plot, dividing the lawn proper from the flower beds and a small fountain will adorn the center.

The lot has already been plowed up and leveled in preparation for seeding and small cedars are being planted under the direction of Leonard Walters, landscape architect. Much of the work is being done by the county poor commission.

The idea was conceived by Fire Chief and Mrs. Charles Underwood through whose efforts the work is being accomplished. The plot will be cared for by members of the fire department.

Mrs. Maude Baker is able to be around after being confined at her home for ten weeks with illness.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Through the efforts of the conservation committee of the Manistique Woman's club, headed by Mrs. Harry Eriksen, the huge stone memorial dedicated to Schoolcraft county soldiers and sailors who lost their lives in the World War, is being erected in the city plot of ground along Maple avenue directly opposite the Legion Memorial cottage. The memorial was moved from Lake Shore park.

The plot is being put into fine condition with labor provided by the county poor commission. Landscaping is being done by E. H. Branch, local florist. The new project is expected to be completed in time for Memorial Day and will be one of the beauty spots of the city.

TITLE BIRLING EVENT PLANNED

Girard Willing to Compete for Championship at World Fair

Probability that world championship log rolling contests will be conducted during the Century of Progress at Chicago this summer, is revealed in a communication received here by William F. "Billy" Girard from J. Lyman Bingham, secretary of the committee on sports.

Girard has dominated the fancy log birling field for years and still holds the national title in this branch of the sport. He is also a former holder of the straight birling title.

The committee in charge is desirous of including birling in the program of sports, but desire to conduct the event on competitive lines and make it a contest for the official championship of the world.

The majority of the offers received thus far by the committee in charge are from men wishing to put on exhibitions at stated salary for the duration of the World Fair.

Girard has signified his willingness to enter a competitive event should it be staged, and will defend his present title as well as attempt to regain the straight birling championship.

59 ADDED TO ALUMNI RANKS

Graduation of School's Largest Class Closes Commencement

Fifty-nine students were added to the ever-growing ranks of alumni at graduation exercises held last night in the Gladstone high school auditorium. The exercise was the finale of the 41st annual commencement and marked the completion of high school life for the largest class ever to be graduated from the local institution.

Twenty-five of the number successfully completed college preparatory courses, 15 finished commercial courses, while the remaining 19 had pursued general work. The candidates were presented for graduation by Prin. C. C. Strickland and were awarded their diplomas by Mrs. John Murdock, president of the local board of education.

Dr. Glen A. Blackburn of the department of history, Northern State Teachers college, Marquette, was the commencement speaker. He used as his subject, "The Golden Fleece" and his address proved highly educational and inspiring.

The academic procession of capped and gowned graduates, which opened the exercise, was impressive, and when the students were seated the invocation was delivered by Rev. N. Werner Nelson, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Christiansen's "Beautiful Savior," sung by the high school mixed chorus added much to the occasion as did the Carrie Jacobs-Bond's beautiful "Perfect Day," played by the school string trio following the commencement address.

Following awarding of diplomas, benediction was pronounced by Rev. Nelson.

The Graduates

Following are the names of the graduates according to the course of study which they completed:

College Preparatory — Ellen Bazinet, Wave Bezner, Donald Buckmaster, Lester Carter, James Damitz, Charles Dehlin, William H. Frank, Bertil Froberg, Donald Germaine, Harry Goodman, Ruth Laidlaw, William Larson, Elizabeth Lewis, Edward Murphy, Harvey Norton, Laurence Oak, Alice Olson, Betty Pettit, William F. Sepic, Robert Slining, Nicholas Stemac, Joseph Vargo, Jane Warner, Mary Watson, and William Wright.

Rifle Club Seeks City Approval In Setting Up Range

Permission to conduct a rifle and pistol range on the bluff within the city limits has been requested by the Gladstone Rifle and Pistol club from the city commission.

The application received at the city office asks official approval of the establishing of a shooting range on the NW¼ of the SE¼ of Section 17, T40, R22W, of the city of Gladstone.

The application was referred to Mayor Peter Peterson for consideration and action in accordance with provisions of a city ordinance which authorizes the mayor to issue such permits.

Miss Loretta Morin returned to her home in Perkins yesterday morning following a brief visit here at the George LaRoche, Jr., home as the guest of Miss Leurina LaRoche.

Mrs. Denis McCarthy and daughters, Florence, Etta, and Margaret, are expected to arrive Saturday from Ishpeming to spend the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dunsmore.

Mrs. J. D. Staple, Mrs. E. A. D'Amour, Mrs. J. D. McDonald, Miss Maurie McDonald, Mrs. Margaret Kanney, Mrs. E. A. Erickson, and Mrs. A. H. Miller motored to Iron Mountain Wednesday where they attended the convention of the Upper Peninsula Federation of Woman's clubs. At the Wednesday session Mrs. D'Amour, president of the Child's Welfare club, read the welfare report. Mrs. McDonald, vice-director of the federation in this district, was a delegate and remained for the Thursday session.

Mrs. Joseph Beauchamp, of Escanaba, and Mrs. Thibeault, of Manistique, visited yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Estenson enroute to Manistique. Mrs. Thibeault has been visiting in Escanaba with Mrs. Beauchamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Johnson were down from Perkins yesterday and visited here with their daughter, Mrs. Ed Johnson.

Joseph Devet, Sr., motored to Manistique Monday where he spent the day with his nephew, Joseph Miller.

Mother Of Local Pastor Is Claimed

Word has been received here of the death at West Bend, Wis., of the mother of Rev. Theophil Hoffmann, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Mrs. Hoffmann had been seriously ill during the past week but had rallied and was believed to have been on the way to recovery. No details were contained in the message received here. Rev. Hoffmann, accompanied by his family, will leave this morning for West Bend to attend the funeral.

Late W. T. S. Cornell Praised By Wiggins

Appreciation of the fine service of the late William Tecumseh Sherman Cornell, respected local educator, was received here by Mrs. W. T. S. Cornell in a letter from Professor C. C. Wiggins, of Northern State Teachers' college. Fine tribute was also paid to Mr. Cornell recently by Webster H. Pearce, state superintendent of public instruction. Professor Wiggin's letter is as follows:

Deep is the feeling of the personal loss when a good and valiant soul passes to the Great Beyond. Those left behind are said to mourn but mourning is a futile enterprise. Mourners are uncompanionable. The mind of the mourner is disintegrated. His mental health is nil. There is much evidence in the world that Mother Nature repudiates the morose and melancholy. We grieve for ourselves. "Ye that mourn, let gladness mingle with your tears."

Fecund nature begets and squanders human life with a prodigal hand. May we rejoice that not all human units are worthless. Here and there one appears who gives to life more than he takes from it. Such a man was W. T. S. Cornell. His contribution was immeasurable, intangible—the kind that can not be counted. President Burton of the University of Michigan said, "The things that count in life cannot be counted."

Influence can be measured only by the yard-stick of infinity. And the hundreds of young people not in Schoolcraft county alone, where Mr. Cornell was commissioner for 27 years and taught for 46 years, but throughout the entire state of Michigan will testify to his rare ability as a teacher. Some spend their life teaching. Teaching was His Life.

Wherever he met men and women, boys and girls he was instructing them. Upon the day preceding his demise he was demonstrating to rural schools the Babcock Milk Tester. He died in the harness.

The writer well remembers two of the many memory gems with which his active mind was stored.

"I'd like to think when death is near, that in my children I shall live;
No monument of stone could give me greater glory, year by year,
Than sons and daughters treading on in truth and honor when I'm gone.
Who leaves a stalwart son, a noble daughter sweet and pure
Hath monuments that long endure;
He needs no staff to prove his worth.
The luster of his children's deeds
Is all the monument he needs."

And another:

"I would be true for there are those who trust me.
I would be pure for there are those who care;
I would be strong for there is much to suffer,
I would be brave for there is much to dare.
I would be friend to all, the foe, the friendless,
I would be giving and forget the gift.
I would be humble for I know my weakness,
I would look up and laugh and love and lift.

These he recited to me along with many others as we drove to the various schools to visit.

Truly, Mr. Cornell was of the aristocracy of "fine minds."

If the principal ingredient in a successful school man is sympathy Mr. Cornell was thrice blessed in this respect. He was counselor and friend to all. The constructive work he did as county agent can not be measured by mortal man any more than his exceptional influence among his teachers and pupils.

The public has lost a servant whose example is something over which to rejoice. If all those who hold office, and are entrusted with public funds, would be as conscientious and careful as W. T. S. Cornell, the taxpayer could pay his taxes; the banks would be safe and sound and business would advertise itself by its own integrity.

William Tecumseh Sherman Cornell, somewhere, sometime in some way the Office Holder will catch the inspiration of your public service! Your life was an inspiration and your memory is a benediction.

Sincerely,
C. C. Wiggins

County Clerk Has Marriage License Issued To Himself

G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk, and Miss Lydia Kroeger are stealing a march on their many friends, unless appearances greatly belie themselves.

Mr. Bouschor left the city on Tuesday apparently on a business trip to the lower peninsula and it was only yesterday noon that it was discovered that he had issued a marriage license to himself. That added to the fact that Miss Kroeger is also out of the city, establishes circumstantial evidence to the current rumors that the popular young couple will enter the bonds of matrimony before their return here.

Mr. Bouschor has held the county clerkship for the past six years and at the time of his election had the honor of being the youngest county clerk in the state of Michigan. Miss Kroeger for a number of years has been employed in the office of the Inland Lime and Stone Co.

Both young people have a wide acquaintanceship and their many friends are eagerly awaiting their return to the city.

Lloyd E. Auld Dies In Milwaukee, Wis.

Word was received here of the death of Lloyd E. Auld, first mate on the government lighthouse tender, Sumac, who passed away at five o'clock Tuesday morning in Milwaukee, Wis., after having been in ill health during the past winter. Mr. Auld was united in marriage to Miss Sylvia Krause, of this city, several years ago. He is also a brother-in-law of Mrs. Irma Brown and Herbert Krause, both of this city.

Mrs. Brown left for Milwaukee Wednesday evening to attend funeral services which are expected to be held there today.

Packed Gym Sees Exhibition Wedn'day

One of the best gymnasium exhibitions ever staged here was witnessed by a record crowd Wednesday evening when high school physical education students gave a splendid exhibition of calisthenics, marches, dances, and apparatus work. Approximately 258 students took part in the annual event demonstrating the type of work being given to students in physical education.

The exhibition was under the direction of Mrs. W. B. Orr and Oscar E. Wassberg, gymnastic instructors.

A delegation from the local order of the Lady Maccabees attended the convention held yesterday in Escanaba.

CITY BRIEFS

Mrs. Irma Brown left Wednesday evening for Milwaukee where she was called by the death of her brother-in-law, Lloyd E. Auld. Mrs. Brown will be gone several days.

Miss Adeile Cooper, who has been nursing at Galion, Ohio, for the past five years, is spending an indefinite time in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooper, Garden avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Backwell, of Chicago, who have been visiting in the city with Mr. Backwell's mother, Mrs. Christina Backwell, and with Mr. and Mrs. John Falk, left Wednesday for their home.

Mrs. Anton Weber, Mrs. Ray Besner, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. Alex Richards, Mrs. Frank Paquette, Miss Rose Mercier, Mrs. Agnes Crilly, Mrs. V. Cournaya and Mrs. A. Houghton were among the members from the local court to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Catholic Order of the Foresters at Escanaba Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hughson, of Minneapolis, arrived in the city yesterday morning to spend several days with Mr. Hughson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hughson, 112 South Second street.

x—New 1933 high.
xx—Previous 1933 high.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 18 (AP)—Stocks wobbled today, although rail shares endeavored to carry the price level higher. Wheat, corn and cotton softened, but bonds, with the exception of small declines in the U. S. government division, firmed and their Standard Statistics-Associated Press composite went to a new 1933 high.

Carrier equities also finished at a new average peak for the year, industrials and utilities, however, closed irregularly lower. The market ran into a squall of selling at the start of the last hour, then rallied with considerable virility after declaration of a regular quarterly dividend by United Corp. Safety of which payment had been questioned in some brokerage quarters.

Rail Issues Stronger

Steel, farm implement, utility and the recently buoyant "wet" stocks tended lower as profits were accepted. Net losses ranged from fractions to more than a point for U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, National Steel, Case, Harvester, Consolidated Gas, North American, Western Union, Owens-Illinois, National Distillers, Crown Cork and U. S. Industrial Alcohol. American Telephone, down 2 at the worst, closed with a small gain.

Rails derived considerable support from forecasts that car loadings last week had exceeded those of the corresponding 1932 period. Wall Street was pleased by the increasing traffic on eastern lines, which had previously been lagging under a year ago, taking this to mean that manufactured goods were being moved in larger volume. Extreme gains for the carriers ranged from 1 to 4 points.

Discussion as to what taxes are to be levied to carry the big expenditure which the government is planning for its public works-industrial control program naturally drew wide attention and the final decision is being awaited eagerly. It was noted that some congressional leaders were predicting there would be no sales tax.

Snapback In Final Hour Aids Curb To Regain Is Losses

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
(Associated Press Financial Editor)

New York, May 18 (AP)—The curb market snapped back in the final minutes of trading today to erase most of the worst effects of a rather sharp reaction that set in at the beginning of the final hour. Considerable irregularity was evident throughout the session.

Utilities, a bit heavy during the forenoon, closed narrowly irregular. American Gas & Electric was firmed a major fraction. Electric Bond and Share was off almost 2 points in the late selling but came back sharply in the final upturn to cancel all but a minor part of the loss.

Aluminum Co., among the industrials also rebounded smartly at the finish, to almost erase a sag of nearly 2. Deere & Co. and Technicolor were off major fractions while Pepperell sagged 2 points. Demand appeared for Hazel Atlas Glass and Swift & Co., each advancing for net gains of around 2½ points.

Oils were quiet most of the day and closed slightly higher. Mining shares improved fractionally while investment holding corporations were barely steady. Cord Corp. dipped a half point. Transfers totaled 528,000 shares against a total of 612,000 yesterday.

MONEY RATES

New York, May 18. Call money, steady, 1 percent all day.

Time loans steady, 30 to 60 days, 3-4 to 1; 3 to 4 months, 1 to 1½; 5 to 6 months, 1 to 1½ percent.

Prime commercial paper 1 3-4.

Bankers' acceptances unchanged.

MINNEAPOLIS GRAIN

Minneapolis, May 18. Wheat, No. 1 northern, 72 3-4 to 73 3-4; No. 1 red durum, 64 3-4; May, 70½; July, 70 3-4; September, 70½.

Corn, No. 3 yellow, 38 to 39½.

Oats, No. 3 white, 22 3-8 to 7-8.

Flax, No. 1, 1.40¼ to 1.43¼.

Flour unchanged. Shipments, 21,586. Pure bran, 12.50 to 13.00.

Skin's Air Pockets Fight "Raw" Feeling

London (AP)—The "raw" feeling in cold, moist weather is due to the atmosphere getting closer to the skin.

A microscope reveals this, says W. A. Osborne of the University of Melbourne in "Nature." The microscope shows the skin partly insulated against weather changes by a layer of tiny air pockets embedded in its surface.

When the atmosphere is heavy with moisture these pockets contract, expelling some of the protecting air layer.

Birmingham has a greater proportion of licensed vehicles than any other British city, and also holds the record for the highest

BY VICTOR EUBANK
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 18 (AP)—Although the bond market was somewhat jumbled today, as profit takers became quite active in a number of the recent speculative favorites, prices generally managed to emerge a trifle higher.

The average for 60 domestic corporate loans edged up one-tenth of a point to 73.2, another new high mark for the year. Sales totaled $15,509,000, par value.

While some industrial specialties were taken in hand for substantial advances, and the higher grade utilities steadied, the rails were barely able to hold their own under realizing pressure. At the same time United States government securities continued to lag and foreign obligations, especially those of Germany, were highly irregular.

Industrials Gain

The more active industrial gainers of fractions to 2 or more points included issues of American Ice, California Petroleum, Certainteed, General Cable, Goodrich, International Cement, National Steel, Philadelphia Reading Coal & Iron, Purity Bakeries and Hudson Coal.

Losers of fractions to a point or more in the various classes included some loans of Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake Corp., Dodge Bros., General Steel Castings, International Telephone, Erie, Great Northern, Illinois Central, McKesson, National Dairy, Otis Steel, Pan-American Petroleum, Postal Telegraph, Shell Union Oil, Studebaker, United Drug and Warner Bros. Among the rails that displayed resistance were some bonds of Southern, Iron Mountain, Northern Pacific, New York Central, Missouri Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande, Chicago & Northwestern, St. Paul, Burlington, Chesapeake & Ohio and Canadian Pacific.

German bonds, after an early reaction, rallied to close unchanged to ½ point higher. Other Reich loans were generally lower. French 7½s dropped 2 points and some of the Japanese and British issues eased. The Argentines, Belgians, Australians and Italians firmed.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 18—Lively tumbles in grain prices late today accompanied heavy selling of wheat, largely on orders from sources east.

Temporary weakness of securities did much to unsettle confidence of grain holders. Trading in grain was ended before stock market recoveries took place. Corn showed stubborn resistance but yielded to sympathy with wheat action.

Wheat closed unsteady at the day's bottom figures, 1½ to 2 cents below yesterday's finish, corn 1-8 to 3-4 down, oats ¼ to ½ off, and provisions varying from 10 cents decline to an equal gain.

Contributing to the late downward trend of wheat were reports of a favorable outlook for the 1933 domestic crop of spring wheat, with seeding now practically completed. Another disturbing factor was that eastern selling of wheat came largely from interests that earlier were on the buying side. This selling found the wheat market vulnerable to offerings, and for the time being without any aggressive speculative buying power.

Stop-loss selling orders in wheat were dislodged, and the market ignored word that 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been taken for shipment overseas. Wheat traders also gave little heed to the fact that rye quotations today had jumped to fresh high records for the season. The advance of rye was attributed to operations of spreaders who were selling corn against purchases of rye.

Relative strength of the corn market resulted from persistent wet weather, a handicap in getting corn land prepared for planting. Oats tagged after corn.

Provisions were swayed largely by changes in hog values and in grains.

Closing indemnities: Wheat, July, 70 7-8 to 71, 73 5-8 to 3-4; September, 72 1-8 to ¼, 74 5-8 to 3-4; December, 74 3-8 to ½, 76 7-8 to 77. Corn, July, 44 7-8 to 45, 47 1-8 to ¼; September, 46 3-4 to 7-8, 47 7-8 to 49; December, 48¾, 50¼ to 3-8.

x—New 1933 high.
xx—Previous 1933 high.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 18 (AP)—Stocks wobbled today, although rail shares endeavored to carry the price level higher. Wheat, corn and cotton softened, but bonds, with the exception of small declines in the U. S. government division, firmed and their Standard Statistics-Associated Press composite went to a new 1933 high.

Carrier equities also finished at a new average peak for the year, industrials and utilities, however, closed irregularly lower. The market ran into a squall of selling at the start of the last hour, then rallied with considerable virility after declaration of a regular quarterly dividend by United Corp. Safety of which payment had been questioned in some brokerage quarters.

Rail Issues Stronger

Steel, farm implement, utility and the recently buoyant "wet" stocks tended lower as profits were accepted. Net losses ranged from fractions to more than a point for U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, National Steel, Case, Harvester, Consolidated Gas, North American, Western Union, Owens-Illinois, National Distillers, Crown Cork and U. S. Industrial Alcohol. American Telephone, down 2 at the worst, closed with a small gain.

Rails derived considerable support from forecasts that car loadings last week had exceeded those of the corresponding 1932 period. Wall Street was pleased by the increasing traffic on eastern lines, which had previously been lagging under a year ago, taking this to mean that manufactured goods were being moved in larger volume. Extreme gains for the carriers ranged from 1 to 4 points.

Discussion as to what taxes are to be levied to carry the big expenditure which the government is planning for its public works-industrial control program naturally drew wide atteniton and the final decision is being awaited eagerly. It was noted that some congressional leaders were predicting there would be no sales tax.

Snapback In Final Hour Aids Curb To Regain Is Losses

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
(Associated Press Financial Editor)

New York, May 18 (AP)—The curb market snapped back in the final minutes of trading today to erase most of the worst effects of a rather sharp reaction that set in at the beginning of the final hour. Considerable irregularity was evident throughout the session.

Utilities, a bit heavy during the forenoon, closed narrowly irregular. American Gas & Electric was firmed a major fraction. Electric Bond and Share was off almost 2 points in the late selling but came back sharply in the final upturn to cancel all but a minor part of the loss.

Aluminum Co., among the industrials also rebounded smartly at the finish, to almost erase a sag of nearly 2. Deere & Co. and Technicolor were off major fractions while Pepperell sagged 2 points. Demand appeared for Hazel Atlas Glass and Swift & Co., each advancing for net gains of around 2½ points.

Oils were quiet most of the day and closed slightly higher. Mining shares improved fractionally while investment holding corporations were barely steady. Cord Corp. dipped a half point. Transfers totaled 528,000 shares against a total of 612,000 yesterday.

MONEY RATES

Skin's Air Pockets Fight "Raw" Feeling

London (AP)—The "raw" feeling in cold, moist weather is due to the atmosphere getting closer to the skin.

A microscope reveals this, says W. A. Osborne of the University of Melbourne in "Nature." The microscope shows the skin partly insulated against weather changes by a layer of tiny air pockets embedded in its surface.

When the atmosphere is heavy with moisture these pockets contract, expelling some of the protecting air layer.

BY VICTOR EUBANK
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 18 (AP)—Although the bond market was somewhat jumbled today, as profit takers became quite active in a number of the recent speculative favorites, prices generally managed to emerge a trifle higher.

The average for 60 domestic corporate loans edged up one-tenth of a point to 73.2, another new high mark for the year. Sales totaled $15,509,000, par value.

While some industrial specialties were taken in hand for substantial advances, and the higher grade utilities steadied, the rails were barely able to hold their own under realizing pressure. At the same time United States government securities continued to lag and foreign obligations, especially those of Germany, were highly irregular.

Industrials Gain

The more active industrial gainers of fractions to 2 or more points included issues of American Ice, California Petroleum, Certainteed, General Cable, Goodrich, International Cement, National Steel, Philadelphia Reading Coal & Iron, Purity Bakeries and Hudson Coal.

Losers of fractions to a point or more in the various classes included some loans of Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake Corp., Dodge Bros., General Steel Castings, International Telephone, Erie, Great Northern, Illinois Central, McKesson, National Dairy, Otis Steel, Pan-American Petroleum, Postal Telegraph, Shell Union Oil, Studebaker, United Drug and Warner Bros. Among the rails that displayed resistance were some bonds of Southern, Iron Mountain, Northern Pacific, New York Central, Missouri Pacific, Denver & Rio Grande, Chicago & Northwestern, St. Paul, Burlington, Chesapeake & Ohio and Canadian Pacific.

German bonds, after an early reaction, rallied to close unchanged to ½ point higher. Other Reich loans were generally lower. French 7½s dropped 2 points and some of the Japanese and British issues eased. The Argentines, Belgians, Australians and Italians firmed.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 18—Lively tumbles in grain prices late today accompanied heavy selling of wheat, largely on orders from sources east.

Temporary weakness of securities did much to unsettle confidence of grain holders. Trading in grain was ended before stock market recoveries took place. Corn showed stubborn resistance but yielded to sympathy with wheat action.

Wheat closed unsteady at the day's botom figures, 1½ to 2 cents below yesterday's finish, corn 1-8 to 3-4 down, oats ¼ to ½ off, and provisions varying from 10 cents decline to an equal gain.

Contributing to the late downward trend of wheat were reports of a favorable outlook for the 1933 domestic crop of spring wheat, with seeding now practically completed. Another disturbing factor was that eastern selling of wheat came largely from interests that earlier were on the buying side. This selling found the wheat market vulnerable to offerings, and for the time being without any aggressive speculative buying power.

Stop-loss selling orders in wheat were dislodged, and the market ignored word that 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been taken for shipment overseas. Wheat traders also gave little heed to the fact that rye quotations today had jumped to fresh high records for the season. The advance of rye was attributed to operations of spreaders who were selling corn against purchases of rye.

Relative strength of the corn market resulted from persistent wet weather, a handicap in getting corn land prepared for planting. Oats tagged after corn.

Provisions were swayed largely by changes in hog values and in grains.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—July, 70 7-8 to 71, 73 5-8 to 3-4; September, 72 1-8 to ¼, 74 5-8 to 3-4; December, 74 3-8 to ½, 76 7-8 to 77. Corn—July, 44 7-8 to 45, 47 1-8 to ¼; September, 46 3-4 to 7-8, 47 7-8 to 49; December, 48¼, 50¼ to 3-8.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE PROBATE COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF DELTA

In the matter of the petition of Grover C. Dillman, State Highway Commissioner for the State of Michigan, for condemnation of private property for public highway purposes in Brampton township, Delta County, Michigan.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Escanaba in said county on the 1st day of May A. D. 1933.

Present: Hon. Frank J. Mileski, Probate Judge.

It appearing to the Court that Grover C. Dillman, State Highway Commissioner for the State of Michigan has this day filed in this Court a petition praying for the appointment of three Court Commissioners to appraise the damages to be paid as compensation for the taking of an easement for public highway purposes in, over, and upon certain private property therein described, and it appearing to the Court that the said Grover C. Dillman, State Highway Commissioner for the State of Michigan, did on the 14th day of January A. D. 1933, make and file in his office a written determination of the necessity of improving the highway known as trunk line road number M-186 in Brampton township, Delta County, Michigan, by constructing the necessary grade and drainage structures and surfacing to a width of 20 feet with gravel, in accordance with a survey thereof and plans and specifications made under the supervision and direction of said State Highway Commissioner, and the necessity for taking an easement for public highway purposes in, over, and upon the particular private property therein described, and the damages which in his opinion should be paid as compensation for the taking of said easement in, over, and upon each parcel of said property, in accordance with the provisions of Act 352, Public Act 1925, as amended, and that all proceedings thereafter were in accordance with said Act as amended, that the said petitioner has taken or is about to take possession of the property described in said determination in, over and upon which it is necessary to acquire such easement for said public highway purposes, that the said petitioner has been unable to agree with the persons interested as owners or otherwise in any of the said described property on the damages to be paid as compensation for such taking, that the description of said property and the names of the persons interested therein as owners or otherwise, so far as known, who reside in the County of Delta and those persons mentioned in the attached descriptions as being residents of other counties, or states, are as follows:

BRUINS WIN IN SECOND, 10 TO 1

National League Champs Blanked in Opener by 3 to 0

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—The Cubs officially hoisted the 1932 National League pennant between halves of today's double-header after being shut out, 3 to 0, by New York in the opener, then went out and batted away a five game losing streak to win the second game, 10 to 1.

Hal Schumacher, young New York right-hander, hung up his fourth victory of the season as he pitched a brilliant shutout in the first game. He gave only six hits and whiffed four.

Johnny Vergez' triple and Blondy Ryan's single in the second brought a run against Burleigh Grimes that was enough to win. Gus Mancuso touched Pat Malone for a homer in the ninth.

Fred Fitzsimmons began throwing home run balls to the Cubs in the fourth inning of the second game. Babe Herman hit a circuit [illegible] for the first Chicago earned [illegible] in 30 innings, then after Frank Demaree had singled, Gabby Hartnett clouted his seventh of the season. Harvey Hendrick's round tripper with two on in the fifth sent Fitzsimmons to the showers and brought Glenn Spencer on the scene just in time for Mark Koenig to greet him with the fourth circuit drive.

Mel Ott's drive into the right field bleachers in the eighth brought the only run off Guy Bush.

Cubs Convinced National League Apple Is Slower

Chicago (AP) The Cubs are inclined to believe there may be something, after all, in this talk of the 1933 baseballs being less "rabbity" than the 1932 creation.

It seems the Cub management had a supply of '32 pellets left over, in good condition, and they were used in the first eight home games. During this spell the Bruins collected a batting average of .304.

For the six games away from home on their first road trip the club average at the plate was .188!

Even allowing for a team's tendency to bat more effectively on the home grounds than on foreign lots, and for the fact that the opponents batted only .212 here against .225 at home, the difference of 116 points argues strongly for those who contend there is a slower "apple" in circulation this season.

The opponents were the same clubs and the opposing pitchers the same in each set of games.

ALLEN'S DEBUT VICTORIOUS ONE

Bengals Let Down With Five Hits and Drop 5 to 1 Score

New York, May 18 (AP) Johnny Allen, leading American League pitcher last year, made his 1933 debut for the Yankees today and let the Detroit Tigers down with five hits to give the Yanks a 5 to 1 victory and a sweep of the two-game series.

Allen, who was stricken with influenza during the training season and recovered slowly, fanned six, gave only two passes and seldom was in trouble. The only Detroit run came in the seventh when Earl Combs lost Ervin Fox's fly in the sun and it went for a triple.

Haas Is Serving 3-Day Suspension

Philadelphia, May 18 (AP) Mule Haas, Chicago White Sox center fielder, began serving a three-day suspension today for his "run-in" with Umpire Lew Kolls after yesterday's Philadelphia-Chicago game.

Haas, formerly with the Athletics, was suspended for pushing the umpire after being called out on a close play at the plate in the eighth inning.

All-Star Game Will Be Played At World Fair

Chicago, May 18 (AP) The baseball fans' dream a game between the pick of American and National league talent will be arranged for July 6 by the Chicago Tribune as a World Fair feature. It became possible through the cooperation of the 16 club owners.

The fans of the country will select the teams by vote, to help settle arguments over the relative merits of the players in the two leagues, for the first time in the history of the game.

The newspaper will underwrite the expense of the game. Profits will be turned over to the association of professional baseball players of America, baseball's charity organization.

William Harridge, president of the American league, and John A. Heydler, the National league head, enthusiastically agreed to the game. The owners, although several had to make schedule concessions, fell in with the idea. Brooklyn and Pittsburgh in the National league have a doubleheader scheduled for July 6, but will shift it to make way for the inter-league spectacle.

The New York Giants and Boston Braves, are listed for a doubleheader July 5, at Boston, but each club has agreed to send any players selected, and play the game without them. The American league approved the undertaking at a special meeting at Cleveland May 9, while President Heydler of the National league consulted the club owners in his organization individually.

Big First Inning All Needed For Brooklyn To Win

St. Louis, May 18 (AP) The Brooklyn Dodgers needed just one inning today to clinch a clean sweep of their three-game series with the Cardinals. They scored eight runs on seven hits and two walks off Jim Mooney and Dazzy Vance and won 14 to 5.

Mooney was driven to cover after giving up four hits, a pair of passes and six runs in two-thirds of an inning. Vance, pounded for two more runs in the same frame, was batted out in the fourth when the Dodgers added three more runs. Owen Carroll pitched the full game for Brooklyn, ringing up his fifth victory and the fourth straight for the Dodgers.

Earnshaw In Good Form Beats Sox

Philadelphia, May 18 (AP) Behind the six-hit pitching of big George Earnshaw, the Philadelphia Athletics pounded four Chicago White Sox hurlers for 15 hits and a 9 to 1 victory today.

Going into the ninth, it looked as if the A's big right-hander was due to register a shutout triumph, but an enemy hit and a pair of Athletics' errors brought the Sox' one run across. It was Earnshaw's first appearance on the mound since April 24.

BIG TEN MEET BEGINS TODAY

Trials in 11 Events to Be Held; Michigan, Indiana Favored

Chicago, May 18 (AP) Track and field stars of the Western conference will gather at Dyche stadium, Northwestern university, for the thirty-third time tomorrow to battle over the outdoor championship a battle between Michigan, the defending titleholder, and Indiana if the dopesters are right.

The championship finals will be held Saturday afternoon amid pageantry reminiscent of the Olympic games. Tomorrow, trials in eleven events will be run off.

Ward Depended Upon

Michigan, with prospective point strength in everything but the pole vault, shot put, discus and javelin, rules favorite, but by very little over the Hoosiers whose great middle distance runners and versatile weight men have mowed through all dual competition this year. Illinois and Ohio State figure to finish high in the point total, but lack the balance to make a real bid.

Along with the struggle between Michigan and Indiana for the team trophy, an unusually bright battle for individual honors is likely. The Wolverines' hopes rest with Willis Ward, a tall, powerful negro who will be asked to win points in four events. Indiana has Ivan Fuqua, who also may be called upon for service in four numbers.

Ward appears certain of victory in the high jump in which he has bettered 6 feet 7 inches. He is the favorite in the 100 yard dash, and with a little luck, might win the broad jump. If he can stand the strain, a point or two in the high hurdles may be expected of him.

Fuqua will concentrate on the quarter mile in which he is the pick of the field. He has done 100 yards fast enough to expect a place, and is a capable broad jumper. He will finish his trick by running anchor leg of the mile relay, which on form should be another Michigan-Indiana duel.

Cleveland Captures Overtime Game, 6-5

Washington, May 18 (AP) Cleveland's Indians scored an extra-inning victory over the Washington Senators today, 6 to 5, their first victory of the three-game series.

Earl Whitehill, Washington pitcher, contributed to his own defeat. In the tenth inning with one out, he threw wildly to first base after picking up Burnett's roller. The latter went on to second and scored on a single by Morgan.

The Senators outhit their opponents, nine safeties to eight.

BOXING

Chocolate and Seaman Ready For Big Bout

New York, May 18 (AP) Barring any last minute stomach aches or immigration tangles Kid Chocolate and Seaman Tom Watson will get around to deciding who is the best man in their long deferred 15-round featherweight title bout in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

The two little fellows first were matched last January but Chocolate got into difficulties with the immigration authorities and Watson was sent against Fidel Labarba instead. Safely past the immigration barrier Chocolate came down with a stomach ache last week and their bout was postponed from last Friday.

Watson Good Man

Chocolate still ruled the favorite tonight but the combination of his stomach ache and Watson's impressive performance in defeating Labarba had pulled the odds down to 8 to 5.

In meeting Watson, Chocolate is taking on one of the best little fighting men Great Britain has sent to these shores since Jimmy Wilde. Seaman Tom, the pub keeper, showed in the Labarba engagement that he liked to fight, that he could hit and that he could "take it," a good combination in any country.

Chocolate won recognition as featherweight champion last winter in a bout with Lew Feldman after Battling Battalino had eaten himself right out from under the crown and been forced to renounce it when he couldn't make the weight.

Watson has held the Lord Lonsdale belt, emblematic of the British title only about the same length of time, winning it from Nel Tarleton in London.

Pittsburgh Makes Clean Sweep Of Four-Game Series

Pittsburgh, May 18 (AP) Pittsburgh made a clean sweep of the four game series with the Phillies today, taking the final game, 6 to 2.

Rhem and Elliott were victims of a 15 hit attack.

Swetonic allowed but six hits, two of them coming in the sixth when the Phils gathered their runs on a triple by Don Hurst, walk by Whitney, single by Lee and a long fly by Davis.

The Pirates got a run in the second on three singles and put the game in safekeeping in the third when L. Waner and Lindstrom smacked out three-base hits which were followed by a home run by Paul Waner.

Suzanne Lenglen Willing To Meet Moody On Court

Paris, May 18 (AP) Suzanne Lenglen, former world's women's tennis champion, told the Associated Press today she would be "delighted to play Helen Wills Moody" if the match could be arranged.

Informed that Mrs. Moody was willing, Mlle. Lenglen laughed and said she hadn't given any thought as to the possibility of such a match which would be difficult to arrange but the idea pleased her greatly.

Mlle. Lenglen began teaching a course in tennis instruction for youngsters at Auteuil today.

U. S. DAVIS CUP NET STARS WIN

Vines and Allison Cop Singles Matches at Montreal

Montreal, May 18 (AP) The United States Davis cup team today jeopardized Canada's chances of remaining in the international tennis competition when Ellsworth Vines, the national champion and Wilmer Allison No. 2 ranking player, swept through the opening singles matches in the North American zone final.

Complete masters of their rivals from the time they took the courts, Allison defeated Dr. Jack Wright, Canadian veteran, 6-2, 7-5, 6-2, in the opening match and then Vines blasted his way to a 6-3, 6-1, 6-3 victory over Gilbert Nunns, young Toronto star.

Vines at His Best

Victory tomorrow in the doubles, in which George Lott and John Van Ryn will oppose Marcel Rainville and Dr. Wright, would send the United States team into the inter-zone final against Argentina at Washington, D. C., next week.

A crowd of 2,000 at the Mount Royal Tennis club saw Vines at his best, when he so desired. The lanky Californian shuffled about the court, apparently in no hurry, but Nunns' returns nearly always found him at the right spot to drive a hard placement to the back court or drop the ball just over the net while the Canadian stood flat footed.

Allison kept Dr. Wright on the defensive almost all the way. Only in the second set, when a high wind seemed to bother the Texan more than it did the Canadian veteran, was Wright able to match Allison's game. He took a lead of four games to one but that was as near as he got to victory.

Boy Scouts Need Baseball Outfits

Loans or donations of used baseball equipment, such as gloves, bats, balls, catchers' masks, are being sought for the Boy Scout baseball league, District Commissioner Jack Floyd said yesterday.

The Scout organization plans to form a league of about ten hard ball teams. Anyone able to help the cause is asked to leave the equipment at the No. 1 fire hall or else telephone and someone will be sent to collect the articles.

Trojan Track Stars Enter I. C-4-A Meet

Los Angeles, May 18 (AP) Willis O. Hunter, director of athletics, announced late today that the University of Southern California will take 18 athletes east in an effort to retain its I. C. A. A. A. A. championship and win back the national intercollegiate title at Chicago.

Cubs Convinced National League Apple Is Slower

Chicago (AP)—The Cubs are inclined to believe there may be something, after all, in this talk of the 1933 baseballs being less "rabbity" than the 1932 creation.

It seems the Cub management had a supply of '32 pellets left over, in good condition, and they were used in the first eight home games. During this spell the Bruins collected a batting average of .304.

For the six games away from home on their first road trip the club average at the plate was .188!

Even allowing for a team's tendency to bat more effectively on the home grounds than on foreign lots, and for the fact that the opponents batted only .212 here against .225 at home, the difference of 116 points argues strongly for those who contend there is a slower "apple" in circulation this season.

The opponents were the same clubs and the opposing pitchers the same in each set of games.

ALLEN'S DEBUT VICTORIOUS ONE

Bengals Let Down With Five Hits and Drop 5 to 1 Score

New York, May 18 (AP)—Johnny Allen, leading American League pitcher last year, made his 1933 debut for the Yankees today and let the Detroit Tigers down with five hits to give the Yanks a 5 to 1 victory and a sweep of the two-game series.

Allen, who was stricken with influenza during the training season and recovered slowly, fanned six, gave only two passes and seldom was in trouble. The only Detroit run came in the seventh when Earl Combs lost Ervin Fox's fly in the sun and it went for a triple.

Haas Is Serving 3-Day Suspension

Philadelphia, May 18 (AP)—Mule Haas, Chicago White Sox center fielder, began serving a three-day suspension today for his "run-in" with Umpire Lew Kolls after yesterday's Philadelphia-Chicago game.

Haas, formerly with the Athletice, was suspended for pushing the umpire after being called out on a close play at the plate in the eighth inning.

All-Star Game Will Be Played At World Fair

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—The baseball fans' dream—a game between the pick of American and National league talent—will be arranged for July 6 by the Chicago Tribune as a World Fair feature. It became possible through the cooperation of the 16 club owners.

The fans of the country will select the teams by vote, to help settle arguments over the relative merits of the players in the two leagues, for the first time in the history of the game.

The newspaper will underwrite the expense of the game. Profits will be turned over to the association of professional baseball players of America, baseball's charity organization.

William Harridge, president of the American league, and John A. Heydler, the National league head, enthusiastically agreed to the game. The owners, although several had to make schedule concessions, fell in with the idea. Brooklyn and Pittsburgh in the National league have a doubleheader scheduled for July 6, but will shift it to make way for the inter-league spectacle.

The New York Giants and Boston Braves, are listed for a doubleheader July 5, at Boston, but each club has agreed to send any players selected, and play the game without them. The American league approved the undertaking at a special meeting at Cleveland May 9, while President Heydler of the National league consulted the club owners in his organization individually.

Big First Inning All Needed For Brooklyn To Win

St. Louis, May 18 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers needed just one inning today to clinch a clean sweep of their three-game series with the Cardinals. They scored eight runs on seven hits and two walks off Jim Mooney and Dazzy Vance and won 14 to 5.

Mooney was driven to cover after giving up four hits, a pair of passes and six runs in two-thirds of an inning. Vance, pounded for two more runs in the same frame, was batted out in the fourth when the Dodgers added three more runs. Owen Carroll pitched the full game for Brooklyn, ringing up his fifth victory and the fourth straight for the Dodgers.

Earnshaw In Good Form Beats Sox

Philadelphia, May 18 (AP)—Behind the six-hit pitching of big George Earnshaw, the Philadelphia Athletics pounded four Chicago White Sox hurlers for 15 hits and a 9 to 1 victory today.

Going into the ninth, it looked as if the A's big right-hander was due to register a shutout triumph, but an enemy hit and a pair of Athletics' errors brought the Sox' one run across. It was Earnshaw's first appearance on the mound since April 24.

BIG TEN MEET BEGINS TODAY

Trials in 11 Events to Be Held; Michigan, Indiana Favored

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—Track and field stars of the Western conference will gather at Dyche stadium, Northwestern university, for the thirty-third time tomorrow to battle over the outdoor championship—a battle between Michigan, the defending titleholder, and Indiana—if the dopesters are right.

The championship finals will be held Saturday afternoon amid pageantry reminiscent of the Olympic games. Tomorrow, trials in eleven events will be run off.

Ward Depended Upon

Michigan, with prospective point strength in everything but the pole vault, shot put, discus and javelin, rules favorite, but by very little over the Hoosiers whose great middle distance runners and versatile weight men have mowed through all dual competition this year. Illinois and Ohio State figure to finish high in the point total, but lack the balance to make a real bid.

Along with the struggle between Michigan and Indiana for the team trophy, an unusually bright battle for individual honors is likely. The Wolverines' hopes rest with Willis Ward, a tall, powerful negro who will be asked to win ponts in four events. Indiana has Ivan Fuqua, who also may be called upon for service in four numbers.

Ward appears certain of victory in the high jump in which he has bettered 6 feet 7 inches. He is the favorite in the 100 yard dash, and with a little luck, might win the broad jump. If he can stand the strain, a point or two in the high hurdles may be expected of him.

Fuqua will concentrate on the quarter mile in which he is the pick of the field. He has done 100 yards fast enough to expect a place, and is a capable broad jumper. He will finish his trick by running anchor leg of the mile relay, which on form should be another Michigan-Indiana duel.

Cleveland Captures Overtime Game, 6-5

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Cleveland's Indians scored an extra-inning victory over the Washington Senators today, 6 to 5, their first victory of the three-game series.

Earl Whitehill, Washington pitcher, contributed to his own defeat. In the tenth inning with one out, he threw wildly to first base after picking up Burnett's roller. The latter went on to second and scored on a single by Morgan.

The Senators outhit their opponents, nine safeties to eight.

BOXING

Chocolate and Seaman Ready For Big Bout

New York, May 18 (AP)—Barring any last minute stomach aches or immigration tangles Kid Chocolate and Seaman Tom Watson will get around to deciding who is the best man in their long-deferred 15-round featherweight title bout in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

The two little fellows first were matched last January but Chocolate got into difficulties with the immigration authorities and Watson was sent against Fidel Labarba instead. Safely past the immigration barrier Chocolate came down with a stomach ache last week and their bout was postponed from last Friday.

Watson Good Man

Chocolate still ruled the favorite tonight but the combination of his stomach ache and Watson's impressive performance in defeating Labarba had pulled the odds down to 8 to 5.

In meeting Watson, Chocolate is taking on one of the best little fighting men Great Britain has sent to these shores since Jimmy Wilde. Seaman Tom, the pub keeper, showed in the Labarba engagement that he liked to fight, that he could hit and that he could "take it," a good combination in any country.

Chocolate won recognition as featherweight champion last winter in a bout with Lew Feldman after Battling Battalino had eaten himself right out from under the crown and been forced to renounce it when he couldn't make the weight.

Watson has held the Lord Lonsdale belt, emblematic of the British title only about the same length of time, winning it from Nel Tarleton in London.

Pittsburgh Makes Clean Sweep Of Four-Game Series

Pittsburgh, May 18, (AP)—Pittsburgh made a clean sweep of the four game series with the Phillies today, taking the final game, 6 to 2.

Rhem and Elliott were victims of a 15 hit attack.

Swetonic allowed but six hits, two of them coming in the sixth when the Phils gathered their runs on a triple by Don Hurst, walk by Whitney, single by Lee and a long fly by Davis.

The Pirates got a run in the second on three singles and put the game in safekeeping in the third when L. Waner and Lindstrom smacked out three-base hits which were followed by a home run by Paul Waner.

Score by innings:

Suzanne Lenglen Willing To Meet Moody On Court

Paris, May 18 (AP)—Suzanne Lenglen, former world's women's tennis champion, told the Associated Press today she would be "delighted to play Helen Wills Moody" if the match could be arranged.

Informed that Mrs. Moody was willing, Mlle. Lenglen laughed and said she hadn't given any thought as to the possibility of such a match which would be difficult to arrange but the idea pleased her greatly.

Mlle. Lenglen began teaching a course in tennis instruction for youngsters at Auteuil today.

U. S. DAVIS CUP NET STARS WIN

Vines and Allison Cop Singles Matches at Montreal

Montreal, May 18 (AP)—The United States Davis cup team today jeopardized Canada's chances of remaining in the international tennis competition when Ellsworth Vines, the national champion, and Wilmer Allison, No. 2 ranking player, swept through the opening singles matches in the North American zone final.

Complete masters of their rivals from the time they took the courts, Allison defeated Dr. Jack Wright, Canadian veteran, 6-2, 7-5, 6-2, in the opening match and then Vines blasted his way to a 6-3, 6-1, 6-3 victory over Gilbert Nunns, young Toronto star.

Vines at His Best

Victory tomorrow in the doubles, in which George Lott and John Van Ryn will oppose Marcel Rainville and Dr. Wright, would send the United States team into the inter-zone final against Argentina at Washington, D. C., next week.

A crowd of 2,000 at the Mount Royal Tennis club saw Vines at his best, when he so desired. The lanky Californian shuffled about the court, apparently in no hurry, but Nunns' returns nearly always found him at the right spot to drive a hard placement to the back court or drop the ball just over the net while the Canadian stood flat footed.

Allison kept Dr. Wright on the defensive almost all the way. Only in the second set, when a high wind seemed to bother the Texan more than it did the Canadian veteran, was Wright able to match Allison's game. He took a lead of four games to one but that was as near as he got to victory.

Boy Scouts Need Baseball Outfits

Loans or donations of used baseball equipment, such as gloves, bats, balls, catchers' masks, are being sought for the Boy Scout baseball league, District Commissioner Jack Floyd said yesterday.

The Scout organization plans to form a league of about ten hard ball teams. Anyone able to help the cause is asked to leave the equipment at the No. 1 fire hall or else telephone and someone will be sent to collect the articles.

The St. Joseph entries for the triangular track and field meet here Saturday with Escanaba and Manistique were announced by Coach Leo Brunelle yesterday as follows:

100 yard dash—Beaumier, DeGrand, Coan and S. Smith.

220 yard dash—Beaumier, McGovern, Coan and S. Smith.

440 yard dash—H. Smith, Derouin and Valind.

880 yard dash—Boddy.

Mile run—Klug, Pryal and Menard.

110 yard high hurdles—Clairmont and McGovern.

Pole vault—Beaumier.

High jump—S. Smith and Boddy.

Broad jump: Clairmont, Coan, and S. Smith.

Shot put: McGovern.

Relay: Beaumier, Clairmont, S. Smith and McGovern.

This will be the first meet of the season for the Parochials and Coach Brunelle does not expect too much from the youngsters. For many of the lads this will be their first competition.

BIG SIX STANDINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Johnny Frederick continued his heavy slugging yesterday, getting three hits in five times up in Brooklyn's rout of St. Louis to lead the rise of the National League members of the Big Six. He hoisted his average 13 points. Pie Traynor picked up five points with two hits in four tries and Pepper Martin hit two out of three for a nine point gain. Ben Chapman, American League leader, hit one out of three and lost a point while Bill Dickey went to the bottom of the sextet, missing three times and losing 11 points. The injured Sam West remained out of action. The standings:

Johnson Gives Up Only One Hit As Cincinnati Wins

Cincinnati, May 18, (AP)—For the second time this season, Silas Johnson shut out the Boston Braves with only one hit, and the Cincinnati Reds won today, 1 to 0.

Only Jordan of the Braves was able to scratch a hit off the veteran in nine fast innings. His was a single. Meanwhile, the Reds wrested the margin of victory from Frankhouse when Hafey tripled in the seventh—the only extra base hit of the game—and scored on a single by Moore.

SOVIET RUSSIA WILL SUPPORT DISARMAMENT

MESSAGE RECEIVED; SPOTLIGHT NOW ON MUSSOLINI

Washington, May 19 (AP) — The problem of stilling the booming guns of the Orient's undeclared war absorbed President Roosevelt tonight as he bade farewell to China's envoy, T. V. Soong, and prepared for conferences with an official spokesman for the Tokyo government.

In addition, the chief executive kept in close touch with the developing arms reduction conference at Geneva, noted with interest a cordial reply from the Russian government in response to his appeal for peace and refused to be disturbed by word from Paris that Premier Daladier had rejected a cut in military expenses with a declaration that the French army must be kept strong.

Seek Orient Peace

From his final conference with Soong, vice president of China's executive group and that nation's minister of finance, came a statement of mutual "trust" that peace may soon be established in the Far East.

"It is our ardent hope that peace may be assured and that to this end practical measures of disarmament may soon be adopted," said their joint statement.

A delegation from Japan is already in this country and will arrive in Washington early next week for a series of discussions with Mr. Roosevelt. It is headed by Viscount Ishii.

The Russian reply to the president's cablegram addressed to 54 rulers in the interest of reduced armaments and peace was hailed both here and in Moscow as marking a new stage in relations with the Soviet, although officials would not comment on that aspect.

Russia Replies

The arrival of the Russian reply again stirred speculation on recognition of the Soviet regime. The president's message of Tuesday and the reply marked the first direct interchange of communications between the two nations since the World war.

"I have received your message of political and economic peace to all states and I feel sure that it will meet with warm response from the peoples of the Soviet Socialist republics," said the Russion communication, sent by Michail Kalinin, nominal head of the Moscow government.

"The Soviet government, expressing the will of the peoples of the Soviet union, has never ceased, at all international conferences in which it has for over ten years taken part, to draw attention to the necessity for universal disarmament as an indispensable premise for peace between nations."

SHIFTS TO ROME

Rome, May 19. (AP)—The center of world political activity shifted to Rome tonight as Premier Mussolini with German collaboration prepared to take the initiative in the next move to clear the international situation.

The surprise arrival of Hermann Goering, right hand man to Chancellor Hitler of Germany, and Italy's sudden firm stand for 80 per cent reduction of war debts

Harriman, Indicted Banker, Missing; Notes Indicate He Planned to Take Own Life

New York, May 19 (AP)—Joseph W. Harriman wandered away today from the nursing home where he has been confined with a critical heart disease, and while police searched the city for him his attorney disclosed tonight that he left several notes to members of his family making it clear he intended to kill himself.

The 66-year-old banker was scheduled to go on trial in federal court Monday on charges of falsifying the books of the closed Harriman National Bank & Trust company which he founded in 1912.

Contents Undisclosed

George S. Leisure, his attorney, made known the discovery of the suicide notes in a lengthy statement setting forth Harriman's physical and mental condition and defending his attempt to bolster the price of the bank's stock, for which purpose he is alleged to have made false entries of $1,661,170.

The statement did not disclose the contents of the notes or the identity of the addresses.

"A few minutes after Mr. Harriman had left," the statement read, "several notes, addressed to members fo his family and to his friends, were found in a desk in his room, and the contents of these notes made it clear that Mr. Harriman intended to end his life.

"Mr. Harriman has been gravely ill for a long time, not only physically but mentally. He was aware that he was suffering from an acute and fatal disease of the heart and of the brain, and that there was no hope of his recovery."

Police and federal agents searched the city and watched steamship piers and railroad stations all day.

He is under $25,000 bonds, and authorities said these would be forfeited i fhe failed to appear in court Monday.

Leisure reported the banker's absence, telling police that a door-

FRANCE RETAINS WAR STRENGTH

Army Must Be Maintained Strong, Says Premier Daladier

Paris, May 19 (AP)—The French government, after consideration of Chancellor Hitler's pronouncement regarding armaments, today made known its decision to put its trust in big battalions.

The decision was revealed when Premier Daladier refused to permit a further cut in war expenses.

The French army is strong and must be kept strong, the premier told the senate which was considering the defense budget.

"I affirm," he asserted "that we can have confidence in the army, and I affirm that our national defense is assured."

The senate immediately approved this attitude by exempting the defense budget from a five per cent additional reduction.

His decision to maintain the army—the backbone of France's defense power—was in accordance with the judgement of the chiefs of the army, M. Daladier said.

Situation Unchanged

Official circles expressed the view that Chancellor Hitler's speech before the reichstag Wednesday had changed nothing as regards France's security requirement.

"Hitler is still Hitler and he has merely camouflaged," commented one person in touch with the government.

The premier voiced the hope before the senate that the disarmament conference may achieve something, but for the present he said "we would be deluding ourselves if we slackened military preparations. Only the future can tell if other peoples are ready to disarm."

The Paris press as well as semi-official quarters have expressed skepticism as to the good faith of Chancellor Hitler in his declarations to the reichstag. They have urged that the government wait for the German delegation at Geneva to translate these words into deeds before too much confidence is placed in them.

Before he clarified in the senate chamber the government's position with regard to national defense Premier Daladier appeared before the chamber of deputies and promised to elucidate in that house his cabinet views on debts, the gold standard, the tariff truce and French policy generally at the London conference, before the conference begins.

LIQUOR COMISH SEEKS 100% AID

Local Enforcement Units Asked to Cooperate With Group

Detroit, May 19, (AP)—The state liquor control commission expects "100 per cent co-operation" from local units in enforcement of the Michigan liquor control act, and pledges similar co-operation to localities in control measures.

Such was the statement today of Frank A. Picard, commission chairman, during a conference here of the commission's executive committee with federal, state, county and all city governments of Wayne county.

"It never was contemplated that the commission would set up its own police force," said Picard. "We depend on the local authorities to enforce the law, and we will play ball with them 100 per cent. I want all policemen to understand they are a part of this commission."

Temporary Regulations

Today's meeting of the commission and authorities was closed to the press and public.

The commission placed in effect temporary regulations allowing brewers to deliver their product directly to consumers' homes. Under the new regulation the consumer will be obliged to order his beer from a retailer, who will transmit the order to the brewer, and delivery will be made directly to the customer by the brewery.

"We wanted to be sure the public got first-class, legitimate beer," Picard said. "In the second place, we wanted to put an end to complaints of brewers that they were not getting fair representation of their products because of distribution rules."

The new rule on deliveries will be in force until the next regular meeting of the commission, set for June 2 when permanent rules will be laid down. At that time the commission hopes to have completed a plan for the warehousing of beer in order to furnish an unrestricted flow.

In addition, requests from brewers for permanent licenses will be acted upon. All brewers now are operating under temporary permits.

Windsor Has First Murder In 6 Years

Windsor, Ont., May 19 (AP)—This city's first murder in six years was written into the police record books tonight, with Jacob Hoff, 40-year-old fish market operator, lying near death in a hospital after slaying his entranged wife, Jacqueline, 38, on an outlying street corner.

Hoff, witnesses said, drew a revolver and shot his wife twice as he met her on the street, then ran into a nearby alley and shot himself in the head.

Identify Body Of Man Shot To Death

Detroit, May 19 (AP)—The body of a man killed by a railroad detective last Sunday night was identified tonight through his fingerprints as William Holmes, 34, wanted in Gary, Ind., for firing at a policeman and killing a bystander last Saturday night.

Holmes was killed in an exchange of shots with Walter Lang, Michigan Central special policeman, after Lang had ordered Holmes to get off the railroad right of way. Lang is recovering from two wounds.

SCHOOL PREXY WILL GOVERN SHOALS WORK

A. E. MORGAN PICKED FOR GREAT TASK BY PRESIDENT

BY JAMES W. DOUTHAT
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, May 19 (AP)—The colossal task of transforming into reality President Roosevelt's dream of converting the Tennessee valley into a national industrial workshop was assigned today to Arthur E. Morgan, president of Ohio's Antioch college.

At the same time, word was passed that quick action would be forthcoming in the government's investigation of charges that federal property at Muscle Shoals had been misused by private power companies.

Three-Man Board

President Roosevelt announced the appointment of Morgan, who brought Antioch college from a place of obscurity 13 years ago to one of the best-known educational institutions in the country.

The educator will head the three-man board which will direct the huge Muscle Shoals-Tennessee valley development project, legislation for which was signed only yesterday.

More than 150 names are before the president from which to select the two other members. He expects to make the appointments soon so that the work can get under way.

Under the measure, the board among other things is authorized to build dams, power houses, reservoirs, irrigation projects, power plants, transmission lines and to manufacture experimental fertilizer.

Both the Alabama Power company and the Tennessee Electric Power company, against which the charges were made by an unnamed electrical engineer in a letter to Senator Norris (R-Neb.), have denied the allegations and welcomed an inquiry.

Complaint by Norris

The investigation is expected to require about two months. A tentative inquiry already has been made by Louis R. Glavis, an investigator, for Secretary Ickes at the direction of President Roosevelt. His report has been turned over to the justice department.

The engineer is understood to have been with the Roosevelt party when the chief executive visited Muscle Shoals before inauguration. The complaint, which was sent to President Roosevelt by Senator Norris, centers around

Two Couples Rob Bank In Minnesota

Okabena, Minn., May 19 (AP)—Two young women, one a "red head," teamed with a pair of men bearing sub-machine guns today and robbed a bank of $2,500, endangering the lives of citizens by scattering shots down the main street as they fled.

Several boys walking to high school were fired on as the raiders' car sped out of this little community of 150 persons, but no one was injured. Secreting themselves in the First State Bank during the night, the two men forced an employe arriving for work to open the vault and safe, locked him and several others in the vault, and rushed out to an automobile in which the two women waited. Their trail was lost after a short pursuit.

Substitute Moore Bill Passes Comish

Lansing, May 19 (AP)—The substitute Moore bill, designed to bring relief to thousands of property owners who have been unable to keep up with tax bills, was approved by the house in committee of the whole today. It was made a special order of business for a final vote next Wednesday.

The measure provides that if owners pay 1932 and 1933 taxes by September 1, 1934, with six per cent interest, they may retire all delinquencies on a 10-year instalment plan starting in 1935. Penalties on back taxes would be waived. On the instalment amortization beginning in 1935 only four per cent interest would be charged.

Nations Seek Betterment in Silver Status

Washington, May 19 (AP)—Definite agreement among nations interested in improving the price of silver on a six point program to be worked out at the world economic conference in London was made known today by Senator Pittman (D., Nev.), who has been appointed to the delegation.

The announcement was made as preliminary White House conversations with spokesmen of eleven leading nations entered their final stages and the monetary policy being prepared for agreement at London took on greater clarity.

Six Point Program

The six points to which Pittman said all the nations consulted had agreed were:

1. That the price of silver should be reasonably raised and substantially stabilized.

2. That the silver question is a part of the general problem of currency stabilization.

3. That governments should agree to abandon the policy and practice of debasing and melting up silver.

4. That the fineness of debased coins should be restored as rapidly as practicable.

5. That so far as possible there should be a large use of silver as a base for currency issues.

6. That tariffs and other obstructions to a free movement of silver should be lowered or eliminated.

State department officials who have been working with Pittman on the problem joined in asserting that if the status of silver can be definitely improved, many of the other problems of the conference will be automatically solved and its success assured.

They pointed to the prospect that

BANK REVISION SEEMS CERTAIN

Glass Bill Insuring Deposits Has Support in Congress

Washington, May 19 (AP)—Pushed about in committee for months, the Glass bill to revise the national bank laws and insure deposits, apparently was headed tonight for swift approval by congress.

The senate began debate on the controversial measure today, and house leaders prepared to take it up early next week in the slightly modified form in which it was offered at that end of the capitol by Chairman Steagall of the banking committee.

Ultimate fate of the bill still rested with the administration, but in opening senate debate, Senator Glass (D-Va) strongly intimated that President Roosevelt is no longer opposed to insuring deposits.

Woodin Opposed

Secretary Woodin, the Virginian told the senators circled about him "was and is utterly opposed" to insuring deposits.

Despite this statement, however, Woodin had submitted to the Glass subcommittee earlier in the day a substitute for the deposit insurance plan which was rejected as too liberal.

The subcommittee unanimously turned down a suggestion by Woodin to give all banks unlimited support through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the period of the emergency through loans.

Senate leaders predicted the Glass bill would be approved early next week.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) formally offered an amendment today providing an emengency insurance system for one year under which the government would guarantee all deposits up to $2,500 in all approved banks, national or state.

"There is no possibility of economic recuperation regardless of all other undertakings until confidence is restored in normal banking," Vandenberg said in offering his amendment. "I am sure the insurance of deposits immediately is the paramount necessity of the moment."

Police Dogs Guard Arts Exposition

Chicago, May 19 (AP)—Upon the tawny shoulders of two police dogs rests part of the heavy responsibility of guarding the most valuable collection of paintings ever assembled in history—the $75,000,000 Century of Progress fine arts exposition, housed in the Chicago Art Institute.

The business of these two, "Prince" and "Peggy," is to scent out anyone attempting to hide in the building at night.

CALLED BY DEATH

THOMAS J. O'BRIEN

T. J. O'BRIEN, 90, DIPLOMAT, DIES

Ex-Ambassador to Japan and Italy Succumbs at Grand Rapids

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 19 (AP)—Thomas J. O'Brien, 90 years old, died late today at the family home here after a long illness. He was a former United States ambassador to Japan and Italy and minister to Denmark.

It was through the efforts of O'Brien while ambassador to Japan that the famous "gentlemen's agreement" regarding Japanese immigration was shaped. It was said by his contemporaries that his keen foresight and wisdom restrained the California legislature from adopting restrictive alien land laws that might have precipitated serious complications between the two nations.

Had Lengthy Career

He also was credited with having first broached the project of American acquisition of the Danish West Indies, although it was ten years after his ministry at Copenhagen that the Virgin Islands became territory of the United States.

As ambassador to Italy, O'Brien extended effective good offices in paving the way for peace between Italy and Turkey, between whom war had broken out a few weeks prior to his arrival in Rome in 1911.

A lawyer by profession, O'Brien practiced successfully in Grand Rapids and Marshall, Mich. He was named minister to Denmark in 1905, and remained at Copenhagen until 1907, when he was promoted to ambassador to Tokyo. After serving there for four years, he was transferred to Rome in 1911.

Born at Jackson, Mich., July 30, 1842, O'Brien attended Marshall high school, and was graduated from University of Michigan law school in 1865. Forty-three years later he was awarded an honorary degree of LL.D by his alma mater. He began the practice of law at Grand Rapids in 1871.

In 1873 he married Miss Delia Howard. Their daughter Katherine is the wife of Henry C. Chilton, a secretary to the British legation at Copenhagen during the O'Briens' stay in Denmark.

O'Brien also is survived by a son Howard, of Monroe, Mich. The daughter now is a resident of Chile, where her husband is ambassador for Great Britain. Mrs. O'Brien died several years ago.

Beer Now Is Legal In Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, May 19 (AP)—Beer became legal today in Atlanta, dry Georgia's largest city, and within an hour traffic policemen were directing the thirsty to the nearest bar.

At a heated session council passed the measure 22 to 14, and Mayor James L. Key signed it.

The Fulton county sheriff's office announced no raids would be made but pointed out county officers would be forced to serve any warrants sworn out by the individual citizens charging violation of the state bone dry law.

Meanwhile Governor Talmadge, who has refused to call a special session of the legislature to legalize beer, announced he could do nothing about the situation in Atlanta.

Atlanta is the 14th Georgia city to declare beer legal

State Police Told to Oust T. E. Thorson

Ironwood, Mich., May 19 (AP)—Confronted today by Lieutenant O. A. Demaray, of Marquette, commander of the Upper Peninsula detachment of state police, Thorwald E. Thorson, of Ironwood, who has steadfastly refused to vacate his office as upper peninsula welfare director, contending that his dismissal was illegal under the veterans' preference act, notified Governor Comstock's secretary, through William S. Pellow, Gogebic county prosecuting attorney, that he would surrender his state equipment and records when and if requested to do so by William S. Carpenter, state welfare director.

Lieut. Demaray received telegraphic instructions this morning from O. K. Fjetland, secretary to the governor, to come here at once and seize state property held by Thorson.

When the state police officer informed Thorson of his mission, Thorson conferred with Prosecutor Pellow and the following telegram was sent to Mr. Fjetland by Pellow:

"Reserving his rights under the veterans' preference act, Thorson will surrender to Lieutenant Demaray his state welfare equipment and automobile upon receipt of such instructions from W. S. Carpenter, state welfare director."

Twice, previous to today, Thorson had told Governor Comstock, in telegrams, that he would not surrender the office and each time demanded a hearing under the veterans' preference act. Thorson held that his dismissal was illegal, despite the fact that Governor Comstock several weeks ago

PROMISES AID FOR FARMERS

Wisconsin Milk Strike Ends, Grievances to Be Investigated

Madison, Wis., May 19 (AP)—A few hours after the Wisconsin milk strike ended, Gov. A. G. Schmedeman faced several thousand none too friendly farmers today and promised energetic efforts to solve the difficulties of agriculture in an orderly manner.

Speaking in the University of Wisconsin gymnasium to the farmers who descended on the capital unexpectedly in response to a secretly organized "march to Madison," the governor was greeted with some hostility as he entered with Adjutant Genearl Ralph M. Immell, target of many attacks of farm leaders for his activities in suppressing strike disorders.

Mediators were in the governor's office arranging final details of the milk strike peace as the farmers reached Madison. Many in the gymnasium did not know that the controversy which had raged over the state six days had been called off. There was some booing as a squad cleared a path to the platform for the governor and his military chieftain.

Promises Cooperation

But the governor was heard with attention.

"I promise you sincerely that I will do everything in my power to see that you are again made happy and prosperous," Governor Schmedeman said. "I know that you are a peaceful and law abiding citizenry and that you are trying to bring before the people the nature of your plight."

He made only slight reference to the succession of riots which prompted calling out half the national guardsmen for service as civilian deputy sheriffs.

"You have sense enough to

Beer To Be Sold At Belle Isle Casino

Detroit, May 19. (AP)—Plans for the sale of beer at the Casino on Belle Isle, in the Detroit river, were completed Friday by Henry W. Busch, commissioner of parks and boulevards. Busch said the Casino will open Sunday, but will not be open for week-days until May 30. Sale of beer, he said, will be delayed by the necessity of installing equipment. It will not be sold elsewhere on the island.

SUGGESTS TAX ON SALES FOR PUBLIC WORKS

UNITED STATES C-C PRESIDENT ALSO APPROVES

BY CECIL B. DICKSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, May 19 (AP)—Labor and business today gave full endorsement to the administration's gigantic re-employment industry control bill and approved financing a $3,300,000,000 public work bond issue with a general manufacturers' sales tax.

These views were expressed by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Henry I. Harriman, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, to the house ways and means committee, at the second day of hearings on the bill.

Predicts Repeal

Green qualified his approval of the sales tax, however, with the provision that the sales levy be imposed during the present emergency for the public works bond issue only and with the stipulation that it be automatically ended when the revenue is not needed.

Asserting he favored repeal of the eighteenth amendment Harriman said if that was brought about revenue on liquor would amount to between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000.

"I think the American people have enough common sense to bring about repeal within two years," Harriman said.

He referred to President Roosevelt's message to congress on the legislation, asking for a tax levy until either the eighteenth amendment is repealed or until the treasury can bear the interest burden on the public works bond issue.

"I think the manufacturers sales tax is the fairest item on the program and the most unfair is that tax on dividends, because that is double taxation," Harriman said, in discussing the four revenue programs submitted to the committee yesterday by Lewis W. Douglas, budget director.

Douglas suggested increases in normal income tax rates and the making of stock dividends, subject to the normal income taxes.

Opposes Gas Tax Rate

In hailing the measure as a forward step bringing about economic recovery, revival of industry, increases in employment and raises in wages, both Green and Harriman advocated removal of the limit of 30 per cent outright grants by the federal government to states, cities and towns for propects. The federal government, they said, should give the whole amount in order that small communities, where there is no employment, may be given work.

In opposing the proposed increase in the gasoline tax, Harriman said "this should be left to the states," and he added the so-called "breakfast tax" for levies on coffee, tea and cocoa, were too high.

Harriman said he would prefer the launching of a $2,000,000,000 public works program, and opposed the recommendation by Green that the bill be amended to provide for a $5,000,000,000 public construction program. He added, however, he did not think the $400,000,000 allotment for highway construction was large enough.

Harriman suggested that a provision be inserted to continue the life of the act for the life of the emergency, instead of limit-

JOBLESS TILL INDIANA SOIL

100,000 Families Given Benefit Last Year, Hunger Beaten

Lafayette, Ind. (AP) A war in which many battles were fought and won last year by the jobless is being carried into new sectors of Indiana this spring — a war in which hoes and spades are the heavy artillery and kitchen gardens the battle fields.

Taking the initiative is the Indiana community and industrial garden movement, which, says H. E. Young, horticulturist of Purdue university, is the only one of its kind proceeding upon an organized state-wide basis.

Last year relief gardens under the direction of Young comprised more than 8,000 acres, produced food valued at $2,000,000 and benefited approximately 100,000 families.

Large Increase Seen

This year, Young says, the movement promises an increase of from 50 to 100 per cent, with a food production of $3,000,000 and a benefit to 150,000 families.

Plowing is being done and seed prepared on that basis.

The idea was borrowed from the war gardens of 1917 and 1918.

These gardens are to provide work as well as food for those out of full-time jobs, help conserve public and private relief funds, supply food for winter relief, promote selfhelp, better morale and better health.

Farmer Not Hurt

"Subsistence gardens," says Young, "have no conflict with commercial vegetable production nor with the farmer. Their products are not for sale."

Cooperating in the movement are the governor's relief commission, Purdue university, township trustees who in Indiana are charged with the duties of supplying poor relief, charity organizations and industrialists.

A few examples of how communities have utilized garden work include Brazil, where the township trustee's relief garden saved taxpayers $3,000 during July, August and September and produced an additional $2,000 of food for winter relief.

The largest community relief-work garden, at Gary, of 105 acres, was operated by the township trustee at a saving of $12,000 of poor relief funds, even at prevailing low prices.

Muncie supervised 1,760 acres of relief home gardens and 50 acres of community gardens, while 70 acres at Evansville netted the unemployed relief organization more than $10,000 in winter food products.

President Roosevelt regards Morgan as one of the best qualified men in the country for his new post. He has had long experience in this type of work.

In 1920, when he became president of Antioch, he reorganized the college program along the lines of a cooperative work-study plan by which the students obtained practical experience along with theoretical knowledge.

The college operating budget has increased from $15,000 a year to $700,000 and the campus property from four buildings and 20 acres of land to 35 buildings and 1,000 acres.

Michigan Receives Loan Of $2,062,990

Lansing, May 19. (AP) A check for $2,062,990 was received today by the state from the Reconstruction Finance corporation covering the welfare needs of various political subdivisions extending from the middle of April through May 15.

Coincident with the receipt of the check came a telegram to Governor Comstock from Fred C. Croxton, assistant to the directors of the R. F. C., stating that it had approved an additional advance of $6,263 for Kent county. The telegram stated that the amount covered by the check and the release for Kent completes Michigan's allotment for the present.

Croxton explained that funds under the emergency relief act of last year are "approximately exhausted."

gave added importance to the Duce's position on the eve of the grand council meeting tomorrow.

At this meeting Signor Mussolini is expected to voice his opinions on important subjects with no sparing of words.

The presence of Herr Goering is generally construed as meaning that the Fascists and the Nazis will be in accord on whatever line of attack the Duce elects to take.

Herr Goering arrived secretly this evening by airplane. He is believed to have brought personal assurances of support from Chancellor Hitler.

That Hitler's speech before the Reichstag has served to cement the Italo-German front more strongly than ever is evidenced by the reaction here. With this is coupled th moral support which the brown shirts and the black shirts believe they found in President Roosevelt's message. The result is new hope here that the Fascists and the Nazis in collaboration may be able to marshall world opinion on their side.

The Italian and German leaders feel themselves particularly aided by the fact that both have quickly and warmly approved the American suggestion for peace.

The Duce in his speech to the council is expected to take his stand with President Roosevelt in declaring that the time has come to put an end to quibbling if the world is to be saved from chaos.

Dog Owners Given Financial Relief

Lansing, May 19 (AP) Governor Comstock today wrote into law a measure of financial relief for dog owners.

The Morrison bill reducing dog licenses was signed by the executive. The new fees are: for licenses applied for before June 1, $1 for male or unsexed animals and $2 for females; if license asked June 1 or after, $2 for male or unsexed dogs and $4 for females; kennels of ten dogs or less, $7.50 and more than ten dogs, $15. An additional fee of $5 will be charged for kennel licenses applied for after June 1. County supervisors may reduce the fees if the amount collected is sufficient to pay damage done by dogs.

Girl Now Feeling Effects Of Poison

Detroit, May 18 (AP) Although its victim is unaware of it, death hovered tonight near the hospital cot on which pretty 22-year-old Agnes Remsik, of Chicago, lies suffering from a subtle, slow-acting poison taken two weeks ago after a "spat" with her sweetheart.

Physicians, helpless because there is no known antidote to aid the girl in recovery, said she was failing rapidly. They expressed some hope, however, because of Agnes' strong physique the only means through which she may throw off the ravages of the drug.

"She might surprise everyone and pull through," said Dr. Louis Lipschutz of the hospital staff. "She still has a chance." Agnes, he said, has not been told that almost every case in which no immediate treatment for the drug has been administered has proven fatal.

The girl admitted today that she took 12 pills containing the poison after a quarrel with her sweetheart, Albert Stevens, of Chicago, in a hotel room here. At first she told attendants at the hospital that she took the pills by mistake.

Escanaba's Milk Dealers Seeking City Regulation

Means of regulating the quality of milk being sold by dealers in the city of Escanaba were discussed at a meeting of local dealers and city officials yesterday.

Mayor Carl J. Sawyer appointed a special committe, composed of Martin Hendricksen, Joseph E. Turner and H. P. Landsay, to investigate the situation and make recommendations to the city council to guide that body in the drafting of an ordinance. The committee will hold its first meeting next Wednesday.

Milk Dealers of Escanaba reported they were suffering from the effects of unfair competition from outside milk peddlers. The local dealers operate under state health department regulations, paying for licenses, local taxes and maintaining prescribed conditions at their plants, all involving considerable expense. The outside peddlers, however, are able to undersell them, due to the fact that they do not have the expense of maintaining a permanent high standard in the milk they sell to the public, it is claimed.

The adoption of an ordinance prescribing uniform standards for all milk sold to consumers in Escanaba, will place the milk business on a fair competitive basis, it is pointed out by the local dealers.

improvement in the price of silver would lead to a general advance in commodity prices and would stimulate foreign trade by increasing the purchasing power of millions of orientals.

Position Clarified

Among the nations which have participated in the silver discussions and which are described by Pittman as in agreement on the program he outlined are: Mexico, producer of 42 per cent of the world's supply, Canada and Argentina, other heavy producers, and China the principal user of silver as money.

In a joint communique issued at the White House by President Roosevelt and T. V. Soong, Chinese finance minister, at the conclusion of their conversations, it was described as "essential that the price of silver, the great medium of exchange of the east, should be enhanced and stabilized."

Secretary Hull at the state department clarified the American government's position on currency stabilization, saying that although the major nations are agreed that their moneys should be stabilized as soon as possible no agreement is immediately in sight.

The first step, Hull said, probably would be a defacto stabilization which he defined as an initial step based on the best guess that could be made as to where the dollar or pound or franc would properly find itself.

Seabury Refuses To Seek Mayoralty

New York, May 19 (AP) Samuel Seabury, prosecutor of the investigation into New York City's governmental affairs which ended in the resignation of Mayor James J. Walker, declined tonight to become fusion candidate for mayor.

The veteran lawyer, who conducted the Walker hearing before President Roosevelt, then governor of New York, accompanied his refusal with a pledge to aid in election of a ticket "worthy of support."

At one time Boston had an ordinance which made it unlawful to bathe in a bath tub.

J. W. HARRIMAN MISSING, NOTES HINT SUICIDE

man noticed Harriman leaving the hospital, on East 61st street, shortly before noon.

Arrested March 14

Harriman has been under physician's care for several months.

On March 14, while ill in bed at his home, he was arrested on a federal warrant charging misuse of the banks funds. United States Attorney George Z. Medalie, simultaneously, said the investigation begun more than a year ago indicated the falsification of three accounts, including that of the National Exhibition company, owners of the New York Giants.

Bail was then set at $25,000 and was continued when he was carried into the federal courtroom April 10 on a stretcher and pleaded not guilty.

Trial was set for May 8 and was continued because of his illness to May 22.

The banker's attorney said he went to the hospital immediately after he was notified by them that Harriman had not returned. After waiting for more than an hour, he telephoned the police.

Leisure's statement included a report on Harriman's condition by Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe, brain specialist who has ben attending him. It was as follows:

"Mr. Joseph Harriman has for some time been a seriously ill man. For some years he had had a serious kidney lesion and disease of his blood vessels. This latter had involved the brain structure and brought about, coupled with his great business anxiety, a definite impairment of his memory, judgment, and ability to transact business. The arteriosclerosis later developed a severe coronary thrombosis which culminated, in December, 1932, in an attack of angina pectoris.

"For many months he has had the constant attention of heart and brain specialists as the mental disturbance was becoming more and more disabling, which required him to be under close supervision in a sanitarium."

Gladstone Man Is Elected President By Mail Workers

Ishpeming, Mich., May 19 (AP) A list of the officers of the Northern Peninsula Branch of the Railway Mail association for the ensuing year was announced here today following a tabulation of ballots made by Rudolph M. Urich, of Champion.

The new officers are: Edward A. Lawin, of Gladstone, president; Frank R. Don Levy, of Oconto, Wis., vice president; R. M. Urich, of Champion, secretary treasurer; Charles L. Markert, of Ishpeming, and M. R. Schumacher, of Powers, members of executive committee for two-year term.

Olaf A. Olson, of Green Bay, Wis., a former Escanaba resident, was chosen delegate to the division convention in St. Paul, Minn., which will be held in June.

WILL ESTABLISH LANDING FIELDS

Reforestation Workers to Clear Sites for Airports

Men assigned to federal and state forestry corps camps, established in the upper peninsula, will be used for work on airports and emergency landing fields, it was announced here yesterday afternoon by Col. Floyd Evans, state aeronautics director, and H. R. Sayre of Lansing, field administration chief of the state department of conservation, prior to their departure by plane for Lansing.

James E. Mogan, deputy auditor general, who came here with the plane earlier in the week, and Dr. A. L. Haight, of Crystal Falls, accompanied them on the return trip. They stopped off for a brief inspection of the Nahma airport, now under construction.

Flying in Col. Evans' plane, the state officers visited the Sidnaw, Trout Creek and Watersmeet landing field sites Wednesday and yesterday they inspected the sites at Metropolitan, LaBranche, Beaver, Gwinn and Ishpeming. Late yesterday afternoon they landed at Crystal Falls and motored to Marquette. Col. Evans and Mr. Sayre will return to Crystal Falls early this morning and take off for Lansing.

Funds for Ishpeming Field

Col. Evans said last evening that money had been released for grading and clearing the landing field south of the Blueberry mine near Ishpeming and that it was proposed to use county welfare labor on this work.

Wherever a landing field or airport site is near a state or federal forestry camp, men from that camp will be employed in developing the field, Evans stated. Such assistance already has been provided for the Sidnaw landing field and for the airport near Strongs, he said.

Sites for 19 state forestry corps camps have been recommended by the state conservation department, Mr. Sayre said, and several of these sites are near locations selected for landing fields, but to date only three of the camp sites have been given federal approval. It is expected that within a short time federal authorities will approve all of the proposed state camps and that four or five more will be authorized for the upper peninsula.

abolished the office of deputy welfare director for the upper peninsula.

The governor ordered the state police to confiscate state property held by Thorson when he was advised to take that action by Patrick H. O'Brien, state attorney general.

Bouquet Of Tulips Given To Comstock

Holland, Mich., May 19. (AP) A delegation of Holland citizens, dressed in old country costumes and bearing huge bouquets of tulip blooms, visited the state capitol today, distributing tulips among the legislators and state officials there. A bowl of the blooms was placed on the desk of Governor William A. Comstock.

More than a dozen bands will compete for $350 in cash prizes and three silver trophies in the closing day of the tulip festival tomorrow. A parade of the bands and competitive rendition of classic selections will take place in the afternoon.

Judges of the musical competition will be Leonard Falsone, bandmaster at Michigan State college; L. D. Bullard, assistant conductor of the Grand Rapids symphony orchestra, and Leon Metcalf, composer and bandmaster at University of Michigan.

Scientists Break Up Element Atoms

Pasadena, Calif., May 19 (AP) The breaking up of the atoms of many elements, heralded as one of the most notable advances in physics in many years in the search into the mystery of nature, was disclosed here today.

Prof. E. O. Lawrence of the University of California told a distinguished group of scientists that during the past two weeks atotms of aluminum, berylium, nitrogen, calcium flouride, sodium flouride, flourinum, as well as lithium and boron have been artificially disintegrated at Berkeley, Calif.

ing it to two years.

"If wisely administered," he said, "so that production can be properly coordinated, I am convinced the full use of trade practice agreements will raise wages and purchasing power, stabilize production, and increase employment."

"Labor gives unqualified approval to this proposed legislation," Green said, provided two amendments he suggested strengthening the language outlawing "yellow dog" labor contracts and company unions were inserted.

"Along with its friends, it (labor) hails this suggested legislative step as a definite advance toward economic recovery," he added, predicting it would give work to 6,000,000 unemployed men, if properly administered.

Harriman said the president's proposal to bring about national industrial cooperation, increasing purchasing power and stabilized prices are construction and are of the "utmost importance."

Green said he would, as a labor leader, but not speaking for all labor, favor a sales levy to provide interest payments "during the emergency."

The position Green took, in view of the uncompromising attitude organized labor had taken against sales taxes for the operation of the government, encouraged members of the committee who favor this form of raising revenue.

Lucille Meyer Is Speech Winner At Junior High School

Lucille Meyer, delivering "Lincoln, A Man Called of God," won first place in the declamation contest held for ninth graders in the junior high school yesterday afternoon. Second place was won by Roger Rowley whose declamation was "The Man Who Wears the Button." There was a tie for third place between Roger Shandonay whose delivery was "The Black Horse and His Rider" and Gerald Johnson with "All Quiet on the Western Front."

Other contestants were William Boucher, "Toussaint L'Ouverture," Lorraine LaCrosse, "The Liberty Bell," Albertine St. Martin "Children of the Poor," and Eddie Marie Voght "Lincoln, A Man Called of God."

The judges were Miss Irons, Miss Meighan and Joseph Shinman. Mary Beth Lewis was chairman.

The eighth grade contest will be held next week.

OBITUARY

MRS. C. H. MANIGOLD

Funeral services for Mrs. Cecil H. Manigold, 75, will be held at the Anderson Funeral Home at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. Thomas Foster officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Lakeview cemetery, where her husband and two children are buried.

Mrs. Manigold was born in Watertown, N. Y. Following her marriage to Edward L. Manigold, they moved to Free Soil, Mich., where they resided until 25 years later when they moved to Carlshend. She lived in Carlshend for 30 years, and came to Escanaba last August to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Plucker.

She is survived by a brother, C. A. Remmington, Hibbing, Minn.; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Dean, Free Soil; four grandchidren, Douglas and Ernestine Manigold, Snover, Mich.; Gail, Carbondale, Pa.; Barnett Mills, Escanaba; and one great grandchild, Gail Manigold, Jr., Carbondale.

Pallbearers will be: Gilbert Johnson, John Berg, August Fagerburg, all of Carlshend; John Back, Andrew Peterson and Howard Plucker, Escanaba.

Hailstorm Wreaks Damage In Delta County Villages

Considerable damage to composition roofs on buildings, auto tops and windows was caused by the hailstorm that hit Delta county shortly after seven o'clock last night. Damage was reported in Escanaba and no hail and but little rain fell in Gladstone. In Escanaba the hailstones were the size of marbles while from farther up the bay they were reported to be the size of hen's eggs.

From Masonville and Rapid River a number of automobile tops were reported to have been torn to shreds by the hail. Forty-three window panes were broken in the Brampton garage and in the same community a stock of goods suffered damage from water in one of the stores after the hailstones had torn holes in the prepared roofing.

The weather bureau at Escanaba reports that .14 of an inch of rain fell in the few minutes that the storm lasted. According to information from the weather bureau, hailstorms occur when falling rain is caught up in the uprushing currents of air and carried high into the cold upper air where it is frozen and then falls as hail.

A hailstone may make several of these excursions in succession to higher cold and lower warm regions by alternately falling part way to the earth when additional moisture is deposited and again being caught up in a violent rush of air. Thus, occasionally hailstonese are built up to a large size. Usually, the hotter the weather the larger the hailstones will be. Hailstones of the size of a baseball or even larger have been known to fall during hailstorms that have come in summer thunderstorms.

know that when any group takes the law into its own hands there are certain fundamental principles of government that must be maintained," he asserted.

The milk strike was called off early today by the arbitration committee of the Wisconsin Milk Pool after the governor had agreed to appoint a committee of five, three farmers and at least one a member of the pool, to investigate specific grievances of dairymen.

The committee is to study possibility of changing the present system of marketing milk. At present a base price is paid for milk to be distributed in bottles, and a lower price is offered for surplus converted into butter and other products. The committee will suggest reroganization of the state department of agriculture and markets, feasibility of legislation to keep chain stores out of food manufacturing, and will urge the federal department of agriculture to stimulate milk prices.

FLOW IS RENEWED

Menominee, Mich., May 19. (AP) The milk strike in Menominee county which yesterday temporarily held up all milk coming into the city, ended in its sixth day today. Local strike leaders concurred in the arbitration effected in Wisconsin where the strike had been more serious. Pickets left the highways today and condensaries, cheese factories and creameries in the county prepared to reopen tomorrow.

BUSINESS SEES IMPROVEMENT

Charted Lines Topping Last Year's for First Time

BY J. R. BRACKETT

New York (AP)—The heavy downward lines on the starts showing business' conditions are being pierced by the upward lines of 1933—the first time that so many major statistical indicators have been able to exceed the previous year since the depression began.

Statisticians smile as they point to the fact that the heavy industries, such as steel and automobile production, finally are improving after an almost continuous slide since 1929.

Commodity Prices Improve

Basic hope that present business recovery will carry through to normality lies in the improvement of commodity prices all along the line, and the prospect that the tremendously important construction industry will receive the needed stimulus from proposed government public works projects.

By the middle of May commodity prices reached a high for this year, and are higher than a year ago at this time.

Railroad carloadings, while not quite to the mark of last year in the same period, approached very near it. Electric power production, indicating increased use on the part of industry, slightly exceeded last year.

Steel ingot production, definite indicator of the heavy industries, exceeded last year by a considerable margin. Automobile production also has exceeded expectations.

These statistics, plus almost every other indicator, have moved upward enough so that the general curve of business activity, combining many statistics, has now surmounted that of last year.

Statisticians also point with some degree of confidence to the extremely low rate of decline in recent months, as indication that a bottom resistance level has been established. Few are making definite predictions that the turn has been reached, but the majority are more hopeful than in many months.

Delta County Sends 65 To Conservation Camps

Like the days of 1917-18, Delta county's first contingent of federal forestry camp "volunteers" bid goodbye to relatives and friends and sweethearts Friday afternoon and shoved off to start their six months enlistment as United States soldiers of the woods. The local group consisting of 65 young men left the city hall at 4 p. m. in three large buses, with Fort Brady, Sault Ste. Marie, the "recruit" training camp, as the first objective. After two weeks of "conditioning" under the guidance of army and reserve officers they will be assigned to work in some of the sites selected for road building, reforestation, and other conservation and improvement projects, probably in the upper peninsula camps.

There were about 175 young men gathered at the office of N. P. Thompson, state employment agent, in the city hall, when examinations started Friday morning, and the physical checkups were kept going steadily, with "enlistment" papers handled through Mr. Thompson's office.

Their Own Music

All those reporting for work brought equipment which they figured they would need during their sojourn as employes of Uncle Sam, some including with their suitcases a banjo, guitar, mouthorgan or other favorite device for whiling away the evenings, rainy days and holidays. Several boys reported in addition to those previously registered and asked to be given a chance to take the examination in case some of the others failed to report or did not pass the physical tests. No word has been received as to when another group will be picked at Escanaba, Mr. Thompson said.

The choice yesterday was limited mostly to young men who have dependents and have been unable to find work. Every township in Delta county as represented in the quota yesterday, and there were 29 from Escanaba and 10 from Gladstone. Payday for the forest army comes every two weeks and the boys send home monthly allotments of $20 and up.

City of Escanaba

Harley J. Cass, Theodore Dart, James Johnson, Russell Owen, Marc Haglund, Donald Belelle, Harry Trombley, John Dubord, Alvin Colson, Roger Smith, Charles E. THEATRES

"The Mind Reader" and "Fast Workers," will be shown again in a double feature program at the Delft Theatre today.

Lovers of entertainment in general, and Warren William fans in particular, were given both a treat and a surprise when "The Mind Reader," the latest production from the First National studios starring this versatile actor, opened at the Delft Theatre last evening.

"The Mind Reader," though not primarily an expose of frauds, nevertheless takes the spectator behind the scenes of the crystal-gazing game, and shows how a few telephone wires and a trained confederate can make a "psychic" of any quick-witted man or woman who has no objection to making money in that manner.

With John Gilbert and Robert Armstrong teamed as two riveters of romantic inclination, Mae Clarke, Muriel Kirkland, Vince Barnett and Virginia Cherrill for hilarious comedy "Fast Workers," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer thriller of skyscrapers and the men who build them, opened last night at the Delft Theatre.

John McDermott's play, "Rivets," furnished the basis for the screen story which has scenes filmed on top of Manhattan's tallest buildings to serve as a breath-taking setting for the action between Gilbert and Armstrong. On the ground they become involved in an odd "marriage bargain" that finally results in a deadly quarrel on a girder ninety stories in the air.

SHOUSE SHOWS REPEAL SETUP

End of Prohibition Before Close of Year Looks Possible

Washington, May 19. (AP)—Repeal of the eighteenth amendment before the end of the year was seen as a possibility tonight by Jouett Shouse, president of the association against the prohibition amendment, with votes expected by him in 37 states during 1933.

The house survey showed the following situation:

States where governors have signed convention bills, 37.

States where bill is before governor (Texas), 1.

States where one branch of legislature has acted, 1.

States which failed to pass legislation or governor vetoed, 5.

States where legislatures meet in 1934, 4.

Of the 37, four—Michigan, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Wisconsin—already have voted for repeal, and Wyoming county conventions were held today.

States which have set convention elections for 1933 number 25, and are as follows:

New York—May 23.
Delaware—May 27.
Nevada—May 27.
Illinois—June 5.
Indiana—June 6.
Massachusetts—June 13.
Connecticut—June 20.
Iowa—June 20.
New Hampshire—June 20.
California—June 27.
West Virginia—June 27.
Alabama—July 18.
Arkansas—July 18.
Tennessee—July 20.
Oregon—July 21.
Washington—August 29.
Vermont—Sept. 5.
Maine—Sept. 11.
Maryland—Sept. 12.
Minnesota—Sept. 12.
New Mexico—Sept. 19.
Ohio—Nov. 7.
Pennsylvania—Nov. 7.
South Carolina—Nov. 7.
North Carolina—Nov. 7

In Texas, a bill passed by the legislature is before Governor Miriam Ferguson, setting the date this year.

Shouse listed the following states as expected to set their elections in 1933: Arizona, Florida, Idaho, Missouri, Montana and Utah.

South Dakota and Nebraska have fixed their dates definitely for November 6, 1934; one Georgia, Kansas and North Dakota legislatures adjourned without action; the governors of Colorado and Oklahoma vetoed repeal machinery resolutions, and legislatures of Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi and Virginia do not meet until next year.

RURAL EDUCATION

PRELIMINARY statistics on the workings of the 15-mill limitation amendment indicate that the Maple Ridge, Masonville and other township school districts will suffer drastic reductions in their budgets.

Receipts from the primary school fund will be decreased by at least 25 per cent, the Turner Fund aid is automatically eliminated ,and the amount that can be raised by local taxation is drastically reduced. The only hope lies in the legislation now being considered by the state legislature for a supplementary state school aid fund, to be financed out of the receipts of a proposed sales and gross income tax.

Whether this state aid plan will carry a provision for equalization of educational advantages to the so-called poorer school districts, such as was done under the Turner Act Fund, still remains uncertain. Escanaba and Delta county have long fought for the principle equalization, and the fight will be continued.

The principal problem of rural education is to bring the levels of educational opportunity in the rural sections up to those existing in the urban communities. The theory that the state, as a whole, must help the weaker and poor districts has gained virtually general acceptance, since the country supplies the boys and girls who eventually become the citizens of the large centers.

Under the Turner Fund equalization plan, Masonville and Maple Ridge have been able to enlarge their curricula, and to offer a good high school education to the boys and girls at home. Many children would have been denied these opportunities had no such institutions been provided in their home communities.

It is to be hoped, therefore, that the state of Michigan will continue to recognize the principle of equalization, when the new legislation for educational aid is being considered.

THE SPEEDING PROBLEM

EVERY city in the United States, undoubtedly, has its automobile speeding problem, and Escanaba is no exception. Periodic campaigns are waged by police against traffic violators. For awhile, motorists make an effort to observe the regulations; but it is not long before they fall back into their old habits.

Reports of speeding on Washington avenue, Ludington street and other thoroughfares were mentioned at the city council meeting last Thursday night. On many of these streets, small children are always present, and the possibility for accidents is great.

This week, two children were slightly injured when they ran aimlessly into the sides of moving automobiles. Parents have a duty to perform in instructing their boys and girls how to conduct themselves when they cross the streets. And the motorist is not to be entirely absolved of any responsibility, however. The driver should operate his automobile under full control, so that he may be in a position to stop promptly in such danger zones.

A few arrests for speeding at this time might have a steadying influence on a great many motorists. And it may save the life of some child.

A LOAF OF BREAD AND A HUNK OF CHEESE

LEGALIZATION of beer has resulted in the springing up of a large number of new "restaurants" in Escanaba and elsewhere, the reason being that eating places may obtain a license to sell beer on the premises for $100 whereas beer gardens must pay $200 for their permits.

The Michigan beer law, however, stipulates that the serving of food must be the main business of an establishment, which obtains the restaurant class of license for the sale of beer. In some instances, there have been attempts to get around the law by merely keeping a loaf of bread and chunks of cold meat or cheese on hand.

At Thursday night's meeting of the Escanaba city council, it was indicated that the state liquor control commission would enforce the strict interpretation of the restaurant license law, and for that reason several applications for such permits were held up.

Commenting on this particular situation in the state, the Marquette Mining Journal published the following editorial recently:

"Comment on the licensing that has been done on recommendation of, the local governing boards indicates that when the liquor control commission gets around to making a survey many of the licenses will be rescinded if its members take a stand for enforcement of the letter and the spirit of the law. These local boards have been liberal to the last degree in their interpretation of the word "restaurant" as used in the law. There has been, in consequence, a most remarkable expansion of the restaurant business. It is, of course, an expansion that bears no relation to the realities, and if the liquor control commission has any respect for realities we will presently have a decline in the number of restaurants as remarkable as its recent increase.

"The law of supply and demand is likely to work in that direction even before the commission can undertake a survey. Many of the new "restaurants" have already found that the profits to be made from beer are much smaller than was anticipated. They are by no means sufficient to meet the expense of conducting a place opened primarily to serve beer. To make ends meet, there will have to be some dealing in hard liquor on the sly. It won't do to make the ostensible restaurants real restaurants. There were too many of the latter to start with. Within a few weeks, it is predicted, hundreds of places opened with the purpose of handling beer will voluntarily go out of business.

"There is a lot of clean up work the commission will have to do before the traffic can be said to be established on a sound basis. It was got into in a great hurry, with all the mistakes that must follow on undue haste in such a demanding task."

'SPLENDID ISOLATION' COMES TO END

WHEN President Roosevelt addressed himself to the people of the world on disarmament, America's famous tradition of "splendid isolation" went toppling over into the dust, and it seems probable that it will stay there.

As a matter of fact, of course, this splendid isolation toppled years ago. But the tradition remained, and that was what caused trouble. We had a tradition to which we gave almost unanimous support, and it failed to jibe with the facts. To support it meant that we had to shut our eyes to the realities.

We were fond of talking and acting as if the Atlantic ocean was just as wide now as a century ago. We laid our international course on charts drawn up in the days of sailing ships and stage coaches, and when we steered ourselves into trouble we wondered, plaintively, why fate was being so unkind.

Nineteen years ago Europe got into a war, and before it was over we got into it also — although we're still trying to figure out just what we gained by it.

Since the war Europe has packed a century of troubles into a decade and a half; and a good many of them have slopped over the edges and spilled right on us. The Bolshevism of Russia, the rivalry between France and Germany, the tangled finances of Europe as a whole, the trade wars growing out of the postwar mixup, the need of foreign nations for American money and, later, their inability to pay that money back — all of these things have had a tremendous direct effect on the conditions of life for each one of us.

In the face of those uncomfortable facts, our tradition of isolation has had a thin time of it.

We are as close to Europe today as the England of Pitt was to the France of Napoleon. Not only is it impossible for us to remain aloof from European quarrels; we cannot even restore our own internal prosperity as we would wish to until Europe's most pressing problems are settled. We have, when you get right down to it, about as much real isolation as a traffic cop on a busy corner.

Well, then — so what? Won't it be a good thing if at last we accept the realities of the situation and do what we can to set things right? If we must make commitments overseas, let us make them and be done with it. However it turns out, we shall at least be looking the facts in the face.

DARLING FOOL

CHAPTER XXVI

Dan explained slowly, painfully. "It's like this, you see. She's had a shock. She's not — not herself. She keeps calling for me. When she's well enough the doctor says it'll be all right for her to make this trip. And Dad — all the rest of them seem to think I ought to go along. Just," he hastened to add, "to humor her. She's perfectly all right. It was just a bad shock."

"I see," Monnie lifted her eyes, staring out at the fading garden.

Dan rushed along. It was not like him to be so garrulous. These fellows, he said, had got away. Sandra was so dazed she couldn't even describe them. They'd been foreigners, though. Hadn't talked much English — not that she could understand, anyway. She had been plucky, hadn't she, to get away from them?

"Very brave," agreed Monnie quietly. Sandra seemed definitely the heroine of the occasion.

"Her father was on his way to put the money where they asked," Dan pursued. "He was just about wild. Willing to do anything to get her back. But she wasn't having any of that!" Dan's eyes shone. You could see he admired Sandra's courage.

"Not that I want to go — for a minute," Dan told her later. "It just seems — well — the best thing. You see Mr. Lawrence holds that big loan of Dad's. This is confidential, of couse. Dad wants to stand in with him right now. I'd be a pig, wouldn't I, to hold out against him?"

Again Monnie agreed. The best thing — of course it was — merely that, nothing more. No plot to get Dan away from her. She was foolish to imagine that, even for a minute. Such things were done only in old-time melodramas. Besides, weren't she and Dan pledged to each other? This was the end of August — almost September. In January they would be married.

"I'll miss you horribly, every minute," Dan told her on parting. She stood, facing him, her amber eyes darkened with the pain of impending separation. Little bronze tendrils curled about her pearl-pale face. "I'll be thinking of you, too, Dan," she told him soberly.

"Well, then—" He was awkwardly trying to tear himself away. "It's early but I've got all that packing to do. We make an early start on Wednesday. I won't be able to see you tomorrow night."

Her heart was like lead. "It doesn't matter."

He put his arms about her. "You're sweet, Monnie, d'ye know that? My girl!"

"Don't, Dan. Someone might see."

No one must know — no one — their plans for the future. Some jealous fate might intervene.

How big he was, how spendid, Monnie thought, watching him stride down the path. Why was it that, in spite of all his protestations, her heart failed her, went sick and faint when she thought of the impending separation? Nothing would happen. Sandra would find that Dan's heart was sealed against her. It was just bad luck that affairs fell out so Dan had to go to Wyoming with the party.

She went back into the house where Kay sat, mending some flimsy pink garment. Kay looked up seriously.

"That Dan?"

Monnie nodded.

"He left early, didn't he?"

"Yes. He's awfully busy. Going to a dude ranch on Wednesday with the family."

"I read about it in the News," Kay said coolly. She knew then that Sandra was in the party. But she refrained from further comment. Kay went on stitching, humming a little tune under her breath.

Monnie picked up a book and tried to read but her restlessness was acute. A pain beat at the back of her mind like a living thing. She felt sick, envious, discouraged. Sandra had everything and she had nothing. Her job was deadly. Always the same. She could do bigger things, more interesting ones, but because she was the mainstay of the little family she dared not take a chance. She sighed and found Kay watching her.

"Don't you feel well?"

"I have a headache," Monnie said. Heartache was nearer the truth but she would not admit it.

"Take an aspirin when you go to bed," said Kay practically.

Twenty-four hours more and Dan would be speeding westward away from her. She would have his letters, of course, but Dan's letters were never satisfactory. When he was away from her he seemed to vanish completely. Oh, she was a fool, she knew that, to be so apprehensive. What did a month matter? He would be back soon.

"You have the fidgets," Kay observed, threading her needle. "Why don't you toddle off and get some rest?"

"Believe I will."

Kay gazed sternly at the doorway through which she had just passed. "Darn Dan Cardigan, anyway!" she whispered explosively.

They heard the great news about Miss Anstice Cory the following morning. Mrs. O'Dare, reading the Belvedere News, looked up with a little cry of excitement and pleasure.

"Girls, what do you think? Miss Anstice is an heiress! Judge Cory's sister in Boston has left her $50,000."

Monnie, heavy eyed and pale, sipping her coffee, smiled. "How marvellous!"

It made the day seem brighter, this news of something nice happening to someone she knew. Anything might happen if Miss Anstice were to be removed from the scene of her labors, after 20 years of writing Belvedere society notes. It almost helped Monnie to bear the thought that Dan was leaving for Wyoming on the morrow.

Perhaps he would call, Monnie thought. Perhaps he would find time to telephone her — surely, he would. But each time the 'phone rang and she answered it to find the caller was emphatically not Dan, her heart grew heavier.

Kay flew in at lunch hour, sparklingly pretty, lit by an inner excitement.

"Aren't you off early?" Monnie wanted to know. Usually the two girls at the library made tea or heated soup over a gas ring in the back room and ate their lunch there.

"Just ran over for a second," Kay carolled. "Something important to tell you. Are you leaving now for lunch?"

OURS TO SHARE

How readily we seek relief
By sharing with the rest our grief,
    Yes, turn to others when the day
    Is dark, and weary is the way;
How often trouble is the chief
    Occasion of the words we say.

And yet tomorrow brings the sun,
And joy is here, and grief is done.
    Today perhaps the shadows fall,
    Tomorrow blessings we recall.
Why do we always share the one,
    And share the other not at all?

We share our sorrows with the rest,
But what of blessings, when we're blest?
    Shall only thistles men make known,
    And keep their roses for their own?
Shall all our griefs be manifest,
    And all our joys be ours alone?

I think that human hearts should bear
To others something more than care,
    As quick to bring to others cheer
    As words of grief for them to hear.
For joy is given us to share,
    As surely as we shed a tear.

On Monday afternoon, Officers Sauers noticed a stranger attempting to flirt with a local girl, but she refused to be "mashed." Walking further on down the street the stranger attempted to flirt with another girl, who though a bit shy, seemed to "fall" for the man.

OLD STONINGTON RESIDENT DEAD

Andrew Hedstein in Delta County 55 Years; Funeral Monday

One of Stonington's pioneer residents, Andrew Hedsten, died Friday at 6 a. m. after an illness of two and a half years with carcinoma of the face. He was born in Jentland, Sweden, May 24, 1855, and came to the United States in 1877, settling at Escanaba for two years or more and then moving to Stonington.

Mr. Hedsten's wife died 30 years ago. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Harry A. Rylander of Minneapolis, one grandson, two sisters and a brother. The sisters are Mrs. Elizabeth Huss of Stonington and Mrs. Jennie Moser of Danforth. The brother, Louis Hedsten, also resides at Stonington.

The body was brought to the Anderson Funeral Home and will remain there until Monday noon, when it will be taken to the Swedish Lutheran church at Stonington. Services will be held there at 2 p. m. Monday, with the Rev. C. E. Olsson of Gladstone officiating. Burial will be in Lakewood cemetery at Stonington.

Buck Brothers Are Indicted For Crime

Barnstable, Mass., May 18 (AP) —Kenneth and Cyril Buck, Harwichport brothers, the former confessed kidnaper of 10-year-old Margaret (Peggy) McMath, whose $60,000 ransom abduction on May 2 aroused country-wide interest, were indicted for the crime today. Trial was set for June 12.

A special session of the Barnstable county grand jury voted two indictments after having heard evidence since Monday.

Kenneth, a 28-year-old unemployed chauffeur, was charged in one count with seizing the girl with intent to extort money from her father, Neil C. McMath, Harwichport boat builder, and in a second count, with having confined her with intent to extort.

His 40-year-old brother, Cyril, a garage proprietor, was charged only with confining the girl with intent to extort.

WRITES FOR MOVIES

Robert Gessner of New York City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gessner of Escanaba, has sold one of his recently-written fiction articles to the Warner Brothers Photoplay company, and is now on his way to Hollywood to consult with studio executives concerning production of the motion picture.

Mr. Gessner, who is a professor of English at New York university, is the author of "Massacre," a non-fiction book dealing with living conditions among the Indians, and a novel, "Broken Arrow." He has also written several short stories.

Harold Gessner of Escanaba left yesterday by motor to join his brother, Robert. He will be away for about a month.

Hollywood Gossip

Hollywood—Now that the valuable—and lately voluble—Greta Garbo is actually back among us, the question whether a star can remain off the screen for a long period and still retain her popularity pops up.

In her case, Hollywood believes the answer is in the affirmative, as it would be for any of the first ten box office leaders.

Obviously the studio that rehired Greta for two pictures, with options for several more, at a reported whopping big figure, believes her absence will have no ill effect at the box office.

Harold Lloyd, after a year and a half between comedies, declared a year is all any star could afford to spend thinking about his next picture. Two or three years are customary for Chaplin to give to "preparation." Mary Pickford allowed 18 months to pass.

Two years was a trifle too long for Clara Bow to retire, although some critics blame her recent vehicle for the drop in Bow stock. A three year absence definitely harmed Colleen Moore.

Begins Work in June

"Queen Christina," on which Miss Garbo is scheduled to start work some time in June, cannot be ready for release before August 1, and there is the probability that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will hold the film for fall showing.

By the time "Christina" is released, even if in August, several months more than a year will have gone by since "As You Desire Me" was put on exhibition.

Only time will tell whether the public wants Garbo. Or, as Greta herself so aptly put it—mayhap having in mind this very subject of discussion—"One never knows what time will bring, does one?"

The Silent One

That was about the extent of her remarks upon leaving the boat after her vacation in Sweden. Nor did she amplify them upon arriving in Hollywood, where she did exactly as was expected of her—she went into seclusion.

Her friends who met her had naught to say of her whereabouts, to which knowledge her manager, who long ago convinced her that a state of continual aloofness was a happy one, would add nothing.

It may be that in time, since Greta has broken the ice and publicly tested her vocal cords, she will unbend and tell all.

One never knows what time will bring, does one?

Washington News Column

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

Washington—Our foreign affairs look like a palsied Chinese puzzle, even to many of those who study them closely. And only the incurable optimists think that the picture may soon be all peaceful and pretty.

Ordinarily, if you follow foreign affairs, you can tell what a certain country is going to do under a given set of circumstances. But economics have come to exert a far more pressing, fluctuating influence on political problems and the international scene changes almost from day to day.

No sooner has this administration been able to take its mind temporarily off Japan—with her Chinese invasion and demands for naval parity—and moved toward removal of France as a stumbling block at international conferences by promising a consultation policy, than the Hitler crowd in Germany threatens the possibility of the worst postwar mess of all. That's only one example of developments that have dampened the hopes of those who looked for vast achievements at the World Economic Conference which begins next month.

Debts Default Expected

After a series of private discussions, a deluge of rumors and a good deal of shadow boxing, it begins to look as if the European war debts to this country were going straight into default June 15, with the likely result that the United States will never collect a cent. And you can just imagine how that will help along the spirit of amity and good will.

The last authoritative tip-off on President Roosevelt's attitude was that he didn't know whether or not he would send a message on debts to Congress but that, in any event, the American delegates to the conference would carry no authority to discuss that problem.

It appears that Roosevelt has a tough choice between hazarding the economic conference by inviting default and risking his own administration by fighting Congress.

Issues Are Linked

Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull know that the debts are inextricably tied in with the other issues of the conference, even though they are officially no part of it. They also think the best thing to do, both from the standpoint of the desirability of a successful conference and from that of this nation's stake in the debts, would be to salvage as large a portion of the debts as possible through some lump settlement which might cover half or even only a quarter of the amount.

But a lot of congressmen made those debts an issue in their last campaigns and pledged themselves against revision or cancellation.

If Roosevelt tried to make an issue of debts in Congress now he would be likely to jeopardize important items of his domestic program, none of which are now in any danger.

There is some chance that the president is playing a deep game, waiting until Congress has nearly finished its job and then suddenly springing a debt message at the last moment, at a time when limited debate won't tie up everything else, in the hope of jamming the legislation through with a rush.

Railway Mail Branch Holds Fine Meeting

The Northern Peninsula Branch of the Tenth Division Railway Mail association, transacted a large volume of business at its annual meeting held at the home of the president, Charles I. Margert, 208 Bigelow street, Ishpeming.

Ballots of the recent election were counted and new officers were installed by William E. Crowley of Marquette, who was retiring from the executive committee after serving four years. Mr. Crowley is also a past president.

The newly elected officers are: Edward A. Lawin, Gladstone, president; Frank R. Don Levy, Oconto, Wis., vice president; R. M. Urich, of Champion, secretary-treasurer; Charles I. Markert, Ishpeming, and M. R. Schumacher, Powers, members of the executive committee, who will serve for the next two years. Olaf A. Olson of Green Bay was elected delegate to the Division convention at St. Paul, Minn., which will be held in June. Mr. Olson is an old resident of Escanaba, having lived here prior to going into the mail service.

Visiting members from Kenosha, Fond du Lac, Iron River, Wis., Escanaba and Gladstone were present, as were all the newly elected officers.

The Woman's Auxiliary also met at the Markert home. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. E. Crowley of Marquette, who appointed a nominating committee, which is as follows: Mrs. J. J. Crawford of Gladstone, Mrs. R. M. Urich of Champion and Mrs. Pauline S. Maki of Ishpeming.

NATION'S CHIEF SET PRECEDENT

Appeal for Disarmament Made Him International Figure

BY KIRKE SIMPSON

Washington — When President Roosevelt decided to issue his appeal for prompt and drastic disarmament action to remove the fear of invasion and therefore the necessity for armament burdens from the peoples of the world, he struck out on perhaps the most amazing untrodden pathway of the many he has stepped since he became president. He flung defiance into the face of every international precedent.

Roosevelt

Not only has no president of the United States ever before projected himself so dramatically into the world picture but no emperor, king or other absolute monarch has ever done the like.

And the highly significant part of Mr. Roosevelt's valiant world gesture is that it was made after his intimate conversations with the leading statesmen of the world or their representatives.

Realized Gravity

It is only reasonable to assume, knowing as every news reader must now know the keen zest with which President Roosevelt pursues information whether at a cabinet conference or in fireside talks with distinguished visitors, that out of those conversations there came to him a very disturbing realization of the grave situation abroad.

He was in a position, as perhaps no man ever before has been, to gauge the possibilities, the probabilities of what another day or so might produce.

Clearly the president believed instant and dramatic action to avert developments fraught with possibilities of untold new woes for the world was demanded.

And he knew, too, from those talks at the White House that he alone was in a position, among all national rulers of the world, to take such action with any hope of arousing world attention.

Counts On Public's Power

President Roosevelt firmly believes that public opinion can be swiftly mobilized to support a just cause. He has had startling proof in domestic affairs since his inauguration of the powerful influence the presidency can exert in a crisis by direct powerful appeal.

Casual inspection of the world press gives the impression that he has gained a place in the popular imagination of the world since his inauguration like that Woodrow Wilson held just after the end of hostilities.

Therein lay Mr. Roosevelt's opportunity and he seized it with that appreciation of dramatic possibilities—and of the necessity for dramatic action if popular attention is to be captured—which has marked his whole political life. The outcome will be a supreme test of his judgment.

Trenary, Mich.—The members of the Women's Recreation club met on the banks of the river Monday evening and had a picnic supper and weiner roast. The husbands were invited. Kitten ball furnished exercise for the players and amusement for the on-lookers.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Finlan of Marquette have visited relatives here recently.

A Sunday school picnic was held on the river banks Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Norman Hall is seriously ill at her home here.

Mrs. J. Vera Peterson of Munising visited the Trenary school Tuesday.

The Senior class play, "Aaron Slick of Punkin Crick" will be presented Saturday evening, May 20th in the high school auditorium.

Schaffer News

Schaffer, Mich.—Lester Kenny has been engaged for the past week taking the annual school census. He expects to have the work completed in a few days.

Principal James A. Kenny spent Thursday and Friday in Bark River where he conducted the examinations for the seventh and eighth grade pupils of the township.

As an economy measure three rooms of the local school have been closed for the remainder of the term.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tousignant have left for Escanaba where they will make their home. Mrs. Tousignant is the former Miss Charlotte Seymour.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Demars and family have moved here from Escanaba and have settled on a farm a short distance from the village.

Fisher Visits Here, Sees Better Times For Auto Industry

The automobile industry is seeing a marked improvement, and the increased demand for cars will continue throughout the summer, in the opinion of Lawrence Fisher of Detroit, president of the Cadillac Motor Car company, who was a visitor in Escanaba yesterday.

Mr. Fisher stopped off here for luncheon while enroute to his summer camp, near Marenisco, where he will spend the week-end, and will visit with William Bonifas of this city, who is vacationing at his Lake Gogebic resort.

The automobile magnate stated that the business situation was highly satisfactory in all lines. The steel mills, in particular, report a good outlook, he said.

Preparation Made For Memorial Day Program of Legion

Arrangements for the Escanaba American Legion observance of Memorial Day are in the hands of Elmer Swanson, general chairman for Cloverland Post 82, and his two sub-chairmen, T. J. Lynott and Henry Breault. Details of the program will be announced shortly by the committee.

A feature of the observance will be a parade of ex-service men, musical organizations, school, patriotic and civic groups, Boy Scouts and others. The city in general will suspend business for the holiday May 30.

Press Want Ads Cost Little, Accomplish Much.

BRIEFLY TOLD

Half as Much—Wholesale beer dealers pay a $50 a year special federal tax instead of $100 as stated in the Press yesterday. The wholesalers are classed as "wholesale malt liquor dealers" and they now owe the federal government $8.34 to balance up the fiscal year up to June 30. The $100 a year tax is for "wholesale liquor dealers," of which there are none in Michigan as yet.

Milk Front Quiet—Nothing happened of consequence yesterday on the milk strike front at Bark River, although officers of the sheriff's department were on duty early to guard against any possible disorders. A few farmers from Menominee county gathered in the vicinity of Bark River, but were advised by the officers to confine their activities to their own county and complied with the request. On the previous day, a group of the blockade pickets chased a dairy plant truck driver from Escanaba and prevented him from making his collection of milk in the Menominee county borderline area.

Schlitz Beer
Does Test 3%!

We wish to correct rumors that have been circulated around the past few days regarding SCHLITZ BEER. These rumors have questioned the quality of this famous Beverage with reference to its alcoholic content.

. . . THIS LABORATORY REPORT PROVES IT!

The following Laboratory Report was received from Milwaukee yesterday regarding Schlitz Beer:

It's Better To Know

"The average alcoholic content of our beer is 3.75 volume per cent or 3.00 per cent by weight. It has reached 3.90 per cent by volume at times.

Although it appears simple, a careful determination of alcohol requires a complete decarbonization of the beer, a vacuum picnometer for making the weighing of the distillate, and an accurate analytical balance. In cases involving a dispute in the analysis of a product used or produced in our plant, we take the services of a fermentation chemist, a person who is thoroughly versed with this kind of work. The general chemist has not the experience and practice for this type of work and I know of instances where the alcoholic content of a beer differed by as much as 0.4 percent."

Respectfully submitted,
HUGO W. ROHDE, Chemist.

Audience Enjoys Presentation of Indian Operetta

A fascinating story, the plaintive beauty of Cadman's melodies, sung by a well-trained cast, and effective settings and attractive costuming were found in "Lelawala," the Escanaba high school operetta, presented at the W. W. Oliver Memorial auditorium before an appreciative audience by the music departments of the Escanaba junior and senior high schools under the direction of R. P. Bowers and Miss Ruth Sundwick.

The story of the operetta was based on the legend of the Niagara, "Thunder Waters," an entertaining tale, told in three acts of the drama in word and in song.

Principals of the cast were excellent and they had the support of colorful chorus groups, in songs and in dance numbers.

Doris Thomas had the title roll, "Lelawala," Maid of Niagara, and others in the cast of principals were: Edward Lucas, Jr., Ralph Sundquist, Clara Karas, Willard Isaacson, Dick Carlton, Frederick Lundgaar, Ruth Kamrath, Irene Cyr, Harold Snyder, Arthur Olson, Gertrude Grabowski, Donald Belanger, Eileen Reynolds, Glenn Sandberg, Kenneth Thompson, Tom Quinn and Reino Kujala.

Scenery, wampum curtains and other Indian features were made by the art department of the school nuder the direction of Miss Lois Gaut; costumes were the work of the domestic science girls and Miss Edith Martinson and Miss Faye Auble, and the dances were directed by Miss Elaine McDermand and Miss Florence Ladd.

Relief Corps Memorial Day Tag Sale Today

The annual tag day sale of the Woman's Relief Corps, held each year to raise funds for Memorial Day work of the Corps will be conducted today.

The tags which will be disposed of for whatever the buyer wishes to give, will be sold by groups of school girls, a member of the Corps accompanying and supervising each group. The tag sale which will be held mainly in the business district will open this morning and continue throughout the day and early evening.

Proceeds of the sale will be used for flowers and flags with which the Relief Corps will decorate the graves of service men for Memorial Day.

Today's Recipe

Scalloped Onions and Peas

15 small onions
1 cup crumbled soda crackers
1½ cups cooked fresh peas
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons butter

Cook onions whole, and arrange in alternate layers with cracker crumbs and peas, topping with crumbs. To milk, add sugar, salt and melted butter. Pour over the casserole mixture. Bake in a hot oven (475 degrees F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. 6 portions.

Honor Couple On Silver Wedding Anniversary Day

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olson, 112 South Eighth street, whose silver wedding anniversary occurred on Thursday, were honored at a large gathering of neighbors and friends, arranged in observance of the day, and held Thursday evening at their home, with sixty guests in attendance.

A program, featured by a talk by Rev. Dr. C. Albert Lund, pastor of Bethany Lutheran church, who extended the congratulations and wishes of the day to the honored couple in behalf of the guests, was given, social diversions following the program.

An anniversary supper was served at a table beautifully decorated in pink and white, with a basket of snapdragon and carnations and lighted tapers forming the centerpiece. A large wedding cake, attractively iced, was a part of the menu.

The honored guests were presented with a fine gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson, whose marriage took place in Escanaba, have two sons, Chester, at home, who was present for the anniversary party, and Hilding, who is a student at Michigan State college, East Lansing.

Lady Maccabees Hold Cloverland Convention Here

Seventy-five members of the Cloverland Association of Lady Maccabees, representing Hives of Menominee, Manistique, Iron Mountain, Gladstone and Rapid River, as well as Escanaba members, attended the annual meeting of the association, held Thursday at the North Star hall.

The opening session of the meeting began at 10 o'clock, with the regular business occupying the morning. A dinner served at Jay's tea room at 12:45 o'clock followed the morning meeting.

The afternoon meeting, which was also held at the North Star hall was featured by enjoyable program which included the following numbers:

Playlet, "The Crystal Gazers"—Menominee Hive, Jane Phelps, Mildred Payne, Alice Knuth, Mrs. Mary Payne.

Vocal duet, "Two Little Playmates"—Edmond Maranda, Marcella Tousignant.

Musical recitation, "Katydid"—Francis Laviolette, accompanied by Miss Jeanette Moreau.

Tap dance—Betty Hagen, Estelle Vinette, accompanied by Elinor Campbell.

"Boy at the Circus," recitation—George Arntson.

Songs, "I Have No Use for the Women," and "Mom"—Warner Pearson.

Selection of songs—Mrs. Etta Kress, accompanied by Miss Pearl Olson.

Following the program which was arranged by Miss Belle Harvey and Miss Margaret Dwyer, a lunch was served.

Gladstone was selected as the place of the next Cloverland association meeting.

Prize awards presented at the meeting included the banner which was given to Manistique for the highest insurance record and the largest delegation award which went to Menominee.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sundling, Miss Eileen Chase and Miss Doris Lacosse have returned from a motor trip to Green Bay, where Mr. Sundling consulted with a specialist.

Poppy Symbol of Patriotism; Says President

"The patriotic spirit of America which enabled the nation to put forth its great World War effort is symbolized in the little red memorial poppy," Josephine Campbell, President of the Cloverland Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, declared today as the Unit members continued preparations for the observance of Poppy Day here May 27. She expressed belief that the wearing of the poppy in honor of the war dead would help reawaken a strong spirit of patriotism for the nation's peace-time efforts.

"The poppy is the badge of remembrance for those who sacrificed their lives in the country's service," Mrs. Campbell said. "It stands for the highest type of patriotism that we can conceive. It recalls the spirit of those days when every American was dedicating his energies and resources to the national cause and when life itself was not too much to give for the country.

"Remembering those days, it is difficult to understand how Americans can be daunted by the country's present difficulties. A people who only fifteen short years ago united with such devotion and energy to meet a war emergency, most certainly have the power to meet any emergencies of peace. The poppy, that symbol of patriotic sacrifice, should awaken in all our hearts a deeper conception of our own duties to our country today and inspire us to give in peace the type of service the men who died among the poppies in France gave in time of war."

Volunteer workers from the American Legion Auxiliary will offer poppies on the streets all day Saturday, May 27. The poppies have been made by disabled veterans and all contributions received will be used for the Auxiliary's relief and rehabilitation work among the disabled men and their families.

Mother's Day Program Given at Lutheran Church

Over a hundred members and friends were present at the regular meeting of the Bethany Luther League held Thursday evening in the parlors of the Bethany Lutheran church.

A "Mothers' Day" program was carried out under the direction of the committee in charge.

The meeting opened with a song sung by the audience which was entitled, "O Motherhood, the Beautiful." This was immediately followed by the reading of President Roosevelt's Mother's Day proclamation by J. Milton Bloomquist. Scripture reading and prayer were given by H. George Nelson, chairman.

A paper, "Concerning Mother's Day," was read by Evelyn Rasmussen. This was followed by a song, "Love of Our Mothers," sung by the assemblage. A selection, entitled "A Beautitude for Mothers" was given by Tom McDonough. A poem, "My Altar," was delivered by Conrad Finstrom.

A quartet composed of Helen Seward, soprano; Ethel Hulin, alto; Glenn Sandberg, tenor, and Harold Snyder, bass, sang a beautiful number, "My Mother." Gladys Hendrickson then gave "A Little Parable for Mothers."

"The Songs My Mother Loved" was given by Myrtle Roberg who acted as the reader and was assisted by the quartet. The songs sung included: "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Rock of Ages," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "How Firm a Foundation." An instrumental baritone solo was well played by Arthur Olson. He was accompanied at the piano by Miriam Lund.

The concluding number on the program for the evening was a song, "Faith of Our Mothers," which was sung by the audience.

The program committee had H. George Nelson as its chairman, assisted by Amy Johnson, Conrad Finstrom, Tom McDonough, Helen Seward, Myrtle Roberg, Evelyn Rasmussen and Jane Anderson.

Following a brief business session the meeting closed. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Half the families in Chicago CAN'T be wrong!

We who live in the Middle West may be nearer the soil than our Eastern friends, but we don't need them nor any one else to tell us how to wash sheets and tablecloths snowy-white.

For ninety years Chicago women have chosen American Family Soap . . . have bought more of it than all other laundry soaps combined!

If any other soap could make their cottons and linens whiter, these Chicago women would very quickly find it out . . .

They still prefer this fine old Chicago product — because they know that it's pure as pure can be . . . makes rich double-suds . . . saves their time and money . . . keeps their hands always satin-smooth.

The proof of American Family is in the tub. And more than half the families in Chicago will tell you so!

Light Desserts Are Problem Of Busy Springtime

What housewife isn't bemoaning the fact right now that it's much to late to be serving the hot, rich desserts that hold us through the winter months and much too early to depend on the new year's crop of fresh fruits. Plum puddings and mince pies have been forgotten until next winter and apple sauce and pies that flourished in the fall are no novelty now.

The days are beginning to get warmer and longer. The children are playing out of doors in the evenings and spring is generally in the air. Your desserts, too, should take on the lightness of the season. Make them simple with the freshness of the new year and whenever possible combine in them fruits and cream containing the elements most needed at this time.

Why not try French pastries on your family one night? They need not come from a famous chef or a restaurant dining room. You can make them at home and when they are topped with a meringue, lightly browned, you'll find them as tempting as any brought out to madame, ordering lunch at her favorite spot in the Champs Elysees.

Here's the recipe and you can vary it, if you like, by substituting peaches or pears for the apricots.

French Pastries

8 graham crackers.
1 small can apricots.
1 egg yolk.
1 egg white.
2 tablespoons confectioner's sugar.
1 teaspoon vanilla.

Put drained apricots through a sieve and mix with egg yolk. Butter six graham crackers. Spread with the apricot pulp mixture. Make a meringue of egg white, sugar and flavoring. Crumble two graham crackers and fold into meringue. Top each prepared cracker with a spoonful of meringue. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) about ten minutes or until meringue is browned lightly. Six portions.

Heavenly Pie lives up to all its name implies and is made with ripe bananas. Serve it chilled and topped with a thin garnish of whipped cream and sprinkled with nut meats if desired.

Heavenly Pie

Crust:
1¼ cups finely crumbled graham crackers.
1-3 cup butter.
1 tablespoon sugar.
Filling:
2 ripe bananas.
1 cup sugar.
1-8 teaspoon salt.
2 egg whites.
1-8 teaspoon almond flavoring.

Mix crackers, softened butter and sugar and press in an even layer against sides and bottom of a buttered pie plate. Mash bananas and add sugar and salt. Beat egg whites stiff and beat vigorously into banana mixture until stiff. Add flavoring and pour into crumb lined plate. Bake in a slow over (350 degrees F.) for 15 minutes. Lower temperature to 300 degrees F. and continue baking for 15 to 20 minutes. Chill and serve topped with a thin garnish of whipped cream and sprinkled with nut meats if desired. Makes one eight-inch pie.

RHUBARB SAUCE

½ cup water
1 cup sugar

Cook rhubarb and water slowly. When soft add sugar and boil 3 minutes. Cool and serve.

Health is half of success

FEW men achieve their goal without vitality and drive. And so many are held back from their best by a common ailment: constipation. It dulls energy, often causes headaches, sleeplessness. It takes the vim out of your day's work.

Correct constipation by eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it becomes a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. How much better than using pills and drugs—so often harmful.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Monnie washed her hands at the little cracked basin behind the partition and brushed her hair back under the little blue hat.

"Ready," she smiled, linking her arm in Kay's. "What is all this?"

Kay looked over her shoulder. "Miss Anstice ran in this morning," she confided. "Guess why she wanted to see me!"

"I couldn't," Monnie said. "Tell me."

Kay paused dramatically, before delivering the bombshell. "She's suggesting me to do her work on the paper while she goes abroad."

"Kay, how splendid! That's because of the way you worked on the school paper."

Kay squeezed her sister's arm. "Exactly. And Mr. Whittingham thinks I'm much too young but she's talking him over. She was going to put your name up because she said she knew you could do it—but "

"I did help her last winter when she was laid up," Monnie mused. "Oh, Kay, if you get it I can do lots for you!"

"No, you can't," said Kay coolly.

"Why not?"

Kay's eyes twinkled with mischief. "You goose, can't you guess?"

"I don't know what you're talking about," Monnie said with impatience.

Kay gave her a little shake. "Miss Anstice's going abroad," she repeated impatiently.

"Well, what on earth has that got to do with me?" Monnie demanded.

"Lots." Kay fairly bounced. "Oh, I oughtn't to tell you," she cried. "I practically promised not to but I'm just bursting with it. She wants—she's going to ask you to go with her."

Rev. Schevers Back From 3-Month Trip To Mediterranean

Rev. Father B. J. P. Schevers, pastor of St. Francis de Sales church returned to this city Tuesday afternoon following a three month Mediterranean cruise.

REV. B.J.P. SCHEVERS

Rev. Schevers left here last February on the Steamer Statendam, the flagship of the Holland-American line and visited many southern European countries in addition a stay in Algiers, Africa, where he had an extended visit with a cousin. Father Paiement, of DePere, Wis., assumed Rev. Schever's duties during the latter's absence.

Begin Organizing Student Trip To World Exposition

Plans are being laid for a group tour to the World's Fair in Chicago for the benefit of local high school students. Girls deciding to take the trip will be under the supervision of Dorothy Shipman and boys will be cared for by Carl Olson, both of whom are members of the school faculty.

Well formulated plans so that students will be able to derive as much benefit as possible from the tour have been outlined by the Sault Ste. Marie railroad which has arranged for special rates for groups of 25 and 50 persons. The rates include all expenses such as fare, admissions, and lodging, with the exception of four meals which will be had within the exposition grounds. High school officials are of the opinion that $20 will amply provide for each person.

Students planning to take the tour, which includes a two-day stay in Chicago, are required to make a $10 deposit with either Miss Shipman or Mr. Olson prior to June 1. The delegation will leave here on Monday evening, June 19, and will return Thursday morning June 22. The special rates will be available to the general public at any time during the fair if delegations of 25 or 50 persons can be secured.

Hold Services This Morning For Aged Manistique Resident

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Schwab, 71, aged resident of this city who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Kelly at Newberry Wednesday afternoon were held this morning at eight o'clock from St. Francis de Sales church with Rev. B. J. P. Sevhevers officiating. Death was due to cancer.

The deceased was born in Austria, immigrating to this country about 25 years ago. Her husband, the late Matt Schwab passed away here about three years ago. Mrs. Schwab made her residence at 261 North Cedar street. As far as can be ascertained, Mrs. J. Kelly (Anna) of Newberry, a daughter, is the only immediate survivor. Interment was made by Gunnarson & Kefauver, local morticians.

Moon Receives Plans For Improvement Of County Fairgrounds

Excellent plans and drawings for the improvement of the county fair grounds property largely through the erection of a limestone fence and the beautification of the entrance along the drive leading into the grounds from Maple avenue, were received this week by Walter M. Moon from St. Clair Pardee, architect who had been in charge of the building of the Lincoln and Junior high schools and who laid the plans for the present Legion Memorial cottage. Mr. Pardee's plans and drawings in connection with the fair ground improvement were made entirely gratis.

One of the plans provides for a stone gateway at the entrance of the new drive and another gateway at the fair grounds entrance, billars to be constructed of limestone with rustic wood gates. A ticket office of limestone would also be built at this entrance. The drawings also include planting of shrubs and flowers which would greatly improve the appearance of the grounds.

In as much as the improvements are facing US-2, it is believed that funds could be secured from the Reconstruction Finance corporation for this purpose. Because of an abundance of county labor and a sufficient supply of limestone on hand, the cost of the project at this time would be very reasonable, Mr. Moon stated. The designs were shown to members of the Manistique Rotary club this week and opinion of the board of supervisers will be sounded out in the near future.

FRESHMEN LEAD IN HONOR ROLL

Place 20 on Scholastic List; Eleven Attain Straight A Grades

A total of 52 high school students merited the honor roll for the third five-week period of the second semester, according to report cards issued this week, indicating a decrease of three from the preceding period. Freshmen and juniors maintained the pace set last month, but the seniors dropped one and the sophomores two from their preceding month's membership.

Freshmen are again leading the classes both on a percentage basis and numerically, having 17.1 of their class in the honor ranks and a total of 20 members. Juniors rank second on a percentage basis with 12.3 per cent, sophomores third with 11.7 per cent, and seniors last with a percentage of 10.2. Numerically the sophs placed 13, juniors 11, and seniors 8.

Peck of Certified Seed Required For Club Spud Project

Word is being sent out to club members, who plan on taking a potato project this summer, that they will be required to plant at least one peck of certified seed, says Lee Stewart, county agricultural agent. This requirement has been adopted throughout the Upper Peninsula in order that the club boys and girls may get started this year with the best of seed possible.

Club members are being urged to secure either certified White Rurals or Green Mountains, due to the unusual demand and better prices being paid for these two varieties in the upper peninsula. A supply of certified Green Mountains, sufficient to start out twenty potato club members is on hand and additional seed will be secured for those club members who notify the agricultural agent's office promptly of their intention to enroll in a potato project in 1933.

Boys and girls who are planning to enroll in a potato project this summer are asked to notify the county agricultural agent as soon as possible in order that seed for them may be provided.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson, Jr. Elected President Of Lakeside P. T. A.

Mrs. George Wilson, Jr., was elected president of the Lakeside Parent-Teachers' association at the annual meeting held Thursday evening in the gymnasium of the Lakeside school. Mrs. Wilson succeeds Mrs. Volney Teeple who has been acting in the president's capacity since the departure from the city of Mrs. A. B. Waters.

Other officers elected are as follows: Mrs. Fred Williams, vice president; Myrtle Nelson, secretary; and Mrs. Everett Cookson, treasurer. Officers of the orgagnization read their annual reports.

Fifth and sixth grade pupils, under the direction of Mrs. Ada Watson, presented a fine musical program as part of the entertainment. A social hour and cards provided the diversion for the adults and the children played various games. Delicious refreshments were served.

Plans were laid for an afternoon program to be given sometime during the early part of June for the purpose of raising funds for a small deficit in the milk fund.

P. J. McNamara, who has been ill at his home for the past few days, is improving favorably.

Gives Method Of Controlling Seed Stock Diseases

A number of Schoolcraft county farmers are treating or plan to treat their seed stock this spring with Corrosive Sublimate in order to control Black Scurf, Scab and Black Leg, according to Lee Stewart, county agent. This treatment has been the only one found by the Farm Crops Department of Michigan State college to effectively control these three diseases on the seed stock. It should be noted that treating with Corrosive Sublimate will not eliminate scab in the crop produced where infection comes from scab which may be found in the field. The treatment merely kills what scab there may be on the seed stock. Using a long rotation, that is, not growing potatoes on the same ground oftener than four years, and longer intervals if possible will help in controlling scab which may be present in the soil.

A pound of Corrosive Sublimate will treat from 35 to 40 bushels of seed. The treating solution is prepared by dissolving 4 ounces of Corrosive Sublimate in 30 gallons of water. This amount of solution will treat about three bushels. The seed should be left in the solution 30 minutes, at which time they may be removed and a new lot of seed for treatment added. After each batch is treated an ounce of Corrosive Sublimate should be added to the treating solution in order to keep it up to strength. When the solution gets too dirty it should be thrown away and a new solution made up. Treating should be done in wooden containers. The use of metal pails, barrels or other containers should not be resorted to as the Mercury Chloride has a corrosive action to them.

A simple method of handling the stock solution may be secured by dissolving the 19 ounces of Corrosive Sublimate in 8 pints of hot water to which has been added a half teacupful of vinegar. Stir until all of the powder is dissolved, then dilute with an additional 8 pints of cold water. This will give a Corrosive Sublimate stock solution containing 16 ounces of Corrosive Sublimate in 16 pints of water. In making up the original treating solution, take 4 pints of this stock solution and add to the 30 gallons of water. When you wish to bring the treating solution up to strength by adding an ounce of Corrosive Sublimate, simply take a pint of the stock solution and add to the barrel.

Never treat seed potatoes with Corrosive Sublimate unless they are treated whole. After potatoes have been in the treating solution for a half hour they should be removed to a dry, well ventilated barn floor or other building away from all livestock, where they may be spread out thinly and allowed to sprout until they are ready to be cut and planted.

Annual Sucker Run Begins In Alger

The sucker run has been on for the past few days and enormous quantities have been caught. The suckers travel to the headwaters of all rivers and creeks emptying into the great lakes and choke the streams many miles from the mouths where they empty. Thousands of pounds have been caught daily for the past week and are eaten fresh from the water, smoked and salted down for future use. Suckers are really a fine food fish at this time of the year when they are firm. In early days farmers used to scoop them out of the rivers by the wagon load and use them for fertilizing the soil, no doubt getting the idea from the aboriginal inhabitants who used to put a sucker in every hill of corn.

Welfare organizations are distributing suckers to the needy.

SCHOOLS CLOSE VACATION HERE

Teachers Receive Pay for Last Two Weeks of Year

The Gladstone public schools closed yesterday, out-of-town members of the faculty are departing for their homes, and students and pupils today begin a vacation which will last slightly over three months.

Teachers are departing without contracts. These are being withheld until some definite idea of whether state aid will be forthcoming and the amount of such aid is obtained.

They have, however, their last two-week's pay checks, which for a time it was feared they would have to leave without.

Next year's senior class will number 73 and top this year's record group of graduates, according to present enrollment figures in the possession of Prin. C. C. Strickland. This is more than three times the number in the senior class of 1915, when 22 were graduated. The total enrollment for next year, however, will not run over 10 per cent higher than last year.

Teachers' activities for the summer will be varied.

Wm. H. Bainter will attend summer school at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, and Miss Clara Laidlaw will study at Northern State Teachers' college, Marquette. Robert N. Haskins will visit his parents in Marquette and possibly participate in the music camp work at Interlochen, Mich., for a time. Howard Sundblad will spend the summer at Ishpeming, but will return here for a time to do some pike fishing. John Speare will return to his home at Ironwood and during the Michigamme Institute in July will have charge of the music.

Eldon Kell, accompanied by Mrs. Kell left yesterday for West Salem, Wis. Mr. Kell will attend LaCrosse Teachers college during the summer. Miss Harriet Carlson will visit at the home of her parents in Marquette, Miss Cornelia Henderson at Escanaba, Aily Nuttila at Negaunee, Emily Hanson in Minneapolis, Wesley Gustafson will direct local play ground activities, C. P. Titus will visit in Kalamazoo and George Ferguson at Albion, Mich.

SEARCH ENDED IN NELSON CASE

Abandon Efforts After Six Days of Dragging for Body

Search for the body of John Nelson, drowned Saturday night between the point here and the island at Kipling, was officially abandoned yesterday after six days of combing the waters without avail. A fleet of twenty-three row boats towed by gasoline launches had been working in an effort to recover the body.

On Wednesday the enlarged crew lined up the row boats which were towed by the motor boats to permit the men in the row boats to devote their entire attention to the dragging operations. After the water had been thoroughly gone over in this manner it was decided to abandon the search. It is believed that the body will not be recovered until it is cast up by the water at some point along the shore.

A brother of the drowned victim, Emil Nelson, with whom he was fishing believes that the point where he went down was somewhere between the coal dock and Kipling, but because of the darkness and storm at the time was unable to state certainly the exact spot. Lack of definite information as to the exact scene of the accident considerably hampered the crew in their efforts to locate the body.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Flossie Nelson, three children, Ione, 15, Gilbert, 12, and Helen, 5. Surviving also are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nelson, two sisters, Mrs. Frank Cole, Mrs. Emma Raddant, five brothers, Frank, Clarence, Emil, Delbert and Gust. Mr. Nelson was employed at the pumping station for eight years, but for the past several years had been unemployed. He was born January 1, 1891 in Hermansville, and moved to Gladstone with his parents thirty-five years ago. He was united in marriage to Flossie Baum on April 21, 1917.

DOGS, RABBIT FRATERNIZE

Augusta, Ga., (AP) Young Miss Claire Teague wonders why people are always making so much ado about that lion and lamb lying down together. Her dogs and pet rabbit do that same thing every night and nobody seems to think much about it. Her two fox terriers and the bunny became friends on sight. Now they romp together all day and when night comes, Claire tucks them in a big basket.

The giraffe is one of the queerest animals known to man. It has the spotted skin of the leopard, the callous breast of a camel, the head of a horse, and the neck and hoof of a stag.

CITY BRIEFS

Wesley Gustafson Will Direct Work At The Playground

Wesley Gustafson, member of the high school faculty, was selected by the board of education in special session Thursday evening to direct activities at the local play ground during the summer months. He was chosen from a list of six applicants. The salary stipulated is $50 per month. It is probable that a program will be worked out and gotten under way in the near future.

Decision was also made to suspend the local ruling that teachers must attend summer school at least once every three years. It was the concensus that in view of the times the ruling should not be enforced this year.

Borrowing of a small amount to care for janitors' salaries and a number of miscellaneous expenditures was also authorized.

SOCIAL

Bridge Dinner

Mrs. E. H. Noblet entertained members of her bridge club on Thursday evening at a 6:30 dinner at the Green Lantern tea room. Following the dinner the guests formed two tables for bridge at the Noblet home, 308 Minnesota avenue.

Mrs. Clyde Fitzpatrick held the evening's high honors and Mrs. A. H. Kinmond, consolation.

Entertains

Miss Charlotte Marble entertained members of her bridge club Wednesday evening at her home on Wisconsin avenue. Contract was played with awards going to Miss Mavis LaFaver and Mrs. O. S. Hult.

In connection with the regular meeting of the club, a shower party was held complimentary to Mrs. Walter Tang.

Mrs. Siebert, Hostess

Mrs. Fred Siebert was hostess Thursday evening at a regular meeting of her bridge club at her home, 1111 Delta avenue. Two tables were in play during the evening. First honors were awarded Mrs. George Peoples, and the honor award went to Mrs. Ray Manning.

Buckeye Ten Wins From Hupy's, 5-2

Hal Switzer was in nice form and tossed the Buckeyes to a 5-2 victory over the Hupy clan, Thursday evening. Norm McIntyre, kid hurler on the mound for Hupy's, made his league debut but 7 hits and two errors at critical moments spelled defeat. Switzer allowed but three safe bingles and blanked his opponents for the first six innings.

Score by innings:

Hupy's	000 000 2	2	3	2

McIntyre and White; Switzer and A. Povin.

Umpire, Mattson.

Beer Truck Ditched North Of Kipling

There was beer aplenty about the road and ditch north of Kipling Thursday night, when a big truck and trailer loaded with the beverage hit the ditch. However, it was one time when nothing was taken from a ditched vehicle for guards remained on the scene until the machine was hauled back onto the highway yesterday morning.

THEATRES

11 P. M. Preview

"The Story of Temple Drake," William Faulkner's unusual tale of present-day youth, is now playing at the Rialto Theatre. The film with Miriam Hopkins in the title role and Jack La Rue, William Gargan, William Collier, Jr., Irving Pichel and Sir Guy Standing heading the supporting cast.

Miss Hopkins, as the heroine of the film, is a curious mixture of the sedate and the wanton—who refuses an offer of marriage from the young lawyer she loves, and drives off with a drunken college boy in search of more liquor. The ride ends in a crash, and the pair climb from the wreckage to find themselves virtual prisoners of a big-city gangster in a desolate country hideaway.

The gangster ships the boy off to the city, but keeps the girl behind. He cold-bloodedly kills the one man who attempts to protect her, and then drags her off to a tawdry room in the city.

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 19 (AP)—Oil and metal issues came out on top in today's stock trading; otherwise the market lagged and was mostly lower at closing time.

Refusal of the rails to penetrate last September's average high and thereby confirm the previous advance of industrials above their autumn peaks was a technical development that doubtless made many chart followers wary. The market has two advances and three declines to its credit so far this week and this hesitancy after a full month of almost uninterrupted rise has hardly passed unnoticed. Volume still tapers off as prices ease, today's turnover being 3,289,162 shares.

Industrials Soggy

Oil stocks got their chief impetus from the administration's measure to assist the industry through proper enforcement of conservation laws. Several petroleum company executives have spoken hopefully of the prospects for government aid along these lines; the extent to which the oil business has been deranged was amply illustrated in Standard of New Jersey's 1932 report, but with assistance in the offing market circles were disposed to overlook that statement and several leading oil shares rose a point or more.

Industrials were a little soggy, though losses were only fractional for U. S. Steel, General Electric, General Motors, Chrysler, Harvester, Case, National Biscuit, National Cash Register and Bethlehem. American Telephone, American Can and Allied Chemical, three of the week's high fliers, sagged a couple of points. North American, Du Pont, Santa Fe, Delaware & Hudson, Louisville, American Sugar and National Distillers were down one or more. Anaconda, Kennecott, International Nickel and U. S. Smelting firmed, although gains were not fully held. There has been some talk recently of further efforts to raise copper prices as well as to produce production; meantime some progress appears to have been made in reducing stocks above ground.

Commodity markets were mixed. Wheat gave up fractional parts of a cent, partly on a government estimate that the probable carryover for the United States on July 1 would be around three times the normal amount. Cotton was largely influenced by grains and shares, closing with declines of 40 to 65 cents a bale.

Everglade Grass May Turn Florida Into Cattle Center

Belle Glade, Fla. (AP)—Rapid and inexpensive growth of forage crops in the Everglades may turn waste land grasses into cash and make up the deficit of cattle, sheep and hogs that exists in the southeast.

Dr. G. A. Gamble, milk technologist of the United States department of agriculture, after a visit to the Everglades experiment station, where several tests have been completed, speaks favorably of the possibilities of the Florida lowlands becoming a cattle center.

There is an annual deficit in the southeast, says Dr. Gamble, of 235,000,000 pounds of beef, 30,000,000 pounds in veal, 86,263,000 pounds of lamb and 185,000,000 pounds of pork.

With proper water control, he says, Florida can reduce these deficits materially with profit to itself.

A herd of purebred cattle is being observed at the Everglades experiment station to determine if natural grasses or those which can be grown readily in the 'glades produce enough nutrition with a small amount of concentrates to result in good milkers and good beef cattle.

Another project now being conducted here is selection of a number of lowly cattle of the Florida range families for breeding with the purebred Devon herd, with the hope that the huge frame and beef producing qualities of the purebreds and the hardiness and resourcefulness of the Florida cow will produce a combination beef and milk animal that will thrive in the climate of the Everglades.

Cattle that were grazed on an acre of planted grass for several months made an average daily gain of almost two pounds on a diet of salt, water and grass.

10 Years Legislator With Nary a Speech

Austin, Tex. (AP)—Representative E. D. Dunlap's friends are claiming for him the all-time political record in self-restraint. Although a member of the Texas legislature for 10 years and frequently active in legislative matters, he recently made his first speech—one minute long.

Loud applause greeted the conclusion of his maiden effort

(Associated Press Financial Writer)

New York, May 19 (AP)—While bond market prices were moderately conflicting today, and trading volume dwindled, the list, as a whole, managed to creep up to another new high level for the year.

Sales totaled $12,227,000, par value, compared with $15,509,000 yesterday, and the average for 60 domestic corporate loans advanced two-tenths of a point to 73.4.

The market generally was rather colorless. There was profit taking in a number of issues, and these shaded their quotations. Various industrials and rails, however, encouraged by firming trade trends and indications of improved freight car loadings, were in demand at gains of fractions to a point or more.

C. & N. W. Bonds Advance

Best corporation gainers included some issues of Alleghany Corp., American I. G. Chemical, American Metal, Canadian Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, Rock Island, Great Northern, International Paper, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Phillips Petroleum, Pure Oil, Richfield Oil and Southern Railway. Warren Bros. 6s gained 7½ points on reports that Cuba would make a substantial payment on the debt owed the company for road building materials.

Heavier issues included some of Chile Copper, Kresge Foundation, National Dairy, Nickel Plate, Northern Pacific, Otis Steel, Postal Telegraph, Frisco, Utilities Power & Light and Western Union.

There was little life in United States government securities, most of which were slightly lower. In the foreign section a number of the Germans rallied, as did loans of Denmark, Colombia and New South Wales.

French bonds were off fractionally to 1½ points.

Isolated Farmers Get Their Reading Out Of The Skies

St. Louis (AP)—In an age notorious for rush and hurry, C. B. McMahan, an airplane pilot, finds time to bring a little pleasure into the lives of isolated, poverty-stricken families in Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana.

He does it by flying low over their homes as he patrols a natural gas pipeline between St. Louis and Monroe, La., and dropping bundles of newspapers and magazines.

Flies 500 Miles

McMahan flies the 500-mile route four times a week, watching for leaks or signs of buckling in the pipe, and reporting them to the nearest pumping station.

"City dwellers," he says, "have no idea of the poverty and isolation of some of the farms which I pass.

Gets Fan Mail

"I began dropping bundles to some of them, inclosing notes asking them to write me if they wanted me to continue. I got so many letters, and such appreciative ones, that employes at the office started saving their magazines and papers so I'd have a good supply."

McMahan's "fan mail" has grown to sizable proportions.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 19—Faced by an official estimate that the United States carryover of wheat on July 1 would be triple the normal amount, grain prices weakened today.

Indications of clearing weather in the corn belt tended also to pull values down. A statement from the department of agriculture putting the nation's prospective carryover of wheat at 360,000,000 bushels said winter wheat losses and inflation talk were not a guarantee of a permanent higher price level in view of large acreage.

Wheat closed unstable, ¼ to 3-4 under yesterday's finish, corn ½ to 3-4 down, oats 1-8 to 3-8 off, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 22 cents.

At one stage today, wheat prices reached the bottommost point since May 9, but recovered part of the losses in the late dealings, although persistent offerings kept coming into the pit. Favorable conditions for the new domestic spring crop did much to stimulate selling, and to act as a handicap on buyers. In addition to the bearish influence of the prospective large end-of-the-season domestic stock of wheat, notice was taken of an authoritative unofficial estimate that world's wheat carryover July 1 would total 1,006,000,000 bushels, compared with 976,000,000 last year.

Many wheat traders focused attention on reports of progress of the new spring wheat crop. Some advices said the start of growth was the best in five years, and that between Minneapolis and Fargo, N. D., wheat was almost 5 inches high and very rich in color. Seeding of spring wheat in the Canadian prairie provinces was reported to have made a rapid advance, but it was added the season there was much later than usual, especially in northern areas.

Prior to indications of clearing weather, corn advanced on account of heavy rains reported in parts of Illinois and Iowa. Later, the market fell 2 cents from the top, with stop-loss selling evident. Oats mainly followed corn.

Provisions went lower with hog values. Closing indemnities: Wheat July, 70 3-4, 72 5-8; September, 72 to 72 1-8, 74 to 74 1-8; December, 74¼, 76. Corn—July, 44 3-8, 46¼ to 3-8; September, 46 3-8 to ½, 48 1-8 to ¼; December, 47 3-4, 49 3-4.

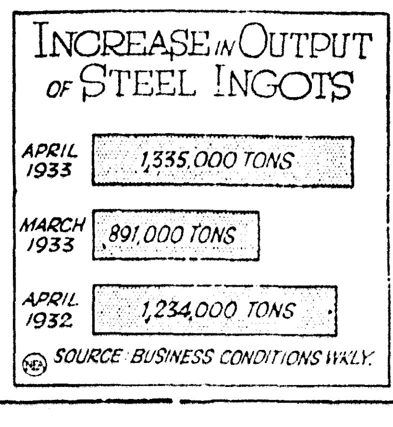
TODAY'S STATGRAPH



Shifting Trends On Curb Market

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
(Associated Press Financial Editor)

New York, May 19 (AP)—Trends shifted constantly on the curb exchange today but the list was irregularly higher at the finish.

Oil shares firmed early and maintained a goodly part of their advances to the close. Utilities lagged most of the day.

Aluminum Co. among the industrials suffered further reaction, losing a point while among the less active issues, rather sharp recessions occurred in Pepperell Manufacturing and Fajardo Sugar, with losses of 5½ and 4½ points respectively. Glen Alden Coal continued in demand, advancing 1½ while Swift & Co. firmed a half point.

Electric Bond and Share, lower most of the day, closed with a loss of nearly a point. American Gas & Electric was off 1½.

Among the oils, Gulf rose 1½ while advances of fractions to a point were shown in Humble, International Petroleum and Standard of Indiana. Mining shares were narrowly mixed.

Transactions today totaled 421,000 shares compared to yesterday's turnover of 528,000.

Triangular Track Meet Will Be Held Here Today

EVENTS BEGIN AT 2 O'CLOCK

Escanaba, Manistique and St. Joseph Will Be Represented

Escanaba, Manistique and St. Joseph high school track teams will compete at the Escanaba athletic field this afternoon in a triangular track and field meet which promises to shed considerable light on what can be expected in the U. P. invitational meet at Iron Mountain next week. The triangular meet today will begin at two o'clock.

The Eskymo strength will be split today as seven seniors, constituting much of the balance in the local school's team, travelled yesterday to Ironwood where they will compete in the Gogebic county meet this afternoon. The remainder of the local squad will appear in the meet here.

For St. Joseph and Manistique the meet today will be the first of the season. Escanaba thinclads competed in a dual meet with [illegible] college freshmen last Saturday, winning a close meet.

The officials for the events today include the following: Charles Stoll, starter; Harold Lindsay, Bill Puckelwartz, finishing judges; Albin Starr, Ray and Lyle Shaw, field judges; Edward Edick, clerk of course; Clarence Zerbel, judge. The coaches will act at timers.

The Escanaba boys who went to Ironwood yesterday were airs, Hellman, Lindsley, Monon, Hebert, Haddock, Manley.

Four places will be scored as follows: five, three, two and one.

Entries for St. Joseph and Manistique were announced previously this week. The Escanaba entries follow:

WHITE SOX WIN FROM SENATORS

Heavy Hitting Barrage Brings Chicago 10-1 Victory

Washington, May 19 (AP) Helping themselves to 17 safe hits, the Chicago White Sox opened a three-game series in the national capital by handing the Washington Senators a 10 to 1 defeat.

Chicago went on a rampage in the sixth, pushing across five runs. Successive doubles by Swanson and Webb, followed in rapid order by singles from the bats of Simmons and Appling, mixed in with an error by Schulte, a base on balls, a wild pitch by Russell who relieved McAfee, and singles by Kress and Grube, just about ended the ball game.

MICHIGAN STAR OFFERS THREAT

Wolverines Put 15 Men in Finals, Ward in Three Events

BY WILLIAM WEEKES
(Ass'd Press Sports Writer)

Dyche Stadium, Evanston, Ill., May 19 (AP)—Willis Ward, Michigan's 196 pound negro all around star, today led a parade of fifteen Wolverines into the finals of the Western conference's thirty-third track and field championship meet.

Ward, looked upon as the athlete to provide the winning points in Michigan's struggle to retain the title tomorrow, qualified in three events, winning his heats in the 100 yard dash and the 120 yard high hurdles, and finishing runner-up to another negro ace, John Brooks of Chicago, in the broad jump.

Long Javelin Toss

Along about sundown Duane Purvis of Purdue, a star forward passer in football, cut loose with a throw of 208 feet, 5¼ inches, in the javelin. The effort, which will stand for tomorrow's finals, wiped out the old conference record of 207 feet 7 3-5 inches set by Phil Northrop of Michigan in 1926, and virtually assured the Boilermakers of their first individual triumph in the meet since 1930.

The Wolverines failed to qualify in only one of the events in which preliminaries were held, the discus throw. Ohio State, showing surprising power, sent men into 12 places in the finals, with Illinois following with 9.

Indiana, rated as the team to press and even beat Michigan for the team championship, made eight places. This showing, however, was in line with the Hoosiers' plan of attack which calls for plenty of doubling up by individual stars, and power in distance runs in which no trials were held.

One Event Settled

Purdue and Northwestern, doing better than in several years, qualified for six places each, Minnesota four, Chicago three, all by Brooks, and Wisconsin two.

One event was settled, probably for all time as far as the Western conference is concerned. The hammer throw, which will not be on the program again unless the coaches change their minds, was won by Noble Biddinger of Indiana, with a toss of 161 feet 4 inches, barely four inches short of the record of 161 feet, 7 7/18 inches set by Will Ketz of Michigan in 1928.

The performances gave the Hoosiers a working start of five points which, however, was matched by Iowa. Two Hawkeyes, Robert Gornog and L. J. Kouba, took the third and fourth places. Rod Cox of Michigan, landed second, and fifth place went to E. Johnson of Ohio State.

In the high hurdles the best time was made by Jack Keller of Ohio State and Hawley Egleston of Michigan at 14.9 seconds.

Indiana's iron men did just about as expected. Ivan Fuqua, a member of the 1932 American Olympic squad, qualified in his specialty, the 440 yard run, and ran the fastest heat in the 220 yard dash—21.8 seconds.

Charles Hornbostel, another Indiana representative in the Olympics, raced the best heat of the 880 yard run—1:55, and in addition will make a bid for the mile tomorrow. Walter Busby headed the discus qualifiers.

Outside of the javelin and hammer, no records were broken or threatened. The 220 yard dash, 220 yard low hurdles and 440 yard dash; instead of being started out of chutes, were run around turns, slowing up performances, but giving the spectators more to look at.

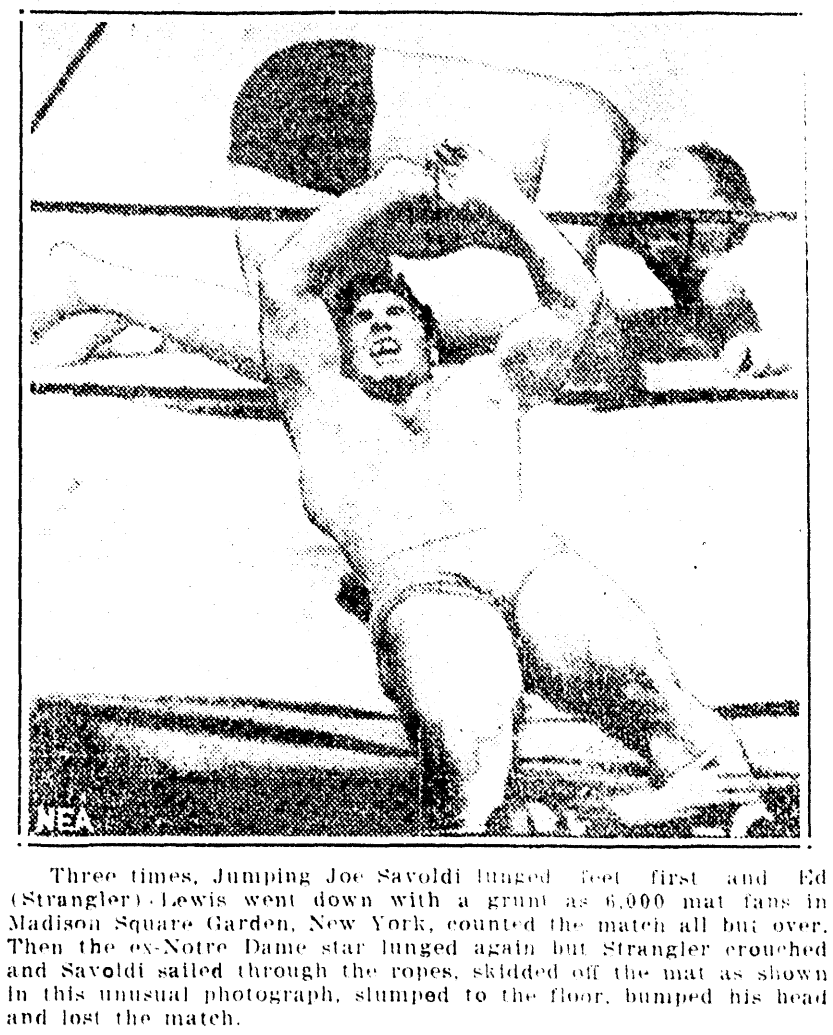
SLUGGERS WIN

The North Side Sluggers won from the Badgers, 10 to 5, yesterday when Kress poled out three circuit blows for the Sluggers.

Washington State badminton teams are competing this year for the first time against California clubs. The game is said to have originated at an English army barracks in India in 1870. Games in Canada have drawn as many as 10,000 spectators.

"Missed Me That Time, Joe!"



Three times, Jumping Joe Savoldi lunged feet first and Ed (Strangler) Lewis went down with a grunt as 6,000 mat fans in Madison Square Garden, New York, counted the match all but over. Then the ex-Notre Dame star lunged again but Strangler crouched and Savoldi sailed through the ropes, skidded off the mat as shown in this unusual photograph, slumped to the floor, bumped his head and lost the match.

Liberty Qualifies In Hurdle Races; Normal Is Favored

East Lansing, May 19 (AP)—Only one record fell here today in preliminaries of the annual state intercollegiate track and field meet which found Michigan Normal living up to its pre-meet reputation as the team favorite.

Leroy Dues, Detroit City college weight star, holder of the stadium and meet records in the shot put, heaved the iron ball to a new distance of 48 feet 2¼ inches, more than a foot farther than his best previous performance here. His old stadium record was 47 feet 2 1-8 inches and his meet mark 46 feet 9 3-8 inches.

Michigan Normal qualified 17 men to lead in the team competition. Although Michigan State was second with 16, a victory for Normal was freely predicted. The Hurons looked forward to possible slams in the 220 yard dash and first and second in the 100 yard sprint and pole vault.

Western State Teachers qualified eleven, Detroit City college five, Kalamazoo college four Hillsdale and Grand Rapids Junior college two each and Adrian and Central State Teachers one each.

The qualifiers include Bath and Liberty of State in the 120 high hurdles and 220 yard low hurdles. Liberty is from Gladstone and holds the U. P. Invitational and U. P. Relays records in the high hurdles.

BEST HITTER NOW IS SCOUT

Hugh Duffy, Ivory Hunter for Boston Sox, Once Batted .438

Boston (AP)—Somewhere out on the baseball byways, the greatest batter the game ever produced, now starting his 46th year in the national pastime, is searching for future stars.

He is Hugh Duffy, chief scout for the Boston Red Sox, whose batting average of .438, made with the Boston Nationals in 1894, has never been equalled. He gained that mark by cracking 236 hits in 539 times at bat. The only modern major leaguer to approach the figure is Rogers Hornsby, who batted .424 in 1925, when he was serving his first hitch with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Has No Batting 'Secret'

Duffy often has been asked his batting secret.

"There's no trick about it," he replies. "Proper timing, a certain amount of natural ability, plenty of confidence and some luck make a great hitter."

The veteran, crowding the 65-year mark—although he will not admit it—first broke into league baseball in 1887 with Springfield in the old Eastern League. He hit .424 that season and the following year "Cap" Anson signed him up for the famous Chicago White Stockings.

His greatest seasons were with Boston, from 1891 through 1900. The following year, his last as a big league player, was with Milwaukee, then an American League club.

He Weighed Only 165

Most of today's sluggers are big strapping fellows. Not so with Duffy. During his heyday, his five-foot-seven frame weighed but 165 pounds.

He carries only a few more ounces than that now as he scurries over the countryside, scouting out promising material for the Red Sox rebuilding plans of Tom Yawkey and Eddie Collins, the club's new and ambitious owners.

DETROIT BEATS BOSTON BY 7-5

Tigers Spot Red Hose 3 Runs But Rally to Capture Game

Boston, May 19 (AP)—The rejuvenated Boston Red Sox took a 3 to 0 lead in the first two innings of their game with the Detroit Tigers today, then had a relapse and dropped the tilt, 7 to 5.

Two big Detroit innings, the fifth and seventh, spoiled the game for the Sox. In the fifth, Davis doubled with two out, Gehringer walked, White doubled and Walker singled. The three runs tied the score.

The real turning point came in the seventh inning. Ray Hayworth led off with a walk, and Stone batted for Fred Marberry. He got a single that put Hayworth on third. Harry Davis followed with a fierce double into the right corner of the field, scoring both of his teammates.

At this point Rhodes was supplanted by Paul Andrews. Gehringer and Gerald Walker each got a hit from the offerings of Andrews, accounting for the four runs of the frame.

BRAVES SNAP PIRATE STREAK

Boston Provides Punch in Beating League Leaders, 5-3

Pittsburgh, May 19 (AP)—The Boston Braves, refusing to act like a second division team in the presence of the league leaders, checked the Pirates' winning streak after four straight games by unloosing an early attack that netted them a 5 to 3 victory in the series opener today.

Boston climbed all over Waite Hoyt, Pittsburgh veteran, scoring three runs in the first inning and sending him to the showers with another assault in the third. Old Tom Zachary did a great flinging job for the tribe for the first six innings, giving up only three hits, but Pittsburgh solved his delivery in the seventh for all three runs and Harry Seibold was called in.

BIG SIX STANDINGS

(By The Associated Press)

Pepper Martin climbed up a notch in the Big Six standing yesterday, adding five points to his average by hitting twice in four times at bat in a day of falling marks. He gained second place in the National League and a tie with Ben Chapman for third in the Big Six. Chapman hit one homer in four times up, dropping seven points. Bill Dickey also registered a five point gain with two out of four and left the sixth position to Pie Traynor, who failed to hit in four tries and lost 13 points.

KID CHOCOLATE BEATS WATSON

Flashy Little Cuban Has Englishman Down in Tenth Round

BY ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

New York, May 19 (AP) A flash of ebony fighting fury caught Seaman Tom Watson of old England unexpectedly tonight, bowled him over briefly and sustained sufficient force to clinch a 15-round victory over the sturdy Briton for Cuba's Kid Chocolate, still the featherweight champion of the world so far as New York—and probably London—are concerned.

Before a yelling crowd of 12,000 that contributed to a "gate" of $30,000, Chocolate rallied from a poor start to carry off the unanimous decision of Referee Pete Hartley and the two judges. The Cuban Kid, on the Associated Press score sheet, carried off eight rounds and won decisively. Watson, game to the finish, was credited with five rounds while two were even.

Floored in Tenth

Most of the drama of the fight, hard and somewhat bitterly fought most of the way, was packed into the tenth round when Chocolate at the peak of his decisive rally floored Watson with a looping left hand to the jaw. Seaman Tom almost turned a complete somersault from the combined force of the blow and his own frantic efforts to escape Chocolate's furious, two-fisted rush, but he refused to take advantage of a long count and bobbed up after two strokes of the time keeper's mallet.

With characteristic frenzy, Chocolate ripped and slashed into his rallying rival, forcing Tom to cover his face with gloved hands as he sought an escape. Weathering this gale, Watson, although still pale and shaky, fought back courageously and managed a wink at his handlers as he wobbled to his corner at the end of the round.

Chocolate sustained his dazzling pace for the better part of the eleventh and twelfth rounds, piling up a commanding margin on points, but he barely held his own in the last three sessions as the little British bulldog gamely tried to turn the tide. The Cuban's smashing lefts to the body, varied with rights that missed as often as they connected with the Briton's durable chin, carried much more power than any of Watson's blows, however, and this was the deciding factor.

Watson gained an early advantage, by the brisk persistence of his attack to Chocolate's midsection. The British champion displayed good boxing judgment and took advantage of most opportunities but he was no match for Chocolate at close-order slugging. Watson was staggering in the third and seventh by rights to the jaw, thereafter seeing his early margin wiped out by the Kid's five-round rally.

Seaman Tom, weighing 125 1-2 to Chocolate's 123 1-2, lacked Chocolate's reach and speed.

CANADIAN CUP TEAM DEFEATED

U. S. Doubles Net Stars Clinch Victory for America

Montreal, May 19 (AP) The United States Davis cup team advanced another step in quest of the famous international tennis trophy today when George Lott, Jr. and John Van Ryn defeated Marcel Rainville and Dr. Jack Wright of Canada to clinch the North American zone final and send the team into the inter-zone final against Argentina at Washington, D. C. next week. The score was 6-1, 6-3, 6-3 as the invading team registered its third straight and decisive victory.

Two more singles matches will be played tomorrow, with Vines meeting Wright and Allison matching strokes with Gilbert Nunns.

The veteran doubles combination was as effective as Ellsworth Vines and Wilmer Allison were in scoring singles triumps yesterday. Less than 45 minutes of battling was sufficient to give Lott and Van Ryn their victory.

Rainville and Wright made a brave stand against the smooth working Americans but they were outclassed.

The seven games Lott and Van Ryn lost were largely on their own errors as a high wind swept the court during the last two sets, hampering the true flight of the ball.

BOXING

Pittsburgh, May 19, (AP) Wesley Ramey, 136 3-4, of Grand Rapids, tonight won a 10 round decision from Harry Dublinsky, 138, of Chicago.

COMMENCEMENT HELD AT ROCK

Colenso Gives Address; 24 Graduates Receive Diplomas

Rock, Mich.—Twenty-four seniors were graduated from Rock high school with impressive commencement ceremonies at the high school auditorium Thursday evening.

Rev. H. W. Colenso, of Gladstone, delivered a very interesting and inspirational address. He sounded a challenge to the seniors to go into the world, despite present unfavorable conditions, with a specific aim in life, work toward that one aim and to let nothing side track their aims. He warned the graduates that the prospects of success at present are none too bright and that there are many temptations nowadays to stray off the straight and narrow path. His address was enthusiastically received by one of the largest crowds that ever filled the auditorium.

Rauha Hakanen delivered the valedictory address while Lillian Siimes presented the salutatory. A picked chorus from the boys and girls glee clubs sang, "O Sole Mio," "Day Is Dying in the West" and "Taps."

The annual award to the student of the graduating class, who in the opinion of the faculty, has made the best record during the four years of high school, resulted in a tie between Rauha Hakanen and Arnold Sayen. The award is made on scholarship, athletic ability, leadership, sportsmanship, attitude toward school work and any other qualities which a young lady or young man should possess. The names of these two students were engraved on the honor roll, a large beautiful plaque which is kept permanently in the trophy case. The award was first given last year, which was won by Pearl Kaukola.

Seniors who received their diplomas Tuesday evening were: Rauha Hakanen, Lillian Siimes, Josephine Bridges, John Niemi, Guenevere Utt, Arnold Sayen, Mary Gibbs, William Johnson, Katherine Varpula, Gordon Larson, Vivian Harju, Taimi Turunen, Helvie Rinta, Frank Besaw, Hazel Stewart, Ellen Laitinen, Evelyn Miljour, Ina Kaminen, Arthur Johnson, Lempi Ranta, Walfred Latvala, Aune Johnson, William Heikkinen and Olga Rajala.

The program follows:

Invocation—Rev. Colenso.
Salutatory—Lillian Siimes.
"O Sole Mio"—Glee Club.
Valedictory—Rauha Hakanen.
"Day Is Dying in the West"—Glee Club.
Address—Rev. H. W. Colenso.
Presentation of Awards—Supt. G. E. Weingartner.
Presentation of Class—Prin. Genevieve Kenny.
Presentation of Diplomas—Frank Brander, Pres. Board of Education.

Farmers Meeting

Rock, Mich. About fifty farmers attended the meeting held at the Riento hall Thursday evening in the interest of the milk strike. The meeting was scheduled for 7:30, but did not begin until nearly ten o'clock due to a delay in getting the speakers here.

The principal speaker of the evening was to have been Theodore Wallenslager, Pres. of U. P. Milk Producers Association, but he failed to appear and in his stead were Henry Cline, of Wallace, and Arthar Desotell and Walter Anderson, both of Carney, Michigan.

Mr. Cline was the principal speaker. He explained the purpose of the movement, saying that it was being conducted in thirteen states and that the upper peninsula was the latest entry.

"The purpose," said Mr. Cline, "of our organization is to unite all the farmers together. Thus far, everybody but the farmer is organized. Farm products have gone down steadily since the war and today the prices are below the cost of production."

Mr. Cline said that Menominee county creameries are in sympathy with the farmers and are closed. He said that no violence was intended, but orderly picketing would be allowed. He explained that by holding the products the prices would rise.

In outlining the program of the association, the speaker said, "We intend to withhold farm products until a satisfactory price is given for the produce. We shall allow only hospitals and babies to receive milk. The main object now is get 100 per cent participation of the farmers. Then we can make our strike effective."

The membership fee to belong to the association is $1.50 per farmer.

Those who attended the meeting did not display a great deal of interest in the project and no steps were taken at the meeting to organize a local association. It is said that one farmer who attended the meeting commented, although we are not getting much for our cream and milk, I don't care so much for the idea of dumping it. And if I did dump it, I wouldn't pay anyone $1.50 for the privilege of doing so."

It is expected that another meeting may be held in the near future.

Martins Ferry, O., May 18. (AP)—Officials of the Laughlin tin plant announced operations would be stepped up to 100 per cent of capacity Monday for the first time in nearly four years. Three hundred employes will be added, bringing the force to 1,500.

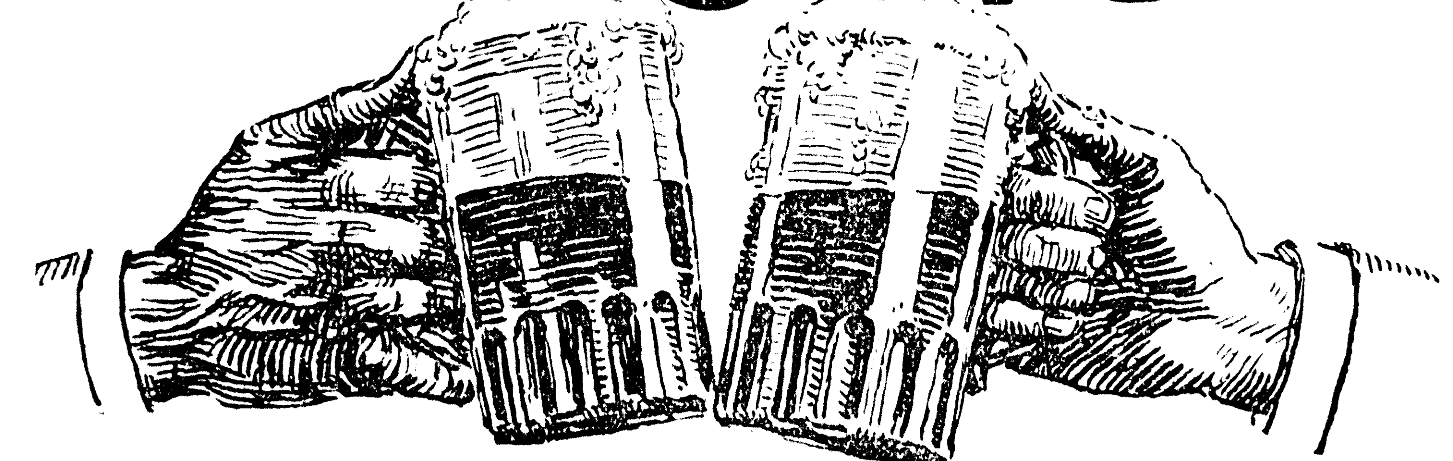
Chicago, May 18 (AP)—The Bastian Blessing company reported demand for beer pumps and other tap room equipment exceeded the company's capacity, improvement having been constant since legalization of 3.2 per cent beer. Officials said 450 men were working overtime in comparison with 80 employed part time a few months ago.

HERE'S HOW



And A Nation Of Appreciative Thirsts Show Their Preference For The Aristocrat Of All Brews

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The tremendous demand for Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer in both the barrel draft and bottle containers is evidence of the good judgement of Delta county beer drinkers for it reflects the preference of the nation. Pabst Draft beer in STEEL KEGS is particularly popular. The nature of the steel keg permits even cool temperature in transit and warehousing insuring maximum Blue Ribbon Flavor at all times.
